

CONCERT PLEASURES AS MUSIC WEEK FEATURE AT HIGH

Compelled by the compositions of Verdi, Chopin. Brahms and other masters of the most universal of the arts, to think better thoughts, to plan better deeds, to live life more nearly to the full—citizens of southern Oregon led the high school auditorium Wednesday evening at the close of the community concert...

DEPRESSIONS END SEEN BY LEADERS AS NEAR REALITY

(Continued from Page One.) It was always associated with Mr. Coolidge. They thought he could do no wrong. They now have much the same attitude toward Mr. Roosevelt. Everything he does sends the stock market up. They actually figure he is favored by the gods.

BOY SCOUTS FACE SUMMER WITHOUT USUAL CAMP FUN

Interest in boy choice of Jackson county this week is becoming crystallized in summer camp plans, and leaders of Boy Scoutdom are sort of "on the spot." There is little beyond desire for summer camp to enable the opening Larry Scade, acting scout executive for the district, admitted yesterday, and unless financial aid is gained from clubs, institutions or some public-spirited individuals, there won't be any camp this year.

BANKS' HOMICIDAL THREAT DRAMATIC POINT IN HEARING

(Continued from Page One.) about his appointment to the state job. More Blows for Defense. Further heavy blows were dealt to the defense in the direct testimony of Captain Lee M. Brown, in charge of the state police for the southern Oregon district. Captain Brown told of how Banks had said to him, in a conversation in the Josephine county jail, on the evening of March 18, in the presence of Phil Lowd, deputy sheriff and former political protegee of Banks.

"was advised you are one of the number." He made arrangements to have L. P. Belknap, a retired minister, who recently sued Banks for the return of his orchard, for failure to make payments, to go his bonds. The witness said Mrs. Guchess carried a note and quit-claim deed to Belknap. Captain Brown also said that his mission to the Grants Pass jail was to take Banks his mail, and that Deputy Lowd accompanied him. He said Banks thanked him and said "I'm glad to see you, as I wanted to have a talk with you."

home. I immediately informed Chief of Police McCredie, and ordered Lieut. Dunn to proceed to the Banks home, with Chief McCredie. Bartered On Surrender. "A few moments later I received another phone call from a woman who said she was Mrs. Banks. She said 'Mr. Banks desires to surrender to either Sheriff Schermerhorn, or Deputy Lowd.'"

As Banks, Lowd and Captain Brown were leaving the house, Banks said to his wife: "I'm going to be all right, dear." The officer promised Mrs. Banks she would be advised where her husband was held, and at that time she did not anticipate arrest herself. Captain Brown corroborated Deputy Lowd's testimony of his trip to Grants Pass, and statements made by Banks, in which he admitted shooting Prescott "the same as any other burglar," and declaration of Banks he would "probably have shot any officer who came to the door."

"NOW CAN EAT ANY KIND OF FOOD, AND NO CONSTIPATION"

Mr. Durigan Finds Relief in Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Here is his enthusiastic letter: "Am 70 years of age, and for 40 of those years there never was a week but what I had to take a pill or some kind of cathartic. "I took everything, but gained only temporary relief. Until last spring my daughter, who is a nurse in a hospital, brought me some Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. "At the end of the week, I knew I had something that was it, and I kept on taking it. I haven't taken a cathartic since. I can eat meat any time, as often as I like, or any other kind of food, and no constipation." Mr. L. M. Durigan, 6811 Buffalo Ave., Jacksonville, Florida. Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to help muscle tone. Also iron in the blood. The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the intestinal wastes. How much safer than patent medicines. Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. With each meal in serious cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor. Sold in the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

The Jacksonville County Teachers' chorus, which has been welcomed in several appearances during the past few weeks, sang again Wednesday night. In the absence of Miss Harriet Baldwin, director, the singers were guided by Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman, chairman for Medford of last night's program. She was assisted as general chairman of the musical affair by Mrs. E. A. Woods of Ashland. Solo parts were by Mrs. Yeoman and Miss Imogene Wallace.

RED CROSS SEEKING SEATTLE YOUNGSTER MISSING FROM HOME

Miss Lillian Roberts of the local Red Cross office today received a bulletin from the Seattle Travelers' aid office, requesting that the Medford unit assist in locating Jimmy Mc-Braun, son of U. C. Customs Guard J. B. McBraun, who disappeared on his way to his home in Des Moines, near Seattle, on March 25, following a game of field hockey played at Rainier playground, Seattle. The 15-year-old boy is described as being small, and appears younger. He is dark, with brown eyes, dark brown hair slightly curly, rosy cheeks, good teeth, and an unusually attractive smile. Jimmy is four feet, 11 inches tall, weighs about 95 pounds and was last seen wearing blue overalls, no hat, a plaid blazer and a light shirt.

The Russian recognition question being pushed quietly to the rear. A good practical expert has been found. Administration experts will buzz in your ear that they fear the way the Roosevelt reciprocal tariff arrangement would work with recognition. We are one of the few countries having a favorable trade balance with Russia. Under our embargo plan it is 10 to 1 in our favor.

Be prepared to take advantage of the bargains at the coming Land Auction Sale.

Had Premonition. Banks, the official testified, told him that "he had a premonition" something was going to happen, and sent Janet away. It developed that "Janet" was Mrs. Janet Clements Guchess, Banks' secretary. The defendant also told Captain Brown that he had been advised by telephone that indictments had been returned in the ballot theft cases and
