

ARRIVES FOR ECONOMIC TALKS

Dr. T. V. Soong, Chinese minister of finance, arrived at Seattle enroute to Washington to confer with President Roosevelt on world problems. (Associated Press Photo)

SUES DOUG, JR., FOR DIVORCE

Charging "grievous mental cruelty," Joan Crawford, filmland's portrayer of the "modern girl," started legal action in Los Angeles to dissolve her marriage to Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. (Associated Press Photo)

SMART STRAW HAT FOR SPRING

The design for this attractive hat comes from Paris. The only decoration is the colored bow in front. (Associated Press Photo)

GARBO GLAD TO BE BACK

Greta Garbo, husky-voiced Swedish film star, waves farewell to fellow passengers at San Diego, Cal., as she disembarks on her return from a visit to her native land. (Associated Press Photo)

JACKIE COOPER'S MOTHER MARRIES

Jackie Cooper, juvenile screen star, finds a real pal in Charles Bigelow, film laboratory executive, who married his mother, Mrs. Mabel Cooper, in Yuma, Ariz. (Associated Press Photo)

Comedienne Has Son

Louise Fazenda of the films, wife of Hal Brent Wallis, is shown in her first picture with her baby son, showing the little fellow at the age of 16 days. (Associated Press Photo)

HORNSBY BACK AT SECOND IN CARDS' INFIELD

A shakeup in the St. Louis Cardinals' infield has brought Rogers Hornsby back to his old spot at second base after six years during which he has been with New York, Boston and Chicago. And "Pepper" Martin, outfielder hero of the 1931 world series, has been shifted to third base. Left to right: Martin, Frankie Frisch, shortstop; Jim Collins, first; and Hornsby. (Associated Press Photo)

ARGENTINA'S ECONOMIC ENVOY

Following close on the heels of representatives of England, France and Canada, Argentina's ambassador to France, Thomas de Breton (center), arrived in Washington to join Felipe Esplá (left), Argentine envoy there, in conducting economic conversations with President Roosevelt. Picture was made when the President greeted the visitor at the White House. (Associated Press Photo)

WINS JOURNALISTIC AWARD

Francis A. Jamieson, Associated Press correspondent at Trenton, N. J., was chosen for the annual Pulitzer Prize for the outstanding reportorial achievement of last year as a result of his work in covering the finding of the body of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby. Jamieson's scoop gave this news to Associated Press members from one to several hours ahead of all competition.

BABY CHICK ADOPTED BY MOTHERLY CAT

Baby chick or baby kitten, they're just babies to Ginger, a motherly feline belonging to Mrs. Fritzie Hutton of San Diego, Cal. The mother cat adopted the chick as a substitute when two of her own brood disappeared. At left, the kitten Mickey is shown at lunch while the adopted chick stands by wondering what it's all about. Picture at right shows Ginger putting her strangely assorted charges to bed. (Associated Press Photos)

Bluegrass Beauty

The highest honor bestowed on a woman student at the University of Kentucky has been accorded Margaret Walker, sophomore co-ed. She has been named sponsor of the school's 90-piece band. (Associated Press Photo)

ANOTHER 'TEAM' IN POLITICS

Apparently certain appointment of Harold L. Ickes of Chicago, insurgent republican, as secretary of the interior in the Roosevelt cabinet, brings to prominence another man-and-wife team in politics. Mrs. Ickes (right) is a legislator in her own right—as representative of her Chicago district in the Illinois assembly. (Associated Press Photos)

SLAIN PRESIDENT AND SUCCESSOR

President Luis M. Sanchez Cerro (left) of Peru was shot by an assassin in Lima after reviewing troops in training to fight Colombia. His assailant was slain by soldiers and police. In a special cabinet meeting Maj. Gen. Oscar Benavides (right), head of the army and navy, was elected provisional president for the remainder of Sanchez Cerro's term. (Associated Press Photos)

DANIELS WITH MEXICAN PRESIDENT

Josephus Daniels (left), new American ambassador to Mexico, is shown with President Abelardo Rodriguez when he presented his credentials to the Mexican executive in the national palace in Mexico City. (Associated Press Photo)

To Wed? Says 'No'

Leaving Los Angeles on the same airplane for Miami, Fla., and Havana, Ann Harding, film star, and Alexander Kirkland, actor, denied they planned marriage. (Associated Press Photo)

Farmer Sought

Albin Johnson (above), 43-year-old farmer of Harris, Minn., was sought by police in northern states and Canada after authorities expressed an opinion that his wife and seven children were slain before their farm home burned. Johnson was missing after the fire. (Associated Press Photo)

CARTOON WINS PULITZER PRIZE

H. M. Talburt of the Washington Daily News is shown with the cartoon for which he was awarded a $500 prize by the Pulitzer Jury on journalism for the best cartoon published in any American newspaper in 1932. The cartoon, entitled "The Light of Asia" shows a hand labeled "Japan" holding aloft a flaming peace treaty. (Associated Press Photo)