

APPLGATE CCC MEN ARE READY TO START WORK

The Applegate conservation camp in the Rogue River National forest is now organized to full strength and the camp commander captain has notified Forest Supervisor Hugh B. Rankin that he is prepared to assign the company, consisting of 100 men, to the forest service to carry out the work program scheduled, it was stated yesterday.

At present about 40 men are held in camp for maintenance and other general duties.

There are about 107 local men at the Applegate camp. Sixty-nine of these are the regular county quota of men within the 18 to 25 years age limits and were enrolled by the Jackson County Relief committee, under direction of James H. Owen and Alfred B. V. Carpenter. Forty expert-woodsmen were enrolled by the forest service through the relief committee. These are to act as guides or leaders for the inexperienced men.

The names of the 40 follow: Arne Carlson, William McLeod, Robert R. Burleson, Wm. H. Dalley, Ben Moore, Pearl I. Garrison, Johnny Carter, Francis Edwards, James H. Smith, Marion Hulse, Dave Vinnicham, Walter Burdell, Joe Oswald, George Rowden, Harland H. Clark, Herbert G. Miller, Carys Taber, George Siple, Archie West, John Cunningham, Jake Knutsen, Nick Rivers, W. H. Crawford, H. H. Boussum, Charles McCraw, Delbert McClaleb, Orville Goodman, H. L. Mills, Ray Huit, John Harr, A. R. Zumwalt, Walter Young, A. A. Rhoden, Roy West, LeRoy West, Bert Ripper, Jack Hulse, Malcolm E. Owen, Oliver D. Owens and Lester Beal.

Supervisor Rankin has full charge of all forest improvement work to be performed by the personnel of this camp. The program calls for: 211 miles of truck-trail construction; 4121 acres of hazard reduction; 182 miles of telephone line construction; 33 station buildings and improvements; 7 public camp ground developments; 10 range improvements.

This program will be completed so far as labor and needed materials become available and after the existing improvements are brought up to the desired standard. The program is in line with the reforestation policies of President Roosevelt, when he secured authority to employ 275,000 men for the so-called "Civilian Conservation Corps." Reforestation work covers far more ground than the mere planting of trees. It includes protection of the present stand from destruction from fire, insects and disease and the improvement program scheduled for the Applegate camp is for the purpose of facilitating human efforts to give complete protection to the existing young growth and promoting natural reforestation by mother seed trees.

All classes of work in this program will be under the direction of qualified foremen. Supervisor Rankin employed the following personnel, who will serve in these capacities: H. L. Nutting, general foreman, who is directly responsible for carrying out the program.

He will be assisted by: True Lewis, truck trail construction foreman.

BIG TRAIN MADE INDIANS' MANAGER

CLEVELAND, June 9.—(AP)—Walter Johnson, "the Big Train" of baseball for many years, was named manager of the Cleveland Indians today. Johnson will succeed Roger Peckinpah, whose regime has been reported frequently to be unsatisfactory to the Indians' management. The team has been losing more than half its starts of late, and dropped from first place to fifth in the American league.

The election of Johnson came as a complete surprise to the experts, all of whom were picking various baseball figures for Peck's job.
