I am going to have a law passed that every man must show a net gain of actual cash on hand of a hundred dollars a year or stand a line of ten dollars and this ten dollars to be used for charity work; wouldn't be such a bad law at that.
I hope this makes me feel better, until some one else fails to pay rent.
GEO. IVERSON, Sec. Rental Property Owners.

Didn't Speak for Others
To the Editor:
Will you please correct the error made in the report of our testimony given at Eugene as character witnesses. At no time did we make the statement that the clubs to which we belonged entertained pronounced prejudice.
We were asked to name the clubs and organizations to which we belonged and in some cases as to the offices which we held and at no time were we asked about the sentiment in any club or organization.
Respectfully,
MARIE N. D'ALBINO, ROSE SCHIEFFELIN, Medford, May 19.

ED. NOTE: In the news article referred to the statement certain organizations were strongly prejudiced to Banks, was not attributed to either Mrs. D'Albino or Mrs. Schieffelin, but was pointed out solely as a point the defense sought to establish during cross examination.

Tracy Scores With Craterian Audience

Lee Tracy, the scrappingest doughboy who ever carried a mess kit, in the fastest talking, greatest role of his scintillating career—Private Bill Jones in "Private Jones" is now playing at Hunt's Craterian.
As a draft-dodger who couldn't see any reason to get killed for the sake of democracy, who couldn't feel the slightest pang of patriotism, who rebelled his way through the A. E. F., who was branded "yellow" by his fellow soldiers, who was everything that an American doughboy did not represent, but who proved his mettle when the time came in his scuffling, hard-boiled devil-may-care manner, Tracy rises to heights of greatness never before approached. He'll thrill you, anger you, amuse you—you'll know him for what he is—the greatest war character, the most vivid personality of the dear old drab boys ever presented on the screen!

ROXY THEATER TO RAISE ADMISSION

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Childers, owners of the Roxy theater, announced today that in order to get the best second run pictures they are forced to raise the evening admission price at the Roxy to fifteen cents. Mr. Childers says some of the major companies are refusing to let them run their pictures at a dime, but in the new admission the Roxy will show second run pictures from all the big producers and more first-run independent films.
The following new prices go into effect Sunday: Adults, matinee 10c, evening 15c; children 10c anytime; on continuous days, Saturday, Sunday and holidays, the 10c matinee time will be from 1 to 3 p. m.

Mr. Childers says they have booked: "The Just Had to Get Married," "Cabin in the Cotton," "American Madness," "Mummy," "Explorers of the World," "No More Orchids" and "So This Is Africa" for an early showing.
Mrs. ouest P. Bray took all honors yesterday afternoon at the Rapids dam by landing two salmon, one weighing 20 pounds and the other 25. She accomplished the feat without the aid of her well known fisherman husband, she declared upon return to the city. While he sat in the boat, watching for a bite throughout the afternoon Mrs. Bray hooked the fish.
Only eight were caught at the dam, giving Mrs. Bray one-fourth of the day's catch.

MEDFORD, OREGON
Medford Mail Tribune
Medford, Oregon
Attention: Mr. Herb Grey
Dear Herb:
Haven't time to write an ad today, but just tell the folks that the Grunow Refrigerator is leading the field in the Northwest, according to the C. B. Connelley Company of Seattle, distributors. Also that Bill Grunow has been invited to show his Grunow Refrigerator in the Hall of Science at the World's Fair. This is by invitation only and in recognition of the greatest advance in refrigeration during the past ten years. Medford has been absorbing the Grunow very readily and we are busy. Incidentally this seems to be the best spot in Oregon for refrigeration sales and that is something everybody should know. The Grunow slogan this year is just this: "It's time America Knew What's Inside an Electric Refrigerator."
Yours truly
