

SOUTHERN OREGON HOTEL MEN ENJOY LOCAL CONCLAVE

Pete Denson, manager of the Hotel Medford was host to a large gathering of the members of the Southern Oregon Hotel association, which held their regular meeting Saturday night in the main dining room of the hotel. A special program was arranged featuring a remote control broadcast of the singing and musical numbers through KMED, Medford.

Bert Hall of the Hotel Hall, Klamath Falls, was master of ceremonies, and proved to be a very capable megaphone dispatcher, as a matter of fact, judging by the telegrams and telephone calls received during the entertainment over the air. Mr. Hall's ability as master of ceremonies and air announcing was indeed well received by the KMED fans.

Al Martineau, president of the Southern Oregon Hotel association introduced the master of ceremonies, who in turn interlocked the musical and singing numbers with short talks from the various hotel operators. Attendance among the members were Ed Boyce of the Hotel Portland, Portland; Dan London of the Multnomah Hotel, Portland; Ed W. Miller of the Oregon coast highway; Arthur Watson of the Cliff Hotel, San Francisco; R. W. Price, Crater Lake Lodge; E. C. Solloway, Crater Lake National Park; Mrs. M. L. Goodwin, Lauff Hotel, Crescent City; George Sabin, Oregon Caves; Wm. Clemenson, Jackson Hotel, Medford; Wm. Bolger, Chamber of Commerce, Medford, and Tom Stanley, manager Shasta-Cascade Wonderland association.

Concluding the banquet, a very interesting movie of winter scenes of the Shasta Snowmen's ski-jumps and other sports were shown, together with Crater Lake winter pictures by H. L. Bromley of the Copco, Medford.

The instrumental and vocal numbers, furnished by the KMED broadcast system, were in charge of their representative, Mr. Adler.

The evening entertainment was followed by a dance, which was climaxed by a buffet Dutch lunch served by Mr. Clemenson at the Hotel Jackson. It was one of the most successful gatherings held by the Southern Oregon Hotel association members for some time.

Apart from the many hotel operators, who expressed their regrets at inability to attend the meeting from various parts of California, and also northern Oregon and Washington, those in attendance were as follows: Ed Boyce, Hotel Portland, Portland; Mrs. E. Bergendorff, Valley Hotel, Klamath Falls; Henry McKeown and Charles Bowker, Hotel Redding, Redding, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Goodwin, Lauff Hotel, Crescent City; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell and Miss Donna Bartell, Corvallis Hotel, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Price and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Solloway, Crater Lake; Arthur Watson, Cliff Hotel, San Francisco; Ross Finnegan, Benson Hotel, Earl McInnes, Multnomah Hotel, Dan London and Mr. Russell, Multnomah Hotel, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller, Oregon Coast Highway; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shepard, Lakeview, Ore.; J. W. Rountree, Travelers' Hotel, Dunsmuir, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. George Sabin, Oregon Caves; Tom Stanley, Shasta-Cascade Wonderland; A. Crownwold, Golden Eagle Hotel, Redding, Calif.; E. Hall, Hotel Hall, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Al Martineau and daughter, Redwoods Hotel, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clemenson, Jackson Hotel; Lou Reynolds, Holland Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Denson, R. D. Johnstone, Miss Wynne Brotherton and Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson, Medford Hotel, Medford; Mrs. E. Grieva, Prospect Hotel, Prospect, Ore.; R. O. Starr, Gold Beach Breakers; Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Diamond Lake, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Crater Lake Lodge.

Among local guests who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bolger, Mr. and Mrs. Yugen Thordyke, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Hogan, A. H. Banwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gebauer, H. L. Bromley and Emil Mohr, Jr.

JACKSONVILLE H. E. CLUB WILL MEET

The Home Economic Club of Jacksonville grange will meet with Miss Ora Niedermeyer of the West Side district Wednesday afternoon. The motif of the entertainment will be patriotic in keeping with decoration day and will be presented by Mrs. Louise Brockway.

Friday evening at the meeting of the Jacksonville grange local members of the grange will debate the sales tax for the purpose of presenting the important facts of this tax pro and con to the members in view of the coming election.

Second rehearsal of the Jacksonville chorus was held Wednesday evening with about twenty members present. The chorus just newly organized, is being directed by Mrs. A. J. MacDonough, with one hour rehearsals every Wednesday evening. A great deal of interest is being shown in the new undertaking which promises added feature in the line of musical entertainment.

ALAN CARLEY CHAMP OF CAMPUS BATTLES

Alan Carley of this city is this year's winner of the all-oregon mid-weight boxing championship at the University of Oregon, according to announcement in Saturday's Emerald, which carries a review of intra-mural sports. The campus title was accorded Carley, who is also a prominent participant in other activities on the campus, his leading events covering a wide span from musical to boxing.

Legion Auxiliary Poppy Sale Days Marked By Mayor

To Whom It May Concern: The American Legion Auxiliary have chosen Friday and Saturday, May 26 and 27, and permission has been granted for the sale of veteran-made memorial poppies on these days. Funds received through this sale are to be used for special relief of veterans of the World War.

E. M. WILSON, Mayor, Medford, Ore., May 8, 1933.

GLEEMEN IN UPROAR WHEN DIPPEL BALKS AT DONNING TUXEDO

Trouble in the ranks of the Medford Gleemen, scheduled to appear in spring concert next Thursday evening, leaked out today in official circles, along with announcement that tickets are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce for the long-anticipated affair.

Dr. S. Ralph Dippel must appear in dress clothes for the concert. That was the order given out last night after a long and heated debate and a strenuous fitting during which an attempt was made to get Paul Scherer's soup and fish to fit the doctor.

The fitting revealed that the trousers are too long and the waistline too snug. Scherer refuses to submit the trousers to a trimming and "Doc" refuses to roll his own or "anybody's britches" and that's where the discussion ended last night, but James Stevens, director of the Gleemen, still maintains, "trousers or no trousers," there will be a concert Thursday.

BIRTHS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Walker a son, weighing nine pounds, nine ounces, at the Community hospital.

You really will buy land at your own price at the Land Auction Sale. Be ready.

W. B. Crause, nurseryman, 528 So. Fir St.

SPECIAL THIS WEEK HAY SALT 75c Per Cwt.
In 500 lb. Lots (125 lb. sacks)
We will save you money on Hay and Block Salt. See us before you buy
F. E. Samson Co.
Phone 833. 220 N. Riverside

Now You Can Afford A Tailor-Made SUIT $25.00
Come in and select the material you prefer from a wide assortment of high grade wools. Perfect fit and satisfaction guaranteed. 1933 prices as low as Huber Tailored Clothes Have a Reputation for Perfect Fit, Smart Appearance and Longer Wear. Find Out for Yourself.
F. J. Huber
N. Fir Street

SPECIFICATIONS LISTED IN CAMP BUILDING NEEDS

In the bids for lumber to be used in construction work at the civilian conservation corps camps in Medford district, specifications included the fact that No. 2 common Douglas fir lumber or its equal will be required in the construction of all buildings and equipment listed under this item.

The specifications also state that No. 3 common pine or white fir and No. 2 common redwood are to be considered equal to No. 2 common Douglas fir.

To be constructed are 27 pyramid tents, 16x18 feet; three storage tents, 17 feet 10 inches by 20 feet 8 inches; one large paulin enclosure, 18 feet by 33 feet 8 inches. The anticipated paulina, according to plans of the C. C. C., are two of the size of 17 by 23 feet, and one the size of 20 by 40 feet.

On the specifications mailed out to prospective bidders, who must have their sealed bids in the office not later than 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, it was stated that for one enclosure, size 18 feet by 16 feet 10 inches, a paulin 17 by 23 feet will be required.

Bidders are allowed to bid on delivery to any number of camps desired, and delivery will not be called for until camps are accessible.

A total of 477 board feet is necessary for one of the pyramid tents, the lumber to be used for floor sleepers and framing. For a storage tent, 824 feet are required for floor sleepers, floor boards and framing.

One large paulin necessitates 1908 board feet for floor sleepers, floor headers, floor boards, ridge, rafter, roof, braces, plates, ends, plate sides, studs, corner posts, corner braces, gables, baseboards, sids and ends, footing trizee boards sids and ends, and weather strips. For the smaller size paulin, the board feet requirements are 858.

Bids for nails are also to be received, and the listments are as follows: For a pyramid tent, common nails, five pounds of 8d for floors and three pounds of 16d for framing; for a storage tent, seven pounds of 8d for flooring and six pounds of 16d for framing; for one large wall tent, four pounds 8d for flooring and four pounds 16d for framing; for one large paulin, five pounds of 16d, ten pounds of 10d, five pounds of 8d and two pounds of 4d, all common nails; ten 8-ounce packages of carpenters tacks, 4 1/2 yards of screen cloth GI, 36 inches wide and 18 mesh, two screen doors, 2 feet 6 inches by 6 feet 8 inches, with complete screen door set.

Listings are also made for one mesh table 2 feet by 8 feet 6 inches, with benches for 10 men. One pound of 16d and 1/4 pound 8d common nails are needed for this item.

Requirements are based on 22 units, and contractors for supplying materials will be required to multiply for the number of camps they wish to provide each item.

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

JANE SOLINSKY IS VOTED PRESIDENT FOR JUNIOR HIGH

For the first time since the reorganization of the local Junior high school, a girl was elected president yesterday, with the majority of ballots being cast for Jane Solinsky.

Other candidates for the office were Ed Carter, Sam Richardson and Bob Hayes.

Named in yesterday's election of students to be in charge during the school year of 1933-34, were: Bob Walker, Jr., vice-president, selected over Kathleen Dillard, Helen Thompson and Grace Turnquist; Lois Herman, secretary. Students nominated for that office were Catherine Conroy, George Dudley and Jack Henderson.

For treasurer, J. L. Campbell received more votes than did Viola Clevin, Louisa Cowden and Peggy Reiter. Janet Mann was named business manager over Buster Ivanhoe, Fred Childers and Bob Thieroff.

Boys' yell leader will be Jamie MacCollister, who defeated Harry Stanley, Ted Taylor and Donald Root. Janice Shreve will be girls' yell leader, successful candidate over Katherine Mead, Dorothy Simonson and Lois Littrell.

The school's song queen is to be Frankie Rinabarger. She was victorious over Rebecca Chaney, Corinne Harwood, Edith Hodgins and Kathleen Knox. Elsie Penwell, selected over Betty Lee and Mary L. McElhose, will be the pianist.

Phoenix Cemetery Cleanup Wednesday PHOENIX, May 23.—(Sp.)—All of those who have lots in the Phoenix cemetery are reminded that Wednesday is clean-up day and are urged to come to the cemetery and assist in preparations for memorial day.

Broken windows glazed by Trowbridge Cabinet Works

CIVIL WAR VETERANS' VANITY FLARES; WON'T MARCH BEHIND ARMY

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

JANE SOLINSKY IS VOTED PRESIDENT FOR JUNIOR HIGH

For the first time since the reorganization of the local Junior high school, a girl was elected president yesterday, with the majority of ballots being cast for Jane Solinsky.

Other candidates for the office were Ed Carter, Sam Richardson and Bob Hayes.

Named in yesterday's election of students to be in charge during the school year of 1933-34, were: Bob Walker, Jr., vice-president, selected over Kathleen Dillard, Helen Thompson and Grace Turnquist; Lois Herman, secretary. Students nominated for that office were Catherine Conroy, George Dudley and Jack Henderson.

For treasurer, J. L. Campbell received more votes than did Viola Clevin, Louisa Cowden and Peggy Reiter. Janet Mann was named business manager over Buster Ivanhoe, Fred Childers and Bob Thieroff.

Boys' yell leader will be Jamie MacCollister, who defeated Harry Stanley, Ted Taylor and Donald Root. Janice Shreve will be girls' yell leader, successful candidate over Katherine Mead, Dorothy Simonson and Lois Littrell.

The school's song queen is to be Frankie Rinabarger. She was victorious over Rebecca Chaney, Corinne Harwood, Edith Hodgins and Kathleen Knox. Elsie Penwell, selected over Betty Lee and Mary L. McElhose, will be the pianist.

Phoenix Cemetery Cleanup Wednesday PHOENIX, May 23.—(Sp.)—All of those who have lots in the Phoenix cemetery are reminded that Wednesday is clean-up day and are urged to come to the cemetery and assist in preparations for memorial day.

Broken windows glazed by Trowbridge Cabinet Works

CIVIL WAR VETERANS' VANITY FLARES; WON'T MARCH BEHIND ARMY

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

JANE SOLINSKY IS VOTED PRESIDENT FOR JUNIOR HIGH

For the first time since the reorganization of the local Junior high school, a girl was elected president yesterday, with the majority of ballots being cast for Jane Solinsky.

Other candidates for the office were Ed Carter, Sam Richardson and Bob Hayes.

Named in yesterday's election of students to be in charge during the school year of 1933-34, were: Bob Walker, Jr., vice-president, selected over Kathleen Dillard, Helen Thompson and Grace Turnquist; Lois Herman, secretary. Students nominated for that office were Catherine Conroy, George Dudley and Jack Henderson.

For treasurer, J. L. Campbell received more votes than did Viola Clevin, Louisa Cowden and Peggy Reiter. Janet Mann was named business manager over Buster Ivanhoe, Fred Childers and Bob Thieroff.

Boys' yell leader will be Jamie MacCollister, who defeated Harry Stanley, Ted Taylor and Donald Root. Janice Shreve will be girls' yell leader, successful candidate over Katherine Mead, Dorothy Simonson and Lois Littrell.

The school's song queen is to be Frankie Rinabarger. She was victorious over Rebecca Chaney, Corinne Harwood, Edith Hodgins and Kathleen Knox. Elsie Penwell, selected over Betty Lee and Mary L. McElhose, will be the pianist.

Phoenix Cemetery Cleanup Wednesday PHOENIX, May 23.—(Sp.)—All of those who have lots in the Phoenix cemetery are reminded that Wednesday is clean-up day and are urged to come to the cemetery and assist in preparations for memorial day.

Broken windows glazed by Trowbridge Cabinet Works

CIVIL WAR VETERANS' VANITY FLARES; WON'T MARCH BEHIND ARMY

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

JANE SOLINSKY IS VOTED PRESIDENT FOR JUNIOR HIGH

For the first time since the reorganization of the local Junior high school, a girl was elected president yesterday, with the majority of ballots being cast for Jane Solinsky.

Other candidates for the office were Ed Carter, Sam Richardson and Bob Hayes.

Named in yesterday's election of students to be in charge during the school year of 1933-34, were: Bob Walker, Jr., vice-president, selected over Kathleen Dillard, Helen Thompson and Grace Turnquist; Lois Herman, secretary. Students nominated for that office were Catherine Conroy, George Dudley and Jack Henderson.

For treasurer, J. L. Campbell received more votes than did Viola Clevin, Louisa Cowden and Peggy Reiter. Janet Mann was named business manager over Buster Ivanhoe, Fred Childers and Bob Thieroff.

Boys' yell leader will be Jamie MacCollister, who defeated Harry Stanley, Ted Taylor and Donald Root. Janice Shreve will be girls' yell leader, successful candidate over Katherine Mead, Dorothy Simonson and Lois Littrell.

The school's song queen is to be Frankie Rinabarger. She was victorious over Rebecca Chaney, Corinne Harwood, Edith Hodgins and Kathleen Knox. Elsie Penwell, selected over Betty Lee and Mary L. McElhose, will be the pianist.

Phoenix Cemetery Cleanup Wednesday PHOENIX, May 23.—(Sp.)—All of those who have lots in the Phoenix cemetery are reminded that Wednesday is clean-up day and are urged to come to the cemetery and assist in preparations for memorial day.

Broken windows glazed by Trowbridge Cabinet Works

CIVIL WAR VETERANS' VANITY FLARES; WON'T MARCH BEHIND ARMY

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

"The conditions are laid down by the secretary of war, and I have no choice in the matter," said Parker. The G. A. R. considers Memorial Day parades as not military, but for veterans, officers announced. They said they might hold a separate parade of their own, but would "march second to nobody."

CHICAGO, May 23.—(UP)—A controversy between the regular army and Civil War veterans threatened tonight to halt plans for the annual parade on Memorial day.

Gen. Frank Parker received orders to send some regular army units into the parade and announced he would do so. He mentioned a ruling that such parades are considered military and that the army units therefore must be placed at the front of the line of march.

Civil War veterans objected. They declared they always had led the Memorial Day parades and would do it this year or not march.

JANE SOLINSKY IS VOTED PRESIDENT FOR JUNIOR HIGH

For the first time since the reorganization of the local Junior high school, a girl was elected president yesterday, with the majority of ballots being cast for Jane Solinsky.

Other candidates for the office were Ed Carter, Sam Richardson and Bob Hayes.

Named in yesterday's election of students to be in charge during the school year of 1933-34, were: Bob Walker, Jr., vice-president, selected over Kathleen Dillard, Helen Thompson and Grace Turnquist; Lois Herman, secretary. Students nominated for that office were Catherine Conroy, George Dudley and Jack Henderson.