

Wins Pulitzer Award RUTH ELDER WITH FOURTH HUBBY

Edgar Ansel Mowrer, Berlin correspondent of The Chicago Daily News, was awarded the Pulitzer prize for the best example of correspondence in 1932. (Associated Press Photo)

It was her fourth adventure into matrimony when Ruth Elder, first woman to try a transatlantic flight, was married to Albert Gillespie, movie art director, in Yuma, Ariz. They are shown with honeymoon smiles. (Associated Press Photo)

WHEN JIMMY AND BETTY SAID, 'OUI'

Jimmy Walker, former New York mayor, and his bride, the former Betty Compton, musical comedy actress, are shown leaving the city hall after their unpretentious wedding at Cannes, France. (Associated Press Photo)

MAY DAY BOMBINGS JAR DOWNTOWN CHICAGO

This was a sample of damage caused by May day bombs in Chicago's loop. Thousands of windows were broken and damage in five bombings was estimated at from $150,000 to $200,000. Workmen here are shown clearing away debris caused by the bombing of the rear of the Illinois Bell Telephone company's downtown building. (Associated Press Photo)

TORNADO RUINS HOME; STORM CELLAR SAVES FAMILY

W. T. Dodson and his family took refuge in a storm cellar built eight years ago when a tornado struck the vicinity of Livingston, Tenn. There home was razed by the twister, but the Dodsons escaped injury. Dodson and two of his children are shown surveying the ruins from the cellar entrance. (Associated Press Photo)

DIXIE TWISTER LASHES HOMES INTO SPLINTERS

A tornado which cut a path of heavy damage along the Tennessee-Kentucky border, killing more than 50 and injuring scores, took three lives when it struck two houses that stood on this spot near Livingston, Tenn. Two adults and a baby were found dead in this mass of splintered timbers. (Associated Press Photo)

DANIELS GUARDED IN MEXICO

Josephus Daniels, new ambassador to Mexico, is shown upon his arrival in Mexico City, where he was closely guarded by 400 officers led by Gen. Guillermo Palma (left), chief of police. Precautionary measures followed an attempt to derail Daniels' train and protests against his appointment. (Associated Press Photo)

ROOSEVELT SIGNS MOMENTOUS FARM-INFLATION BILL

In the presence of men who helped draft it and who will administer it, President Roosevelt signed the new farm bill, with its unprecedented powers to lift farm prices and inflate the currency. Behind the President, left to right: Representatives Doxey, Mississippi, and Fuller, South Carolina; George Peek of Illinois, administrator of the bill; Rep. Jones, Texas; Louis J. Taber, head of the National Grange; Senator Smith, South Carolina; Henry Morgenthau Jr., new farm credit director, and Secretary of Agriculture Wallace. (Associated Press Photo)

POLICE END 'BARRICADE' AGAINST AUTO LICENSE TAX

Mr. and Mrs. Ernst A. Moros of Nashville, Mich., sought to avoid arrest for driving with 1932 license plates by barricading themselves in their car, as shown here. Finally police had the car towed to Jackson, Mich., and the 12-hour siege ended in a shower of glass and tools as the couple surrendered. They pleaded not guilty to charges of resisting an officer, assault with intent to kill, and driving without proper license plates. (Associated Press Photo)

INDIANS MEET NEW 'CHIEF'

John Collier (left) of California, newly appointed commissioner of Indian Affairs, talks things over in Washington with Chief Coyote Runs and Chief Yellow Tail of the Montana Crows. (Associated Press Photo)

THEY ARE FORENSIC CHAMPIONS

Four champions in the national forensic tournament at Wooster, Ohio, line up here and show how they won their honors. Left to right: Gene Davis, 16, of Cicero, Ill., winner in original orations; Harold Stark, Granite City, Ill., first in oratorical declamation; Robert Dunham, 17, Sioux Falls, S. D., champion in extemporaneous speaking; Caryl Arnold, 15, Grand Rapids, Mich., first in humorous declamation. (Associated Press Photo)

FARM HOLIDAY ADVOCATES IN NATIONAL CONVENTION

Hundreds of members of the Farm Holiday association gathered in Des Moines, Ia., for the organization's first national convention. Milo Reno, president, is shown addressing delegates in a pavilion at the Iowa state fair grounds. (Associated Press Photo)

MCADOO'S DAUGHTER IN ARIZONA

Ellen W. McAdoo, daughter of Senator William Gibbs McAdoo of California and granddaughter of former President Wilson, is attending school in Tucson, Ariz. Between classes one of her favorite pastimes is to gallop across the desert on a cow pony. (Associated Press Photo)

It's Poise

It takes a well developed sense of equilibrium to get to the top of these beach balls and rubber life preservers as Mary Dodd has done in Venice, Cal. (Associated Press Photo)