

PRESIDENT'S AIDES RELAX A BIT

After weeks of unceasing work, the three secretaries of President Roosevelt took a moment to relax—and pose for this picture. Left to right: Louis Howe, Steve Early and Marvin McIntyre. (Associated Press Photo)

Along Fifth Avenue

Anne B. Miles, New York society girl, is pictured strolling along Fifth avenue. She is wearing a black, red and white silk jacket. The same material is used in the dress and is combined with black silk crepe. (Associated Press Photo)

It's Mickey's Shimmy

Walter "Mickey" McGuire, Hawaiian halfback at the University of Wisconsin, appears in native costume in a school show staged by the men's dramatic society. (Associated Press Photo)

DEFENDED BRITON IN RUSSIA

M. Ilya Braude was defense counsel for Leslie C. Thornton and five other British engineers tried in Moscow on charges of espionage, bribery and sabotage. He is pictured making a plea at a previous trial. As a result of the sensational case Great Britain clamped down an 85 per cent embargo on Soviet goods. It was believed, however, the embargo might be withdrawn if the Russian authorities commuted the prison sentences of two of the defendants. (Associated Press Photo)

DOWNHEARTED? NOT AT ALL!

So say Kiki Cuyler and his wife as they muster up a pair of grins after the famous Chicago Cub outfielder was sent to a hospital in Hollywood, Cal., after breaking his right leg while stealing second base in an exhibition game. (Associated Press Photo)

ONE OF HER FAVORITE PASTIMES

The first lady in riding togs is a common sight around Washington. She is an ardent horsewoman and seeks out the bridle paths as frequently as time and weather will permit. She was recently thrown from her mount but escaped uninjured. (Associated Press Photo)

Killed In Crash

Alvin Hakes of Windom, Minn., pilot of the plane which crashed near Neodesha, Kas., was one of six to die from injuries in the mishap. (Associated Press Photo)

OCEAN CRUISE AWARDED BEAUTIES FROM TACOMA

Popularity had a practical value in Tacoma, Wash., when these misses won a contest and were awarded a trip. Here we see them aboard the liner Santa Rosa, ready for a sea journey. Left to right: Ruth Anderson, Louise Reecon, Louise Phelps and Norine Trace Owens, who is "Miss Tacoma." (Associated Press Photo)

ON THEIR WAY TO WASHINGTON

George H. Dern, former Utah governor and President-elect Roosevelt's choice for war secretary, and Mrs. Dern bid goodbye to their daughters and grandchildren at their Salt Lake City home as they depart for Washington, D. C. Left to right: Dern, Mrs. Harry Baxter, Mrs. Baxter's children, Betty Dern and Mrs. Dern. (Associated Press Photo)

BLACK LILIES BLOOM AFTER QUAKE

A few days after the Southern California earthquake, a century old superstition was borne out when black lilies in the Los Angeles garden of Mrs. J. L. Scott bore four flowers. Italian legends, naming the black calla the "lily of disaster," declare it blooms only after a great catastrophe. Mary Dodd is shown comparing the two kinds, white and black. (Associated Press Photo)

'Chickasaw Princess'

Douglas Johnston Smith of Memphis, descendant of two Chickasaw Indian chiefs, will represent the Chickasaw nation as the "Chickasaw Princess" in the court of King and Queen Cotton at the annual Memphis cotton festival starting May 10. (Associated Press Photo)

GOLF BABY GETS A START

Johnny Farrell, Jr., 5 weeks old, left a New York hospital with his dad and mother carrying a set of baby golf sticks and a case. Johnny, sr., noted golfer, believes in starting him early. Picture was made as they left for their home in Mt. Vernon, N. Y. (Associated Press Photo)

YOUNG WOMAN VICTIM OF FILIPINO CULT MURDER

With the uncovering of the shallow grave of Mrs. Geline Novarro (left), on Jersey island in the San Joaquin river, 40 miles from Martinez, Cal., came the arrest of 10 persons. Police said she was "tried" in open tribunal and upon being condemned buried alive according to the edict of a Filipino cult in Stockton for marital infidelity. Leon Kantinello (center), head of Maria Clara No. 15 of Kapaleo Kasarinlan Kalayaan, the mystic organization, and Mrs. Leon Kantinello (right) are two of those under arrest. (Associated Press Photos)

Indicted

Moe Rosenberg, a democratic "boss" on Chicago's west side, was indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of evading income taxes for 1929 and 1930. (Associated Press Photo)

BLACK AND WHITE IS POPULAR IN NEW SPRING HAT DESIGNS

These film players are wearing hats in keeping with fashion's decree for spring and summer. Una Merkel (left) wears a white leghorn hat decorated with a black and red enamel buckle. The hat worn by Jean Parker (left center) is of white satin. The under-facing of the brim is of black satin. A flaring chenille-dotted veil adds a decorative touch. Black and white is strikingly carried out in the hat worn by Mauri O'Sullivan (right center). It is of black crystal straw with braided bands of white "angel skin" satin and a nosegay of flowers. A tailored sailor hat of rough straw is worn by Elizabeth Allan (right). The crown and a bow-trim at the back are carried out in black and white check silk. (Associated Press Photos)

IT'S 'PROSIT' IN CAPITOL RESTAURANT NOW

The four representatives shown here made up one of the many groups which welcomed the return of beer in official buildings in Washington. Left to right, seated: Boylan of New York, Berlin of Pennsylvania, Delaney of New York and Fernandez of Louisiana. (Associated Press Photo)