

REAR ADMIRAL MOFFETT BURIED IN ARLINGTON

Rear Adm. William A. Moffett, a victim of the Akron disaster, was buried with full naval honors in Arlington national cemetery, Washington. A company of sailors and a company of marines formed a military escort with the secretary of the navy, Claude Swanson, in attendance at the grave. Ranking admirals served as honorary pall bearers. The flag draped casket is shown being placed on a gun carriage at the entrance to the cemetery. (Associated Press Photo)

ROOSEVELT AND BENNETT MEET

Preliminary to joining the international economic conversations in Washington, Canada's representative, Premier Richard B. Bennett, paid a social call at the White House. He was greeted at the executive mansion by President Roosevelt. (Associated Press Photo)

AKRON VICTIM BURIED IN ARLINGTON CEMETERY

Navy comrades bore the body of Licut. Com. Harold E. MacClellan, one of the victims in the Akron disaster, to the resting place of many American heroes—Arlington national cemetery. (Associated Press Photo)

TOURISTS 'CAPTURE' HERRIOT

When Edouard Herriot, former French premier, paid a visit to Washington's old home at Mount Vernon, Va., he was besieged by tourists seeking autographs. He is shown here filling the orders. (Associated Press Photo)

URGES ARMY REORGANIZATION

Maj. Gen. Johnson Hagood (right), testifying before the house military committee, urged a reorganized army at less cost to the taxpayer. "The shock of war would destroy the war department," said the free-speaking commander of the seventh corps area at Omaha, because it is "too top heavy." Rep. Larry G. Ransley is seated beside the army officer. (Associated Press Photo)

FOREST WORKERS ENJOY MESS

Some of the first contingent of men recruited into President Roosevelt's reforestation army are shown enjoying their first mess at Fort Slocum, New Rochelle, N. Y. They are wearing the special uniforms in which they will work in national forests. (Associated Press Photo)

SPRING FASHIONS SHOWN AT NEW YORK REVUE

These spring fashions were displayed at the Fashion Originators' guild show in New York. Printed gloves, hat and scarf are particularly attractive with the type of coat shown at left. The dress also matches. A hat of black ribbon is shown in the center. At the right is a white and navy blue afternoon frock. The collar is of orquidie. (Associated Press Photos)

Fled Devil's Island

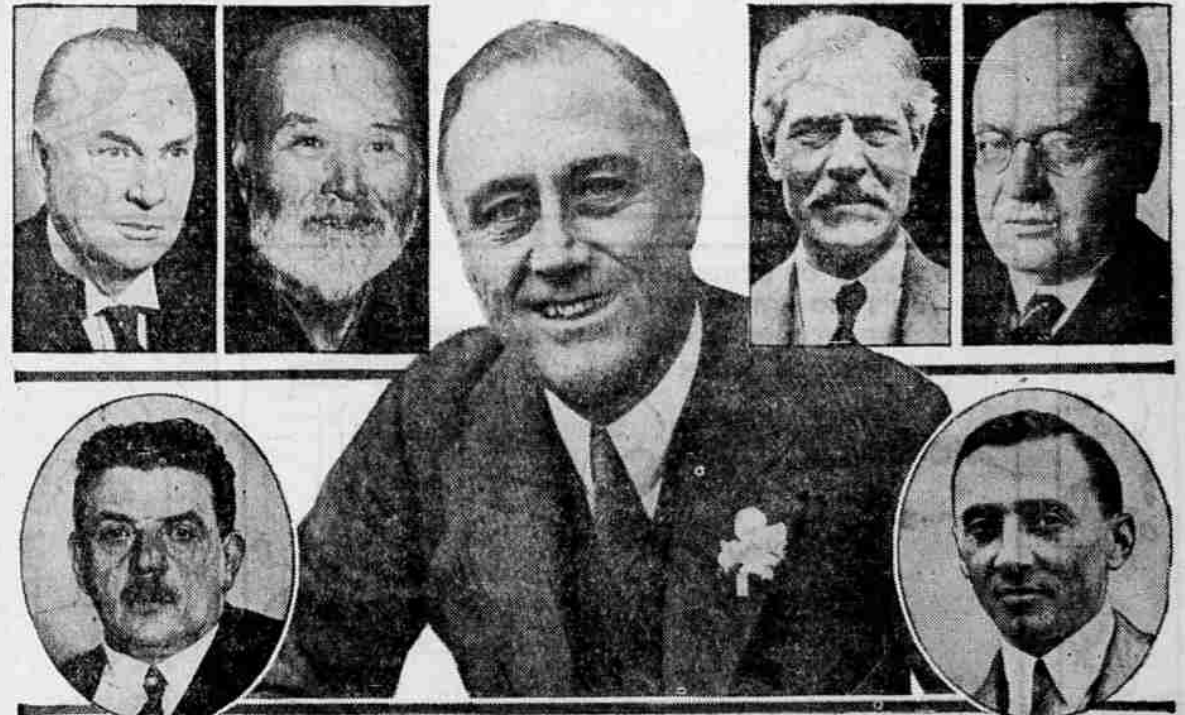

With the arrest of Pierre Dupres, 73, in San Francisco by immigration officials, the story of his escape from Devil's Island, noted French penal colony, in 1938 was made known. He was held for illegal entry into the United States. (Associated Press Photo)

Die In Plane Crash

Marjorie P. Hughes of San Francisco and Lt. S. A. Beck, attached to Grissy Field at San Francisco were killed when the army airplane in which they were flying crashed into high tension wires near Santa Rosa, Cal. (Associated Press Photo)

ROOSEVELT INVITES WORLD LEADERS TO ECONOMIC PARLEY

World leaders will assemble in Washington at the invitation of President Roosevelt within the next six weeks to seek remedies for the world's economic plight. Pictured upper left are Premier Richard Bennett (left), who will represent Canada, and former Premier Koriyio Takahashi, who is considered the first choice of the government to represent Japan. Upper right are Premier Ramsay MacDonald (left), England's delegate, and Hans Luther, new German ambassador to the United States, who will represent his country. France is sending former Premier Herriot (lower left) and Ambassador Augusto Rosso (lower right) of Italy will take part in the discussions for his country. (Associated Press Photos)

AMBASSADOR GOES TO SCHOOL

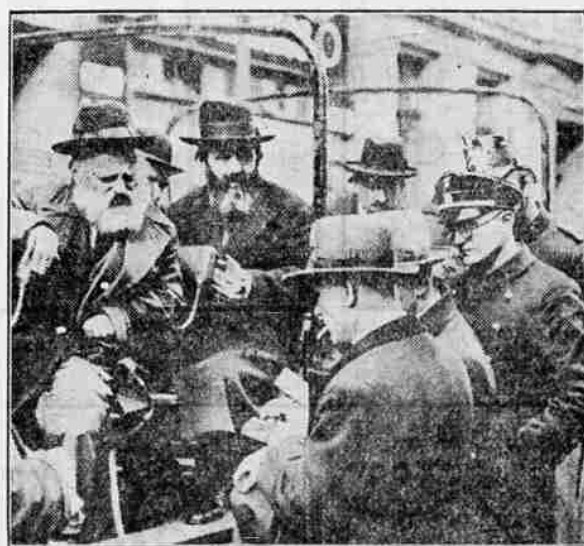

Josephus Daniels, newly appointed ambassador to Mexico, is becoming acquainted with the problems his new duties will bring at the state department in Washington where rooms have been set aside for new ambassadors to learn the details of their assignments. (Associated Press Photo)

FILM COMEDIENNE IN MOTHER ROLE

Louise Fazenda, who has made millions giggle at her antics on the screen and wife of Hal Brent Wallis, film production executive, has been cast in a real-life mother role. She is shown with her son, Hal, Jr., in their first photograph together. (Associated Press Photo)

JEWS ARRESTED IN BERLIN

These Jews were arrested for questioning in Berlin during the Hitlerites' anti-Jewish boycott. Government officials are jotting down answers to their queries before the prisoners were taken away. (Associated Press Photo)

START KANSAS BEER TEST CASE

The ruling that 3.2 per cent beer cannot be sold in Kansas under the state's dry laws has been put to a test at Wichita, Kan., by Robert Andrews (left) who invited arrest by Deputy Sheriff Joe Baum (right), as the first step in a case to determine if the new brew is outside the Kansas law. (Associated Press Photo)

TWO LITTLE CAESARS NOW

Edward Robinson, remembered for his gangster role as Little Caesar in motion pictures, is the father of a baby boy. Father, son and Mrs. Robinson are shown in a New York hospital where the child was born. (Associated Press Photo)

Assistant

Theodore A. Walters, Goldwell, Idaho, attorney, was nominated as first assistant secretary of the interior by President Roosevelt. (Associated Press Photo)

Gets Cuban Post

Sumner Welles was nominated as ambassador to Cuba by President Roosevelt. (Associated Press Photo)