

SACRED CONCERT NAZARENE CHURCH

The Church of the Nazarene, at the corner of North Central and Jackson streets, is presenting Reverend Haldor Lillenas, musical composer and song writer, in an illustrated sacred concert at eight o'clock this evening at the church, according to announcement today by Rev. John T. LaRose.

Rev. Haldor Lillenas

Reverend Lillenas is widely known for his composition of over two thousand sacred songs and hymns. The program will include stereotypical illustrations of some of the hymns of the church, while Reverend Lillenas sings them.

There will be no charge for the concert, Reverend LaRose announced, and the public is cordially invited.

Schlitz Beer On Sale Here Soon Is Plan Of Ellis

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ellis will leave Saturday for Portland on a combined pleasure and business trip. Mr. Ellis will confer with officials of the Ballif Distributing company of Portland relative to shipment of an entire carload of famous Schlitz beer which has been allotted to the Medford territory and which will be available for local consumption in the near future.

"We have made a special effort to secure Schlitz beer for southern Oregon people since beer became legal. Due to the heavy demand in the east for this famous Milwaukee brew, however, we have been unable to secure a shipment yet. While in Portland I will arrange for an early supply for this territory," Mr. Ellis said.

SALEM, May 25.—(AP)—State Librarian Harriet Long will preside over the Pacific Northwest Library association convention in Victoria, B. C., May 29, 30 and 31.

Penalties in Perjury Are Quoted From Statutes

In answer to many inquiries regarding punishment for perjury the Mail Tribune prints the following extracts from the Oregon code: Oregon Code Sec. 14-402. Perjury and subordination of perjury.—Penalty.—Every person convicted of the crime of perjury, committed on the trial of, or proceedings in a criminal action for a crime punishable with death or imprisonment for life, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than five years nor more than twenty years. Every person convicted of the crime of perjury, committed in any proceeding in a court of justice other than such criminal action, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than three years nor more than ten years, and every person convicted of the crime of perjury, committed otherwise than in a proceeding before a court of justice, or convicted of the crime of subordination of perjury, however committed, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than two years nor more than five years.

Oregon Code Sec. 14-403. Inciting person to commit perjury.—If any person shall endeavor to produce or incite another to commit the crime of perjury, though no perjury be committed, such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than three years.

The above means, not only that perjury in a murder trial is heavily punished by the state law, but that attorneys responsible for trying to incite perjury, even tho no perjury is committed, are liable to from one to three years in the penitentiary.
