CITIZENS URGED AID CHILDREN TO MAINTAIN HEALTH

Urging citizens to maintain the health record of Jackson county through the protection of children in spite of the depression, which threatens to rob them of proper foods and disease prevention measures, the Jackson County Public Health association has opened its annual membership drive.

It started Monday with arrival of May day and leaders hope will be one of the most successful drives in the history of the organization. The needs are greater this year and the funds from other sources greatly decreased.

"The intelligent co-operation of the public is the all-powerful weapon we seek in our war against disease and illness," leaders of the drive declared today.

"We must maintain present standards of public health. No community can afford to skimp in the operation of childrens' dental clinics, nor can it let down the bars to milk supplies of questionable purity," officers of the health association stated. "Epidemics of diphtheria, smallpox or other controllable diseases should not be permitted to complicate the already great burden of the unemployed. Even with budgets cut we must not lose the ground gained by Jackson County Health association."

Memberships in the association cost just 50 cents and constitute all the money used in health work, with exception of the six cents per capita allowed from the county.

GRADUATE NURSES GIVEN INVITATION

Letters of invitation are being forwarded today to the president and secretary of all the state Graduate Nurses' associations in Oregon by W. S. Bolger, president of the Chamber of Commerce. The Oregon State Graduate Nurses' association will hold its annual convention in Medford on May 26 and 27 and arrangements for the meetings are being made by Miss Hazel Swayne, president of the local organization.

The Chamber of Commerce is also writing the various posts of the Veterans of Foreign Wars throughout Oregon urging them to make Medford the convention city in 1934.

The convention this year will be held in Roseburg and the local committee of the ex-service men's organization, together with the convention committee of the chamber of commerce is hopeful that Medford will be selected as host city to the state organization next year.

RHODE ISLAND IN REPEALIST RANKS

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 3.—(AP)—Rhode Island, third state to vote on repeal of the 18th amendment, today stood firmly in the anti-prohibition column.

Wisconsin and Michigan have already voted in favor of repeal.

Only one Rhode Island community, the town of Hopkinton, voted to retain the amendment as the electorate—150,244 to 20,874—named 31 repeal-pledged delegates to the state convention May 8. Hopkinton voted 310 to 293 against repeal.

Rhode Island, which never ratified the 18th amendment and was commonly known as "wettest of the states," had state prohibition for three years. Repeal was voted in 1889.

CRIM ARRESTED ON GUN CHARGE

PORTLAND, Ore., May 3.—(UP)—Jack Crim, halfbreed Indian ex-convict held in connection with the death of Mrs. Edyth McClain and Jimmie Walker here recently, was re-arrested today, charged with carrying a gun.

His bail was set at $5000 on the new charge. Crim, ex-pugilist, sentenced to the penitentiary from Klamath county August 1, 1931, for assault with a dangerous weapon, was arrested when officers allegedly found a bloodied suit of clothing in his room. A suitcase of Mrs. McClain's effects also was found in the room.

POAGUE MUST PAY FINE BY SATURDAY

Sam Poague, well known Central Point and Medford man, pleaded guilty to driving a car while drunk and was sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $150 in Judge Coleman's justice court this morning. Poague's jail sentence was suspended, provided he has his fine paid by 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

State police made the arrest near Phoenix at 7:30 o'clock Monday night.

STORM IN SENATE WILL BREAK WITH WAR DEBTS NOTE

will have to crack the whip until it hurts.

That goes for both war debts and adjournment.

Mr. Roosevelt knows what is going on. He is laying plans accordingly.

He detected the quiet stir in the cloakrooms when he said he would send a debt message to congress. Next day a statement came from the White House that the June 15 debt payments were still expected. That was designed to quiet the boys. They let on as if they were satisfied.

Some interesting information was simultaneously passed out the side door at the White House. It was said England would pay, using $76,000,000 in silver she is getting from India. That partially explained why she made no provision for payment in her budget.

Also came positive assurances that the old Hoover idea of using debts to bargain on disarmament, tariffs or exchange rates has been completely abandoned. Each problem will be handled separately.

That should have pacified congressmen, but they have reached the point where they will not believe anything on debts until it is officially announced.

Mr. Roosevelt played his war debt cards very close to his belt-line in talks with MacDonald and Herriot.

No experienced poker player could have done any better. That information does not come from his sources but from the foreign boys who sat in with him.

Premier MacDonald wanted most a moratorium on the June 15 payment. He did not get it. Ex-Premier Herriot wanted an agreement for debt revision so France could pay her defaulted December 15 installment. That didn't get across either.

You cannot call Mr. Roosevelt's recent foreign conferences either successes or failures.

From the standpoint of immediate results, they were failures. No definite agreements were made on the inside. But Mr. Roosevelt has been insisting all along he did not expect any.

Excellent groundwork was laid on disarmament and economics. The Geneva and London conferences were probably saved—at least for the time being.

That may mean much or nothing. European developments will tell.

There was a bigger fight over the soldiers' bonus in the senate than you heard about.

At one time the bonusites had a majority. The Democratic leaders were frightened into making numerous deals. At least five Republican senators were bought off with whispered arguments and promises before the vote was taken.

The balloting was deliberately delayed 24 hours until the leaders were certain of killing the proposal.

PORTLAND PASTORS 'SNIPE' EACH OTHER

PORTLAND, May 3.—(AP)—Ministers of Portland have spent too much time "sniping each other when we ought to have been sharp-shooting the devil," according to Bishop Titus Lowe of the Methodist Episcopal church, who addressed members of the Portland Ministerial Association here.

Bishop Lowe, who spent about 10 years of his ministry abroad, declared America is almost a generation behind the orient in cooperative Christian endeavor. The meeting here was largely attended by protestant denominational leaders.

Funds For Jetty Repairs Needed

SALEM, Ore., May 3.—(AP)—Governor Julius L. Meier today sent a telegram to President Roosevelt urging release of funds for needy jetty repairs at the mouth of the Columbia river. Allocation of these funds, including $1,040,000 for the Columbia project, were being held up pending the president's approval, the president's approval, the governor stated. Immediate repair of the jetties is necessary for continued shipping, the governor informed the president.

IRISH PROTESTANTS MUTILATE PAINTING

BELFAST, Ireland, May 3.—(AP)—A picture of King William III, on show in Ulster's new parliament house, was destroyed today. Police charged that a man and a woman, members of the protestant league, slashed the painting and threw red paint on it, because an ecclesiastical figure in the picture is said to represent a pope.
