MORGAN PROFITS FLOW FREELY IN DEPRESSION DAYS

Ten Million Made in 1930 and 1931 Is Disclosed by Probers — $48,000 Paid Out in Income Taxes

WASHINGTON, May 30.—(AP)—J. P. Morgan & Company's reports to senate investigators show the firm made nearly ten million dollars on sale and underwriting of securities in 1930 and 1931, years in which the bank's partners paid only $48,000 income tax to the United States.

This startling evidence, brought out while the banking committee investigation of the Morgan house remained in recess until Wednesday, gave a hint of the amounts the 30 partners must have been able to deduct from their income tax returns under the law permitting capital losses to be subtracted from profits. From these earnings also were deducted the running overhead expenses of the firm.

Depression No Curb
Almost as surprising was evidence that the great banking house made more on sale of securities and its underwriting business in each of these two "depression years" than they had made in the boom year in 1929, when they paid an income of $11,000,000.

the five-year period, 1927 to 1931 inclusive, the Morgan firm made more than $18,000,000 from the sale of securities. Morgan partners testified during last week's inquiry that the investment business was a comparatively minor part of their operations. In addition to their profits from the sale and underwriting of securities, the Morgan partners reported to the committee profits running into the millions from operations in joint accounts for syndicates but the total was untabulated.

Soth said he shot simply in an attempt to frighten the boy. He was tried for second degree murder.

GHIRARDELLI GROUND CHOCOLATE IS AMONG FAVORITE PRODUCTS

"It's always good news when you find a product which satisfactorily replaces several others," says Miss Hester Heath, who is conducting The Mail Tribune's Cooking School, referring to Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, which is among the useful products being demonstrated in connection with the school.

"Ghirardelli's takes the place of old-style solid chocolate, of cocoa, and of bitter chocolate," Miss Heath went on, "because it is real chocolate, from which part of the fat has been removed. It is equally satisfactory for fine chocolate beverage, and for cooking and baking of all sorts."

Miss Heath pointed out that Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate has a full, fine chocolate aroma, developed from high-grade blended cacao beans, and protected by a vacuum process which seals the flavor in. Ghirardelli's need not be melted, but can be added to the other dry ingredients in cooking or baking, or it may be blended with boiling water. It does not need grating either, thereby saving many abrasions on the hands.

Bible or Booze

By E. A. OLDENBURG
"Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death and with hell are we at agreement—For we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold I lay in Zion a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand." Isa. 28:15-18.

Surprise Awaits Suitcase Thief

LOS ANGELES, May 30.—(UP)—As Theodore A. Tauch finished reporting the theft of a suitcase, he began laughing. "What's so funny?" asked the desk sergeant. "Ho! ho!" snorted Tauch. "I was thinking about the surprise that thief's going to get when he opens the suitcase." "Yeah?" said the sergeant. "Sure," gurgled Tauch, wiping tears from his eyes.
