of this action received high commendation from legal and lay sources throughout the state.

May Ask Separate Trials. While no announcement has been made of defense plans, it is expected that the defendants will seek separate trials, which is their right under Oregon law. They are all jointly indicted.

Presented Recount. The ballots were stolen from a vault in the courthouse on the night of February 19, during and after a meeting of the so-called "Good Government Congress" in the courthouse auditorium. The afternoon previous Judge Skipworth of Lane county handed down a ruling in circuit court ordering a recount of the ballots cast for sheriff in the November election.

Among those indicted were L. A. Banks, agitator, orchardist and publisher, last week convicted of second degree murder, with a mandatory life term by a Lane county jury. Banks shot Constable Prescott, when he came to his front door bearing a ballot theft bench warrant.

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL TWINS

When it came to choosing a salutatorian for the Medford, Ore., high school graduating class, the scholastic records of Frances and Elizabeth Ferry, 16-year-old twins, were the same, both having a four year record of a straight "A". They were jointly elected to prepare and deliver the address. (Associated Press Photos)

Craterian Star

One of the reasons that "A Bedtime Story," starring Maurice Chevalier and playing at Hunt's Craterian theater, is finding favor with audiences is Leah Ray, the popular blues singer with Phil Harris' Coconut Grove orchestra. Helen Twelvethree, Edward Everett Horton and Adrienne Ames are also in the cast.

6 FARMERS MAKE PLEAS OF GUILTY

LE MAIRS, Iowa, May 25.—(AP)—Six Plymouth county farmers charged with dragging Judge C. O. Bradley, 53, from his court bench April 27, carrying him into the country and choking him in to unconsciousness with a rope, pleaded guilty in district court here today. Sentence was deferred until tomorrow.

ALCOHOL BLAMED IN M'COY'S DEATH

An autopsy was held at the Perl funeral home yesterday afternoon, with Dr. A. F. Walter Kreese filing a report that H. R. McCoy, 59-year-old transient died from "chronic alcoholism." The inquest, scheduled for Thursday also, was delayed until today, in order that Mrs. Treve Landley of Klamath Falls might attend.
