MONROE FIGHTS BUZZSAW IN TONIGHT'S MAIN EVENT

LIGHTWEIGHT GO FIRST OF SERIES TO PICK CHAMP

FRANKIE MONROE, promising Klamath Falls lightweight who has become a prime favorite with Medford fans. Monroe tangles with Buzzsaw Zimmerman in the six-round main event at the armory tonight.

If advance ticket sales are any indication, Frankie Monroe, who meets "Buzzsaw" Zimmerman in the six-round main event at the armory tonight, is fast becoming a ring favorite in Medford. The boys want to see him in action again after having seen him take a decision from Herb White two weeks ago, and they are willing to pay to see him.

As tonight's card is the first of a series which will comprise the lightweight tournament to be held here, fans will soon have no doubt as to who is the best lightweight in southern Oregon. Most of them already feel the honors lie between Monroe and White, but, as Lillard said yesterday, "you never can tell when some youngster will knock the block off the favored man."

White, although he lost to Monroe two weeks ago, wasn't hurt, as Monroe worked on Whites body almost entirely. Most White fans feel that if Herb had rushed Monroe and had slugged it out with him early in the fight, that he might have taken the Klamath boy. Monroe is a better boxer than Herb, but can't hit as hard.

Battling Beno, who recently fought Jack McCarthy here, will meet Cliff Sparr, formerly of The Dalles but now of Medford, in the six-round semi-windup. Sparr is reputed to have held full sway in light-weight ranks up around The Dalles, and feels confident he will take Beno tonight, and McCarthy in the near future. McCarthy recently beat Beno by a close decision.

Frank Jewett will meet Bob Irwin in a four-round go, and Medford fans will then be able to tell whether a fleet champion is anything to crow about. Jewett was lightweight king of his fleet while he was in the navy.

Chief Grey Eagle of Chiloquin will open the card in a four-round go against Dave Morris of Klamath Falls.

COURT HALL WILL BE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL LEAGUE

Court Hall, well-known in southern Oregon baseball circles, and an ardent booster of the game, was unanimously elected president of the Southern Oregon Baseball league by a mail vote of league directors, it was announced today.

Hall is the second president to be elected. Owney Patton was previously chosen, but due to business, was unable to accept.

Hall has done a great deal toward promoting baseball in the valley in the past and promises to do all in his power to make the present newly organized league a success. As manager of baseball teams here he has produced aggregations that will long live in the memory of local ball fans.

A secretary will be appointed by President Hall within a few days, he announces.

All indications are that the Southern Oregon league this season will be the strongest ever to represent this part of the state. The league includes some of the best known baseball players and managers in the state. Bill Foutier of Coquille has a state-wide reputation as a manager, due to teams he has produced. Roseburg is very fortunate in having the services of Red Rupert as manager. Rupert formerly managed the Albany team in the Oregon State League and is known to many Oregon baseball fans. At Klamath Falls is "Frisco" Edwards, who piloted the Salem Senators for many seasons and who has gained considerable fame of late years in producing American Legion junior championship teams.

Eagle Point has "Hoosier" Hoffard, one of the best outfielders ever to enter the valley. Hoffard has gathered a mighty good aggregation of ball players this year and promises to make things interesting for opposing teams. The ability of "Hobby" Hobson, Ashland manager, needs very little mention, as every fan knows of his record in producing championship football, basketball and baseball teams at various schools and colleges. Hobson has a fast bunch of college players listed on his squad.

Harold Haight, manager of the Medford entry in the league, combines considerable talent as a player with a good managerial head and a steadfast love for the game. He is rapidly lining up a team which will make plenty of trouble for competitors.

Practice games show his outfit near form for the league opening.

LENHART DECISIONS CHICAGO BLACK BOY

SEATTLE, May 24.—(AP)—As a southpaw a few years ago, Fred Lenhart, Tacoma light-weight, twice was knocked out by Larry Johnson, Chicago, but the former gained some revenge here last night as an orthodox battler when he won a clean-cut decision over the bean-pole negro in an eight-round boxing bout.

Lenhart all but knocked out Johnson as he won seven of the eight sessions.

Joe Ponce, Los Angeles lightweight handed a beating to Louie Nelson, Portland, in six rounds.
