LEGAL NOTICES SHIMMERS. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Jackson County. Farmers & Fruitgrowers Bank, an Oregon banking corporation, plaintiff, vs. Samuel M. Scott and Lorraine H. Scott, and The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, defendants. To Samuel M. Scott, Lorraine H. Scott, and The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, the above named defendants: You and each of you are hereby notified and required to appear in the above entitled court, and cause and answer the complaint of plaintiff now on file therein against you within four weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons which is the first day of June, 1933, and if you fail to answer or plead to the complaint within the time required, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in its complaint, to-wit: for a judgment against defendants Samuel M. Scott and Lorraine H. Scott in the full sum of $750.00, for $75.00 attorneys fees and the costs and disbursements of this suit; and for a decree of this court decreeing that that certain life insurance policy issued by defendant The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company unto Samuel M. Scott of date March 20th, 1924, being number 1727949, assigned to plaintiff, be decreed to be a chattel mortgage as fully described in the complaint, and decreeing that the purchaser at said sale be entitled to the cash surrender value of said policy, and that defendant Insurance Company be required to pay the payment of a promissory note of defendant Samuel M. Scott and Lorraine H. Scott, and that an order of sale be made for the sale of the said described insurance policy, and decreeing that the purchaser at said sale be entitled to the cash surrender value of said policy. This summons is served upon you by publication once a week for four consecutive weeks by order of Honorable Earl H. Fell, County Judge of Jackson County, Oregon, which order was made on the 23rd day of May, 1933.

GUS NEWBURY, Attorney for Plaintiff. Post Office address: Medford Nat'l Bank Bldg., Medford, Oregon.

Odds and Ends

State, Manchester, England, and the Isle of Man are to be connected by an air service operated by a railroad. An American lecturer in Glasgow, Scotland, recently surprised his audience by declaring that tactiturnity was one of the Yankee characteristics. After serving three years in prison in Manila, P. I., aged Juan Escobedo has been cleared of a charge of robery, Paulino Estera, a thief with a long police record, having confessed to the crimes charged to Escobedo. An Australian expedition has unearthed in Meridma, on the Nile, 7,000-year-old ruins showing an orderly arrangement in definite streets along the lines of modern town planning. Miss Jean Batten, the New Zealand girl flyer, who was forced down twice near Karachi, India, has abandoned her England-Australia flight for the present. Although totally blind, Mrs. M. Ma's won two prizes at this year's Cambridge Angling Society's meet in Cambridge, England. Turkey has ruled that foreigners in the country cannot send more than half their earnings home without special government permission. To stimulate interest in the further development and exploitation of oil fields in Germany a central oil association was formed recently in Hamburg. Mrs. Hogue has been ill at her home on the Pacific highway with pleurisy. Paul Nelson is confined to his home with chicken pox. Mrs. Throckmold of Medford was a dinner guest Thursday of Mrs. Leonard Brock. Mrs. Zumwalt spent one day last week at Jacksonville visiting Mrs. Arne Carlson.

Antelope

ANTELOPE, June 1.-(Sp.)-Antelope school closed May 23. The parents of the children met at the school house at noon and a basket lunch was served. Mrs. Currier furnished ice cream for dessert. Four Bellview young people - Marjorie Byrd, Helen Dunn, Marjorie Teague and Pansy Reed - graduated from junior high. Walter Longstreth has planted nine acres of tomato plants. Others in this district have planted smaller quantities. June 2 there will be a dance at the Upper Valley Community club house, sponsored by the Bellview Grange. A beautiful quilt, which the ladies of the Grange have made, will be given away. There will be the usual good music and refreshments. As this is the last dance of the season, a large crowd is expected by the Grange.

Phoenix

PHOENIX, June 1.-(Special)-Mrs. Leta Purry has gone to Pullerton, Cal., where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Claud Cate, and from there go to San Francisco to visit Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Purry. After visiting there in places, she will return to Grace Valley, where she will accompany Mrs. Nell Franklin, her daughter, who will leave this vicinity to make her home there. Although there was a shortage of flowers this year greater than in years past for Decoration day, graves of the Phoenix cemetery were all decorated in some small way and many well decorated. Residents of Hamilton, Scotland, are guarding from molestation a nest built by a thrush on Cadzow bridge as close to the walk that passers-by can see the eggs. New stamp-vending machines being introduced by the British postal department except the new Florina, which are only half silver, and reject the old all-silver Victorian coins. After pulling a huge ball, in which were a bedroom and sitting room, more than 2,000 miles through Europe, two men have arrived in Deebau, Bavaria, with the strange vehicle house.
