

Free Movies at 1:30 Precede School; Attendant for Children

FREE MOVIES FOR THOSE ATTENDING COOKING SCHOOL

Housewives who attend the Mail Tribune's free cooking school tomorrow, Thursday and Friday are invited to enjoy a short moving picture program at the Craterian theatre beginning at 1:30 p. m. This program will be an added feature to Miss Hester Heath's three-day cookery talks which begin at 2:00 p. m. and last till 4:00 p. m. Closing at this early hour will enable all who attend to shop in Medford before returning to their homes and prepare the evening meal.

A special attendant for the kiddies will also be on hand so that mothers may leave their children in capable hands while the school is in session. Lobby and foyer displays will also be featured for the benefit of cooking school crowds. The regular showing of "Hell Below" will be featured by Hunt's Craterian every evening for the remainder of the week, starting tomorrow night.

JACKSON INJURED, LOSES TO HEIBERT

PORTLAND, Ore., May 30.—(AP)—Winning two falls out of three, one of them on a foul, Logger Heibert of St. Helens defeated Bulldog Jackson of Klamath Falls in the main event of last night's wrestling matches here. Heibert weighed 160 pounds, and Jackson 158.

The Klamath Falls grappler won the first tangle in 22 minutes with a hammerlock, only to lose it on a foul to Heibert when the logger pounded the mat and Jackson refused to let go. Applying another hammerlock, Jackson won the second fall in 19 minutes with another hammerlock. Four minutes later, Heibert pitched his opponent thru the ropes. The crash knocked Jackson out and he was unable to return to the ring before the referee counted him out.

Otis Clingman, 161, of Oklahoma City took two falls out of three to win the semi-windup from Hugh Adams, 160, of Portland.

Art O'Reilly, 139, Eugene, won the preliminary from Louie Wiekum, 143, Oregon City.

LAWN PROBLEM AT COURTHOUSE

The county court is considering bids for installation of a sprinkling system on the court house lawn but as yet has reached no decision.

One plan is to delay beautifying the lawn until fall, when the sprinkling system could be installed, grass sowed and bushes planted.

Two men were busy Monday cutting the prolific growth of weeds that has come up in the past month on the court house lawn. It is feared the lawn may become dusty in mid-summer. No means of irrigation are now available.

The sprinkling system proposed would enable the lawn to be sprinkled with one turn of a nozzle. It would require about a half-mile of hose otherwise.

It was planned to start the beautification last spring.

All trees on the lawn, however, were given surgical treatment by a tree surgeon.

W. R. C. Luncheon At Church Today

Members of the Women's Relief corps entertained this noon with a covered dish luncheon at the Presbyterian church, with comrades of the Civil War as specially invited guests. Corps members and their families were also in attendance, as well as visiting W. R. C.'s.

Wedding On Friday

CENTRAL POINT—At a lovely ceremony Friday evening, Miss Marion Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Patterson, became the bride of John Blackford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Blackford, with Rev. Wm. R. Baird, pastor of the First Christian church at Medford solemnizing the service.

The bride was attired in a dress of cream net over pink. About the rooms, floral decorations in the same color added to the loveliness of the occasion.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding, which was attended by only a few close friends and relatives of the couple were Misses Olive Hill and Dixon West and Ralph Hill of Klamath Falls.

Following the wedding supper, the couple left for Portland. They will be at home to their friends the first of June at their home in Central Point.

Bridge Luncheon Given at Phoenix

PHOENIX—Miss Agnes Colver was hostess at a bridge luncheon at her home last week in honor of Miss Merna Pettus, who was visiting here. Guests were Miss Leah Detrick, Mrs. Russell Wheeler, Mrs. Earnie Biera, Miss Susanne Barkley, the guest of honor and the hostess, Miss Agnes Colver. Miss Pettus formerly lived here, and with her sisters attended the Phoenix high school. She is now a resident of Sacramento.

Entertain for Juvenile Grangers

CENTRAL POINT—Miss Lola Blackford, matron of the Juvenile Grange of Central Point, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tyrell and Miss Faye Beebe, entertained the young members Thursday with a picnic and waltzer roast. Games were enjoyed by the group.

get together and apply the soft pedal.

Another backstage scene between Glass and Couzens was put on the second day Morgan testified. They started writing notes back and forth to each other across the committee table.

Asked Glass: "You don't question the right of the Morgans to sell stock below the market cost, do you?"

Couzens: "No, but I do not believe the stock should have been taken by men in positions of public trust."

Glass: "Well, you wouldn't say a man like Senator McAdoo hadn't a perfect right to buy the stock, would you?"

Couzens: "He should have told the people of his state about it and then if he was elected, it would be all right."

It went on like that for days.

Nobody except Glass could get away with such strong defensive tactics for the Morgans. His character is above suspicion. If he had been successful much pertinent evidence would have remained hidden, but no

BOW AND ARROW MORE ACCURATE THAN GOLF CLUB, EXPERTS PROVE

Archers of southern Oregon were guests Monday evening of F. W. Chausse, at the Medford public golf course, and enjoyed a game termed by some as "arrow golf."

Medford golfers were put to shame by the scores hung up by the archers. Their scores for the nine holes ranging from 30 to 38, with birdies not at all uncommon.

Homer Prouty was low with 30, and H. D. Pennington high with 38. The game was played along orthodox golf lines, but the players used their bows and arrows, with a large ball placed on the green to take the place of the cup. When the player hit the ball with his arrow, he had "holed out."

Those who played were C. V. Cook, A. B. Hunter, Floyd Kelly, E. L. Ulrich, Prouty, Pennington and Winslow.

The game was played following the archers tournament held here last week end.

SALEM, May 30.—(AP)—Final petitions for the creation of the Tillamook Peoples' Utility district were filed in the state hydroelectric commission offices here late yesterday.

KELVINATOR

KELVINATOR will not cheapen its product to meet a low price—therefore, when material costs go up (and we hope they do because that will mean better times for you, for us, and for everybody) the price of this Kelvinator will be increased!

We suggest that you see this model to-day or to-morrow. Don't wait. Take advantage of the present low price—the lowest price in Kelvinator's 19 years in the industry.

A Standard Model

This beautiful model is a Standard 1933 Kelvinator. It isn't a new model, built to meet a cheap price. The power plant is a standard Kelvinator unit, the same as used in the larger, more expensive models. It is not an undersized unit that must run all the time to hold low temperatures. Instead, it runs only about one third of the time, which means less wear, longer life, greater economy.

A Wealth of Features

You will find many desirable features. It has a Temperature Selector with 8 freezing speeds—3-Zone Cold, three distinct types of refrigeration—the KeepCold Defroster, which permits constant refrigeration while defrosting—porcelain interior with rounded corners for easy cleaning—2½ inches of indestructible insulation—and many others.

Easy Terms

Come in and let us show you this beautiful Kelvinator—the greatest value, we honestly believe, in electric refrigeration to-day. Terms to fit your budget! Don't wait. Save money on the present low price!

A Word to Prospective Purchasers of Electric Refrigeration

"In the building of this refrigerator there has been no compromise on the Kelvinator standards of the past 19 years. It possesses the same high quality and dependable performance found in every Kelvinator model, whether priced at $97 or $1,000. It could not be otherwise, for this is a standard Kelvinator."
