ADVERTISERS SUFFER LEAST IN DEPRESSION RECENT TIMES PROVE

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—Henry T. Ewald, chairman of the American Association for Advertising Agencies, opened its sixteenth annual meeting today with the assertion that the Roosevelt administration "is doing much to stimulate returning confidence and to encourage buying, the upward swing is under way."

Ewald said that "as the wheels of industry gather speed, management must realize that only by keeping the money received in active circulation in the form of wages and salaries can a condition of sound prosperity be developed."

"Advertising is faced by a great responsibility, and I am confident, by a great opportunity. Advertising has not and cannot change economic laws. But it has softened the impact of these uncontrollable conditions. Facts indicate that consistent advertisers have suffered less than the non-advertisers."

Sally Eilers Now In Craterian Hit Arliss Here Soon

James Dunn and Sally Eilers are seen in their fourth "team" picture in Fox Film's "Sailor's Luck," the comedy romance now playing at Hunt's Craterian. The supporting cast is headed by Sammy Cohen, Frank Moran and Victory Jory.

George Arliss, beloved by theatergoers the world over, has found the perfect role in his latest picture, "The Working Man," which comes to Hunt's Craterian Sunday.

It is a highly spiced comedy drama of American business and youthful folly, in which the star appears as a short-tempered, soft-hearted champion of "big business," who steals time from his own affairs to straighten out the lives of the orphaned children of his former strongest competitor.

Slightly reminiscent of "The Millionaire" but boasting a more dramatic story and even finer production values and cast, "The Working Man" is said to furnish Arliss with his most human role in a story that is timely and contains wide mass appeal.

PIES, CAKES, NUTBREAD, "Brownies," salads and hot dishes will be sold at Economy Market on Saturday, May 13, by St. Mark's Altar Guild. COME and BUY at reasonable prices.

Novel Westerner On Rialto's Bill

Ken Maynard in a different sort of "western" opened today at Hunt's Rialto theater for a two-day run. In "Drum Taps" the producers have added a new note by including in the cast the full Boy Scout troop No. 107 of Hollywood as supporting players to the hard-riding Ken.

The Boy Scouts, led by Ken's brother as scoutmaster, come to the valley where Ken is having his troubles with a bogus cattle company, and lend a helping hand in ridding the country of the outlaw.

A comedy, the fourth episode of the serial, and a newswal round out the program.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Swingle were shopping in Medford Monday.
