

SUBSTITUTE TAX PLAN IS PLACED BEFORE SENATE

Chairman Harrison Draws Measure Strengthen Law Against Private Bankers — Raise $227,000,000

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP)—A complete substitute for the house plan of taxation to finance the $3,000,000,000 public works section of the industrial recovery bill was laid before the senate finance committee today by Chairman Harrison.

Under its provisions, the existing law is strengthened against private bankers and partnerships. Explaining it was his individual plan, Harrison told newspapermen before going into the executive session the substitute would raise $227,000,000 and provide:

A tax on corporate dividends withheld at the source, $70,000,000.

Re-enactment of the one-tenth of one per cent capital stock tax, $80,000,000.

Regulates Private Banker.

Removal of the private bankers' exemption from the capital loss deduction provision of last year's revenue act, and denying the individual the right to take up on his personal return the distributive share of any partnership losses, $15,000,000.

Increase of one-half cent a gallon in the gasoline tax, $82,000,000.

The Harrison program eliminates the house income tax increases, reduces the house gasoline increase by one-quarter of a cent, and changes the corporate dividend tax so it would be collected at the source and thereby save additional administrative expense.

The committee chairman said the public works bond issue required only an annual revenue of $220,000,000 for interest and sinking fund and his program therefore "provides the necessary revenue and allows for a margin of safety of $7,000,000."

Extends Return Provision. In addition to this program, Harrison said he advocated extension for three years beyond July 1, 1934, of the consolidated return provision in the 1932 act whereby corporations and chain stores pay a higher rate of tax when filing consolidated returns than if they made individual returns for subsidiaries.

The capital stock tax, which Harrison would re-enact, was repealed in 1924 and applies to the net worth of capital stock of corporations.

He said his plan would make unnecessary any general sales tax, although Republicans, led by Senator Reed (R. Pa.) planned to propose such a levy in place of whatever Democratic program is agreed upon in committee.

CLATSOP CORPS OFF FOR C.C.C. TRAINING

ASTORIA, Ore., June 2.—(AP)—Forty-four members of the civilian conservation corps from Clatsop county left today by train for a training period at Vancouver Barracks. H. C. Kyle, state fire warden at Jewell, 30 miles from Astoria, said he had been informed that one camp will be established on Humbig creek about two miles from Jewell, and that 225 men will be placed there to open fire trails, cut fire stops and fall snags.

CANDIDATES OBLIGED TO ABIDE BY PLEDGE

SAASKE, Ore., June 2.—(AP)—The secretary of state's office refused to file F. C. Heffron of Eugene as a candidate for delegate to the prohibition repeal convention because of his non-compliance with the requirements. Candidates are required to pledge to file at the convention as the majority in their counties have voted, although they are permitted to file as either "wet" or "dry." His filing will be returned, it was announced.

The omitted guns, relics of the world war, have been sold by New Zealand to Japan as "scrap iron." New Zealand officials say it is not an appropriate place to keep them.
