Brownsboro BROWNSBORO, May 18.—(Sp1)—Mrs. Mary Meyer of Lake Creek has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Imogene Charley, the past week. Lola Wright, Frances Myers and Irene Charley were Saturday guests of Donna Monia.

Mrs. Woods of Eagle Point called at the Wright home Wednesday, while Mr. Woods made a business trip to the W. M. Hansen ranch. Examination for the sixth, seventh and eighth grades were held at the school house last Thursday and Friday.

Mable Aanning was a school visitor Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tucker have traded their ranch for property at Ross Lane near Medford and expect to move to their new home soon. Dorothy Willis of Medford spent the week-end with her friend, Mable Aanning.

Mrs. Isobel Wakefield of Yreka, Calif., spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown. Leelee, Donna and Helen Brown and Mildred Hansen attended the baccalaureate services at Eagle Point Sunday morning. Donna is one of the high school graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and mother of Seattle, old time residents of this community, called on friends here Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Barker of Butte Falls was a week-end guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barker. Brownsboro shoppers in Medford last week were Floyd Charley, Bill Monia, Lester Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hansen, Mrs. L. J. Rohrer and Mildred and Bruce Hansen.

Mother's day was observed at the close of Sunday school, with several readings and songs given by the members. Thirty-two were present. Mrs. C. W. Myers attended the College Women's club with Mrs. Roy Stanley in Medford last week. Mrs. George Canode, who has taught in the Washington school for the past twenty years, was the teacher of Mrs. Myers in Illinois, when in the first grade, and a visit was enjoyed by them at the club. Leiland Dyeinger resumed his studies at high school last week, after having spent some time with his father at Applegate, prospecting.

Phoenix PHOENIX, May 18.—(Sp1)—Several pupils of the North Phoenix school are proud of the final Palmer certificates this week in the Palmer method of writing. Those winning certificates are Eleanor Sheets, Joan Johnson, Janet Bishop and Delmar Hookersmith. Mrs. Joe Standard and daughter Suzanne of Portland are visiting for a time the Dr. Standard home. Services at the Presbyterian church all day Friday will be as follows: Sunday school at 10:00 o'clock. Special music by the pupils of the North Phoenix school. Worship service at 11 o'clock. Sermon topic, "A Common Worship." Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock for the three groups—adults, senior, intermediate and junior. Evening worship 8 o'clock. Three girls who were delegates at the Christian Endeavor convention held recently in Eugene, will give their reports of the meeting there. Those attending were Pauline McAbee, Marjorie Poling and Maxine Cobble. Mrs. Inez Hayes is visiting in Klamath Falls.

Three Christian Endeavor societies at the Presbyterian church Sunday were well attended. Senior intermediate meeting was led by Mrs. T. M. Carter and during the last half hour the adult society met with them and enjoyed the specially planned mother's day program given by the young people.

The junior class decorated the table and room in senior class colors, rose and silver. Place cards and programs were very unique, cut and painted to represent a covered wagon with the word "Frontiers" written across the top of the wagon. The program was as follows: The Covered Wagon, Miss Patterson; Blazing the Trail, Helen Glover; The Explorers, Marjorie Poling; The Puks Back Home, Pauline McAbee; Around the Campfire, a musical number; Mountains in the Distance, Mr. Campbell; The End of the Trail, Mr. Whitman. Eugene Sneaser was toastmaster. Places were laid for 23. Following the dinner, all motored to Medford, where they attended a movie.

The junior and senior banquet is an annual affair here, and greatly looked forward to as a time when the junior class entertains the senior class. PHOENIX, May 18.—(Sp1)—Junior and senior banquet was served at the Presbyterian church Monday night, prepared by members of the Thursday club, Florence Sneaser and Addie Bohn, dressed in pink costumes, were the waitresses.

The high spot of her Northwest campaign was the Washington state tournament in which she won five championships—girls' singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles. Plays Spectacular Game. After a brief rest she returned for Philadelphia, where she nabbed the Eastern grass court girls' singles throne and the national girls' doubles championship with Katherine Winthrop.

Her game is spectacular. No soft lob for her. From start to finish she takes chances with azzling drives to the corners, placements and whizzing shots that leave her opponents bewildered. Although very slender, she is wiry and as tireless as a cow pony. Hers is a perfect temperament. Nothing ruffles her, whether an impolite gallery or a tense crucial match with much at stake.

The committee, headed by Walter Smith of St. Louis, is in special session here with Secretary Woodin. Apparently the administration is carefully sizing up the national situation preparatory to the use of any of the new power given the president for inflation. Phoenix Extension Unit Meets Friday PHOENIX, May 18.—(Special)—Phoenix extension unit will meet at the Presbyterian church all day Friday. Mrs. Mabel Mack, home demonstration agent, will present to demonstrate preparation of eggs, and many appetizing dishes will be prepared. All ladies of the community are invited to attend. Meeting will commence at 10:00 o'clock.

Another Coast Girl Has Champion Possibilities SANTA MONICA, Cal.—(Sp)—Between them, Santa Monica and Berkeley have developed some of the greatest tennis players in annals of American netdom. Berkeley produced Mrs. Helen Willis Moody and Miss Helen Jacobs as its foremost exponents of the net game, while this city has sent such stars as May Sutton Bundy, Johnny Doeg, Tom Bundy and Jay Cohn to the tennis wars.

Now these two California cities have cooperated in producing a young woman who bids fair to follow in the footsteps of her illustrious predecessors. She is Gracy Wheeler, 18-year-old University of California at Los Angeles co-ed, who has rapidly forged to the front in the past two years as a junior and who, on January 1, entered women's competition. Miss Wheeler was born in Berkeley in 1914, but moved here with her parents while very young and "grew up" on Santa Monica's tennis courts.

More Than 50 Titles. Although she competed in her first tournament in 1929, she has won more than 50 titles, including three national championships, several Canadian crowns and a host of coast, state and city tournaments. Her first major victory was in the 1930 Pacific Coast girls' singles championship. Next year she won, among others, the Southern California, Pacific Southwest, Southern California junior girls' singles and the national hardcourt girls' doubles crown with Katherine Wood of Los Angeles.

Continuing her sensational play, the tall high school "comet" soared to new heights last year when she captured 29 championships in various parts of the United States and Canada. The high spot of her Northwest tournament in which she won five championships—girls' singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles.

PHOENIX GRANGERS AT CENTRAL PT. TONIGHT PHOENIX, May 18.—(Special)—Third and fourth grade teams of the Phoenix Grange will present their work tonight at the Central Point Grange hall. A portion of the lecture hour will be furnished by the Phoenix Grange. A good social time is being planned by the lecturer of the Central Point Grange, and it is the hope of the degree team that a large number of the Phoenix Grangers will attend the meeting at Central Point, and support them by their presence.

PHOENIX, May 18.—(AP)—Willamette University alumni members will hold their annual banquet and business meeting here May 27, announced President Charles Redding of Portland.

GET-TOGETHER AT GOLD BEACH FOR COAST COUNTIES

GOLD BEACH, Ore., May 18.—(Sp1) Monday night saw a remarkable "Curry County Get-Together Meeting" when 125 public-spirited men and women from Gold Beach and Curry and Coos counties sat down to a fine salmon steak supper, with "all the fixings" at the Breakers hotel.

This was put on by the local chamber of commerce, in cooperation with similar bodies in other towns in the two counties. The Curry county chamber of commerce was to have met at the same time in Bandon, but drove down to Gold Beach instead, about 25 miles from Marshfield, North Bend, Coquille, Myrtle Point and Bandon being in attendance. These included the representatives of five Coos county newspapers.

In the afternoon there was a meeting here, also, of the Coos and Curry county fair board, at which fine progress was made looking to a successful inter-county fair this fall at Myrtle Point.
