World's Fair and Other Destinations Lure Medford Folk

Travel is luring Medford society these days and as highways and byways call people from their homes, the World's Fair puts in its bids as most appropriate destination for many.

Among folk leaving last week were Mrs. H. Chandler Egan and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, who will continue to New England to visit relatives; Mrs. Hamilton Patton and young son Billy, who left yesterday by the southern route to take in the fair and visit Mrs. Patton's father on Long Island and other relatives and friends in the east.

Mrs. Belle Littrell left Thursday for Portland, where she will be joined by her daughter, Mrs. Chadwick, and continue east to attend the fair and be guests of relatives.

Mrs. Alan Brackinred also left for the east last week, and Mrs. George Andrews and son George, are planning a trip for the last of this month.

Judge William Colvig and his grand daughter Miss Margaret Warshawski, who graduated from Medford high school at the commencement program Friday evening, are leaving this evening for a three weeks' trip through southern California, to include a thorough tour of Hollywood and the motion picture studios. They will stop over in San Francisco and take the daylight limited to Los Angeles. In Hollywood they will be guests of Mr. Colvig's son Pinto Colvig, who is well known here through his cartoons and synchronizations, appearing in some of the most popular motion picture comedies, including "Mickey Mouse," and radio programs broadcast by KNX.

Mrs. Art Endris left by train on Memorial day for New York to spend the summer months with her parents on Long Island. Mrs. Endris also plans to visit many other places of interest, including a brief stay at the World's Fair, where she will stop on her return to Medford in September.

She was feted at several farewell dinner parties before her departure.

Miss Olson, Bride At Home Wedding Thursday Morning

A charming ceremony marked the marriage Thursday morning of Miss Esther Doris Olson of Medford and Charles A. Hansen, prominent business man of Grants Pass, at the home of the bride's father, William Olson, on the Central Point-Medford highway. A small group of relatives and close friends were in attendance.

The impressive ring ceremony was used by Rev. W. J. Howell of the First Presbyterian church of Medford. The bride was given in marriage by her father before a beautiful altar of snap dragons and ferns, in keeping with attractive floral pieces which decorated the house.

Miss Grace Schott of Condon, Oregon, dressed in white and carrying roses, acted as bridesmaid, while Clarence Winetrout, acted as best man.

The bride was lovely in an exquisite gown of hyacinth blue with corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip leading to the Cascade Rockies for a short stay after which they will be at home to their friends at 417 North Seventh street, Grants Pass. As a going away suit, the bride wore a gray ensemble with blue accessories.

She is the daughter of Mr. William Olson, a resident of this vicinity for many years, and for several years past has been connected with the school faculty in Grants Pass. She is a popular member of the younger set of that city.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Charles Hansen, a pioneer Josephine county resident, and for some time past has been engaged in business in Grants Pass. He is well known in that city, where he is active in all civic affairs.

Among the guests present at the wedding were the following: the Misses Grace and Alice Schott of Condon, the Misses Marge Mortensen, Arleta Porrett, and Wilma Howard of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Skelton of Roseburg, Mrs. James McGregor of Newberry, Mich., Mrs. Mae Wallace, Miss Aileen Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Jenkins, C. W. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Winetrout, Arthur Winetrout, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Riebel, Elden Bedford, Mrs. Louisa Dixon, Charles Gilmore and Mrs. Sylvia Wise of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Southwick of Ashland, Mr. Inda Humphreys, Miss Vera Humphreys and Mickey Martin of Medford, and Mrs. Mable Johnson and Ernest Roedel of Central Point.

Four Graduate at Valley Class Day

Friday morning was a gala one at Valley school, when annual class day was observed with program and luncheon. Four students of the school were graduated and presented gifts by Alfred S. V. Carpenter, who gave the closing address at the assembly. Graduates were: Emily Scherer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scherer; Charity Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart; Alicia Buhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobt. W. Ruhl, and Spencer Wellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. S. Wellis. Miss Nancy Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark, who has decided to spend one more year at Valley School, also received a graduation book.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sells, assisted by Mrs. Smith and others.

Garden Club Hears Rules Discussed

The Medford Garden club met on Thursday night with the new president, Mrs. T. Miles presiding. A number of business matters were discussed and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich explained details of classification and rules connected with the flower show to be held next week.

Annual dues should be paid now and may be sent to Mrs. J. R. Woodford, 526 South Holly street.

The following short story was read as typical of the true gardener's feeling regarding his flower beds.

PRECAUTION

"Is that the fire station?" asked a voice on the phone.

"It is," replied the man on duty.

"Well," said the voice, "I have just had a new rock garden built and I've put in some new plants—"

"Where's the fire?"

"Some of these new plants are very expensive and—"

"Look here," interrupted the fireman again, "what you want is the florist's."

"No, I don't," said the voice, "let me explain. My neighbor's house is on fire and I don't want you clumsy firemen treading over my garden when you come here, that's all." (Answers).

Flower Show of Major Interest Here This Week

Rogue River society will be walking into the garden this week to pick the choicest blooms for the annual Medford Garden club show, which will open Wednesday afternoon to the public to continue through Thursday.

Committees have been busy with plans for the past several weeks and a show in keeping with the local club's past reputation is anticipated by all flower lovers.

The high school auditorium will offer a spacious setting for the event and displays will be received from 8 until 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, when the doors will be closed to the public at 3 o'clock.
