

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Eva Nealon

Miss Walden To Be Bride, Wedding in Eugene on Tuesday

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Walden of Eugene, Miss Clita Walden will become the bride of Reginald Haight of Cottage Grove, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.

Miss Barbara Jantzen of Ashland and Miss Doris Baler of Medford will be bridesmaids, and Millan Haight, brother of the groom, will be best man. The bride's sister, Betty Jean, is to be flower girl.

A number of out-of-town guests have been invited to the wedding, including Mrs. Gertrude Parker, Mrs. C. Glenn Smith, Miss Josephine Kirtley and Mr. and Mrs. Darwin K. Burgher of Medford, Miss Lora Mitchell of Corvallis, and Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Haight of State college, New Mexico.

Miss Walden has been an instructor in the Medford senior high school for the past four years, and has a number of friends in this city. She was graduated from the University of Oregon State college, and is with the industrial engineering department of the Crown Willamette Paper company.

Following a wedding trip to coast resorts, the couple will make their home at Camas, Wash.

Mrs. Gilstrap Is Guest Here

Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap, her son Robert, and son-in-law Edward Walker arrived in Medford last evening by motor from Eugene, to be the guests of Mr. Gilstrap.

Mr. Walker and Mr. Gilstrap, Jr., plan to return to the northern city today, but Mrs. Gilstrap will spend several days in Medford, where she formerly attended school, and made her home for a number of years.

Mrs. Gilstrap will visit a number of friends in the city before returning to Eugene.

Reddy, Host at Thursday Dinner

John Reddy was host Thursday at his home at a stag party, enjoyed by a number of friends invited to dinner.

Present were Messrs. Bob Colvig, Fred Colvig, Victor Dallaire, Robert Naumes and Jack Boyle and the following honor guests, Don Fox, Tom McNeese, Willard Keys, John Theriot, of Gonzaga and John McArdie of Notre Dame.

Missionary Society To Meet Tuesday

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence Mosker. Program leader will be Mrs. Bernard Roberts.

Miss Patton Home From School

Miss Helen Patton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Patton, returned to Medford Saturday morning on the Shasta from Berkeley, Calif., where she has been attending the Anna Head school the past year.

Royal Neighbors Announce Party

The Royal Neighbors announce a card party for Thursday evening, June 15, at their hall. The public is invited and a good time is promised to all by the committee in charge, Mrs. Edith Beck, Fredricka Glascock and Margaretha Garrett.

Honored With Birthday Party

Joann June Vinson entertained five little friends Thursday afternoon at her home on Orchard Home Drive in honor of her birthday. Those present were: Ruby Gray, Luella Vincent, Donald Colbaugh, Melvin Powell, Eldon Vinson, and the little hostess, Joann.

Missionaries Select Presiding Officers

At the Cascade district meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church held in Grants Pass Friday, the presiding officers were re-elected. A splendid program was presented with attendance from various parts of the district enjoying the day.

Thimble Club Has Pleasant Meeting

Thimble club of Chrysanthemum circle, No. 84, Neighbors of Woodcraft met Thursday at the home of Neighbor Belle Bennett and a pleasant social time was enjoyed in addition to the tying of two comforters.

Next Friday the club will meet with Neighbor Clara Fisher, 218 Apple street, to work on a quilt. The juveniles will meet at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 21, in the I. O. O. F. hall and the evening of the same day Chrysanthemum circle will meet for a social gathering.

Mrs. Grant Hostess To W. F. M. E. Auxiliary

Mrs. Carl Grant was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the auxiliary of the W. F. M. E. of the First M. E. church. Mrs. N. J. Wiley presided during the business session, the meeting opening with prayer and the reading of communications from the state corresponding secretary; also a letter from Mrs. J. Ramsey's school in Africa.

Devotional period was led by Mrs. Gillette. Topic, "Where No Water Is," Hymn, "Close to Thee" was sung in concert. Mrs. Chirwin made the closing prayer.

Study program, "Extension Members" was conducted by Mrs. E. C. Koppes. Mrs. Conklin gave a brief explanation of the term "Extension members."

The Misses Baniash and Newman rendered a duet number, "The Church by the Side of the Road." Two piano numbers by Zella May Grant, "Butterfly of Spring" and "Butterfly." "Lord Teach Me to Pray," Miss Phillips. "The New Minister's Wife," Mrs. Bennett, were the two literary numbers in conjunction with the study.

Ice cream and cake were served by the hostess and assistants.

Leaves on Plane

Miss Getchell graduated at Castilleja school at Palo Alto last week, according to the report from the school in the society columns of the Daily Pac, Alto Times.

Telling events of class day, preceding commencement at the school. The announcement also mentions Miss Getchell in that connection, reading: "The program included a report of the social service committee by Gloria Getchell, chairman of the day; the conferring of the silver scholarship cup to the juniors for the highest class average, presentation of the senior gift to the school by Constantine Avenant of Woodside, and awarding of house and posture honors."

Ex-president and Mrs. Herbert Hoover were among guests at commencement at Castilleja, and one of the loveliest events of the graduation festival was the reception in the famous Castilleja gardens.

Miss Getchell will not return to Medford until about June 24, having continued south to visit friends at Beverly Hills. She will continue back to San Mateo for a short visit with the McFarlands, and will be accompanied by Medford by Miss Marcia McFarland, who will be her house guest here for a time.

Another Medford miss, who will return from school to summer in this city, is Miss Roxanna Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. W. Ruhl, who is a student at Vasar. She is expected home from New York in early summer.

Matney Family in Reunion, Ashland

The third annual family reunion of descendants of Carol B. Matney, late pioneer of the Applegate country, was held in Ashland park last Sunday with 25 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of the pioneer in attendance.

Events were enjoyed in the park and an afternoon of visiting and reminiscing. Of the 12 sons and daughters living, seven were present. They were John Matney, Will Matney, Misses Nana and Martha Matney and Mrs. H. M. Lofland, Mrs. W. M. Copple and Mrs. Chas. Hamilton.

The Mrs. W. who were unable to be present, are George Matney of Coquille, I. B. Matney of Grants Pass, Frank Matney of eastern Oregon, Jeff Matney of Port Jones and Mrs. A. G. Lewis of Jacksonville.

Among those attending the picnic from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watson and children and Mrs. Al Fische and son, Billie.

Mrs. Chas. H. Armstrong, Jr., grand daughter of the late Mr. Matney, was a guest from Roseburg.

Mrs. Day Hostess Tuesday Luncheon

Mrs. E. B. Day entertained at luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her country home at Sams Valley for the pleasure of her sister, Mrs. Mayo and guest from Portland.

Invited for the occasion were eight of her friends from Medford and eight members of the younger set.

D. A. R. News

Mrs. S. S. Smith will be hostess to Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution at her summer home in Edgewood park, on Saturday, June 17th. This will be the chapter's regular June meeting and annual picnic. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock and each member is asked to bring her own table service.

Miss Sara Van Meter, Mrs. Ralph Spencer and Mrs. F. G. Thayer will assist the hostess.

Miss Stearns, Thursday Hostess at Bridge

Miss Helen Stearns was among members of the younger set entertaining last week, being hostess Thursday afternoon at bridge.

Guests for the occasion were Misses Esther Alexander, Virginia English, Catherine Brandt, Lois Nichols, Barbara Field, Evelyn Leonard and Kathryn Robinson. Prizes at bridge were awarded Misses Brandt and Leonard.

Carpenters on Week-end Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter are among local folk taking to the highways this week. They left yesterday on a motor trip from which they will return late Monday.

Miss Foss Leaves on Eastern Trip

Miss E. Marie Foss, principal of Valley school, left yesterday for the city to continue on a short stay in San Francisco and Los Angeles to New Orleans. From the romantic southern city, she will journey on eastward to spend the summer in Chicago and New York. She will return via the northern route, stopping for a while at Bangt.

Homer Platt Home From Stanford

Homer Platt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Platt, returned last week from Stanford university, where he had completed his junior year.

Women's Greater Oregon Meeting Postponed

The monthly meeting of the Women's Greater Oregon association, scheduled for Monday, has been postponed. It was announced yesterday by the president, Mrs. T. I. Deck.

Medford Students Graduate, Private Schools in South

Three members of the local young set are finishing their work this month at private schools in the south. Among the graduates, who will soon be returning to Medford are Miss Gloria Getchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delroy Getchell; Corning Kenly Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, and John Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. S. Wells.

Miss Getchell graduated at Castilleja school at Palo Alto last week, according to the report from the school in the society columns of the Daily Pac, Alto Times.

Telling events of class day, preceding commencement at the school. The announcement also mentions Miss Getchell in that connection, reading: "The program included a report of the social service committee by Gloria Getchell, chairman of the day; the conferring of the silver scholarship cup to the juniors for the highest class average, presentation of the senior gift to the school by Constantine Avenant of Woodside, and awarding of house and posture honors."

Ex-president and Mrs. Herbert Hoover were among guests at commencement at Castilleja, and one of the loveliest events of the graduation festival was the reception in the famous Castilleja gardens.

Miss Getchell will not return to Medford until about June 24, having continued south to visit friends at Beverly Hills. She will continue back to San Mateo for a short visit with the McFarlands, and will be accompanied by Medford by Miss Marcia McFarland, who will be her house guest here for a time.

Another Medford miss, who will return from school to summer in this city, is Miss Roxanna Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. W. Ruhl, who is a student at Vasar. She is expected home from New York in early summer.

Matney Family in Reunion, Ashland

The third annual family reunion of descendants of Carol B. Matney, late pioneer of the Applegate country, was held in Ashland park last Sunday with 25 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of the pioneer in attendance.

Events were enjoyed in the park and an afternoon of visiting and reminiscing. Of the 12 sons and daughters living, seven were present. They were John Matney, Will Matney, Misses Nana and Martha Matney and Mrs. H. M. Lofland, Mrs. W. M. Copple and Mrs. Chas. Hamilton.

The Mrs. W. who were unable to be present, are George Matney of Coquille, I. B. Matney of Grants Pass, Frank Matney of eastern Oregon, Jeff Matney of Port Jones and Mrs. A. G. Lewis of Jacksonville.

Among those attending the picnic from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watson and children and Mrs. Al Fische and son, Billie.

Mrs. Chas. H. Armstrong, Jr., grand daughter of the late Mr. Matney, was a guest from Roseburg.

Mrs. Day Hostess Tuesday Luncheon

Mrs. E. B. Day entertained at luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her country home at Sams Valley for the pleasure of her sister, Mrs. Mayo and guest from Portland.

Invited for the occasion were eight of her friends from Medford and eight members of the younger set.

D. A. R. News

Mrs. S. S. Smith will be hostess to Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution at her summer home in Edgewood park, on Saturday, June 17th. This will be the chapter's regular June meeting and annual picnic. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock and each member is asked to bring her own table service.

Miss Sara Van Meter, Mrs. Ralph Spencer and Mrs. F. G. Thayer will assist the hostess.

Miss Stearns, Thursday Hostess at Bridge

Miss Helen Stearns was among members of the younger set entertaining last week, being hostess Thursday afternoon at bridge.

Guests for the occasion were Misses Esther Alexander, Virginia English, Catherine Brandt, Lois Nichols, Barbara Field, Evelyn Leonard and Kathryn Robinson. Prizes at bridge were awarded Misses Brandt and Leonard.

Carpenters on Week-end Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter are among local folk taking to the highways this week. They left yesterday on a motor trip from which they will return late Monday.

Miss Foss Leaves on Eastern Trip

Miss E. Marie Foss, principal of Valley school, left yesterday for the city to continue on a short stay in San Francisco and Los Angeles to New Orleans. From the romantic southern city, she will journey on eastward to spend the summer in Chicago and New York. She will return via the northern route, stopping for a while at Bangt.

Homer Platt Home From Stanford

Homer Platt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Platt, returned last week from Stanford university, where he had completed his junior year.

Women's Greater Oregon Meeting Postponed

The monthly meeting of the Women's Greater Oregon association, scheduled for Monday, has been postponed. It was announced yesterday by the president, Mrs. T. I. Deck.

Sunday Club News Needed On Friday

Early copy for the Sunday society and club section is needed again this week and the cooperation of all publicity chairmen is asked in getting reports to the Mail Tribune before Friday evening in order that they may appear in the Sunday edition.

Chairmen, who are unable to bring reports to the newspaper, are asked to call the society editor, "75," before Saturday in reporting all events preceding Friday.

Card Party Set For Wednesday At Parish Hall

A very pleasant evening for all folk who enjoy a few hours at the card table, is promised this coming Wednesday, when St. Ann's Altar society will entertain at Parish Hall.

Extensive plans are nearing completion for the affair under the leadership of the following committee: Mesdames W. H. Fisher, L. M. Fisher, Rankin Estes, C. Flurry, Edwards, Enders, H. C. Fredette, Fitzgibbons, Gagnon and Miss Ella Evans.

Past Matrons Feted Monday

At a lovely party Monday afternoon in the Masonic hall, Mrs. W. H. Merritt, Mrs. Kate Young, Mrs. Irene Prentiss and Miss Edna Effert entertained the Past Matrons at desert bridge.

An abundance of roses and other summer flowers gave beauty to the hall, where covers were arranged for twenty.

Watt Lawn, Scene Of Church Party

The beautiful lawn of Mrs. Watt's country home near Phoenix formed the setting for the party last Tuesday of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church.

The affair was in charge of Grace circle of the association and all other circles participated in the program by presenting very clever stunts, which added much joy to the afternoon.

Following the program, tea and cakes were served. Mrs. Harry Prentiss was social chairman for the affair.

East Side Circle To Enjoy Picnic

The East Side circle of the Presbyterian church will meet for a picnic at the B. R. Elliott cottage, Shady Cove, Tuesday.

Christian Missionary Group Installs Officers

The Women's Missionary society of the Christian church met in recreational hall Wednesday afternoon, June 7, Mrs. Allen Curry presided at the business period.

The new officers for the year, starting at July meeting, were duly installed, the beautiful installation service being put on by Mrs. R. L. Ray. Her officers installed are: Mrs. Allen Curry, president; Mrs. Fred Wilmut, vice president; Mrs. P. C. Latham, treasurer; Mrs. C. M. Hon, secretary; Mrs. J. T. Davis, literature secretary.

The worship period was led by Mrs. E. R. Cobb. The theme was, "Walking in the Light" and scripture read was from Isa. 2:10-10. Mrs. Julia Gregory led in prayer. Mrs. I. H. Gove was leader for presentation of hymns, giving a resume of the past six months' study, which has been "China, at Seed Time, and Harvest."

Christians in official positions, a series of monologues, given by Mrs. Julia Gregory, Mrs. Bertha Huson, Mrs. H. Saunders and Mrs. Mabel Marsh showed the temptations and problems of the converted Chinese.

A playlet, showing how a Christian, in China, serves his own community, was given by Mrs. E. L. Ray and Mrs. James Grigsby, dressed in Chinese costumes.

A social hour followed and coffee and cakes were served to 27 members and three guests.

Eve Benson School of the Dance

Open this Summer for Special Classes

Phone 1111

Beautiful Permanent Waves That Will Last Through the Summer Season.

Complete

Murray's

41 S. Central. Phone 363.

Hotel Maryland and BUNGALOWS Pasadena, California

A truly charming atmosphere in which to rest for a day, a week or to live and dream away the winter months.

Pasadena and the beautiful HOTEL MARYLAND are a bit farther away from the ocean, where the dry, crisp air and health restoring sunshine are so invigorating - yet only a few minutes drive along paved boulevards to the heart of busy Los Angeles.

For Booklet and New Low Rates Write to H. M. NICKERSON, MANAGER

Misses Shelby Are Hostesses, Formal Dance on Birthdays

Little Misses Barbara and Natalia Shelby, twin daughters of Mrs. Gladys Shelby celebrated their birthdays Friday evening with a lovely formal dancing party at the Katherine Stang studio. Floral decorations added color and fragrance to the hall for the party and dancing was followed by refreshments.

Several special novelties were included in the evening's program, among them a toe number by Ethel Mae Crandall and piano solos by Billy Porter.

Joining the hostesses in the celebration of their birthdays were the Misses Betty Fowler, Ruth Harrison, Anna Dean, Kathleen Dillard, Marjorie Nichols, Betty Purdin, Virginia Herman and Barbara Lemmon and Messrs. Delmar Wright, Billy Porter, Sam Richardson, Bud Thierolf, Jimmy Henry, Junior Patton, Bruce Hammond and Billy Waxter.

Mrs. Grant Goes East By Motor

Mrs. Carl E. Grant, daughter, Zella Mae, and Marjorie Paley left yesterday by motor for the east, on a trip which will take them to national parks, the world's fair, and several cities on the eastern coast, returning here September 15.

En route east, they plan to visit Yellowstone National park, the century of progress exhibition, and stop in Omaha, their return trip will take them to Philadelphia, and home via the southern route.

Mrs. Grant will visit her uncle, Dr. C. J. Garen in Chicago, and Mr. Grant's mother, Mrs. Frank W. Grant in Pittsburgh, Pa. At Columbus, O., Mrs. Grant will visit her brother-in-law, Walter Marshall.

Farewell Party Held For Mrs. Albaugh

On Tuesday afternoon, June 6th the Loyal Women's class of the Christian church, as well as old friends and neighbors assembled in the church recreational hall. The meeting was held as a farewell to Mrs. Minnie Albaugh, a member of the class, who is soon to leave for her home elsewhere. A program of readings and expressions of regret by many of those present followed, as well as many good wishes and the best of luck extended for the future.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fisher. Mrs. Huson, Mrs. Blankenship and Mrs. Wilson.

Senior Triangle Installs Officers

Senior Triangle of the Christian church, held its regular meeting at the church Tuesday evening. Virginia Gregory, retiring president, installed the following officers for the new year: President, Ralph Cook; vice president, Geraldine Latham; secretary, Dorothy Guly; treasurer, June Davis; librarian, Roxie Frye; publicity, Alice Pahl; division leaders Dorothy Wilson, Velma Smith, Louise Ladd, Virginia Gregory, Adrian Fraley, Leonard Klein. The program for the evening was in charge of Dorothy Guly and her group. Talks on China were given by Geraldine Latham, Leneve Simkins and Alice Pahl. Discussion on China was led by Adrian Fraley. Vocal duet by Genevieve Brown and Virginia Gregory.

Guests of the evening were the Women's Missionary society and Tri-angel members of Central Point. Refreshments were served by the group in charge.

The organization is now a circle instead of a triangle.

Lois Piening Feted at Party

Mrs. Piening entertained Monday afternoon at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Smealey in honor of Lois Piening's birthday. The invited guests were: Dorothy Cyr, Margaret Thompson, Jackie Thompson, Mollie Anderson, Joy Wilson, Jackie Wilson, Marjorie Tremaine, Colleen Winterhalter.

Many lovely gifts were received by the honor guest. The afternoon was spent playing games and refreshments were served.

To Wed Steel Heir

Miss Nancy Brewster Dougherty, daughter of Col. Robert S. Dougherty, will be married to Charles Brown Grace, son of Eugene Grace, president of Bethlehem Steel corporation. (Associated Press Photo)

Mrs. Hansen Honor Guest At Shower

A shower was given at the lovely country home of Mrs. C. E. Rose last Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Frank Hansen, the former Miss Jesse James, whose marriage to Frank Hansen has been announced. The bride was asked to search for the presents and was elated to find the numerous gifts, both useful and beautiful. Light refreshments were served and enjoyed by all. The guests were: Mrs. Frank Hansen, Mrs. Mabel Thornton, Mrs. Lee Wittingham, Mrs. Florence Lyons, Mrs. Ruth Nelson, Mrs. E. E. Robinson, Mrs. Gene Cameron, Mrs. C. G. Tedrick, Mrs. H. Hansen, Mrs. O. Foom, Mrs. J. Terrell, Mrs. E. C. Rose, Mrs. A. D. Lewis, Mrs. Frank Widner, Mrs. W. C. Andrews and Misses Ada Waldemar, Lorena Rose, Daisy Terrell, June Hooker, and Mildred Reynolds.

Balesy, Guests of Rogue Valley Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Daley and children of Fort Jones Calif., are spending a few days in Medford and Eagle Point visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Daley is captain of the California highway patrol at Yreka.

Mrs. Beltz Honored At Birthday Party

Marie Wells was hostess to a surprise birthday party for her mother, Mrs. Beltz and her son Earl and Freddy Beck on Wednesday with a covered dish luncheon. There were 45 present. Home-made ice cream was served with the lovely birthday cakes. It was also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bahaw and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shirley, and going away party for Mrs. Patton and Mrs. Wells who were leaving for Portland. Many lovely presents were exchanged.

The afternoon was spent doing fancy work.

The Mistletoe club will meet with Nora Glascock, 264 Beatty street Wednesday, June 14.

Eighth Show of Garden Club Is Described "Best"

The eighth annual flower show of the Medford Garden club, of which Mrs. A. E. Reames is president, closed Thursday evening at the high school gymnasium, proclaimed by all in attendance, the "best and largest show" in local flower history.

Characterized by a splendid community interest on the part of persons exhibiting, persons attending, and those contributing to its success in many other ways, the show afforded pleasure to a host of people.

Appreciation of the cooperation extended was expressed yesterday by the Garden club officers and committee, who stated that they were especially indebted to the Grater Lake national park service for the splendid lecture, given Thursday afternoon by Prof. D. S. Libbey as a feature of the show. Others thanked for aiding success of the show were members of the Rogue River national forest staff, Superintendent E. H. Hedrick and members of his school staff, the Porter Lumber company, Ladies of the Lutheran church, R. G. Fowler, county agent, the chamber of commerce, J. C. Mann, the newspapers and J. Verne Shangle, who took pictures of the show.

The first Medford flower show was given in 1927 in the Medford Hotel lobby. The second in a vacant store on West Main street. The third was held in the Kimball packing house and the fourth in the Liberty building. The next year the Johnson building on South Bartlett was used and for the past two years the high school gymnasium has formed the setting for the Garden club show, it having grown to proportions to require this space.

Mrs. Beltz Honored At Birthday Party

Marie Wells was hostess to a surprise birthday party for her mother, Mrs. Beltz and her son Earl and Freddy Beck on Wednesday with a covered dish luncheon. There were 45 present. Home-made ice cream was served with the lovely birthday cakes. It was also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bahaw and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shirley, and going away party for Mrs. Patton and Mrs. Wells who were leaving for Portland. Many lovely presents were exchanged.

The afternoon was spent doing fancy work.

The Mistletoe club will meet with Nora Glascock, 264 Beatty street Wednesday, June 14.

14 Graduated at Academy Program

At commencement exercises, impressive through their dignity and beauty, 14 students were graduated from St. Mary's academy Tuesday evening. The Catholic church, was filled with appreciative patrons and friends of the school, when the graduates entered, the girls accompanied by lovely little flower girls: Rosemary Marshall, Gladys Miller, Monica Wilcox, Jean Denman, Patricia Barry, Dorothy Hayes, Patricia Nasler, Mary Josephine Plymale and Cecilia Bobbett.

An excellent address embodying the ideals which should be sought in higher education was given by Rev. E. J. Murnane of Corvallis.

Rev. Francis W. Black of the Sacred Heart church also spoke to the graduates after conferring on them graduating honors, congratulating them, and laying before them ideals to be observed.

The "Ave Maria" was sung by Mrs. James C. Hayes, mother of one of the graduates, who gave a beautiful interpretation of the beloved composition. The St. Mary's Academy choir also added to the program several impressive musical contributions.

Following the program a reception was held, honoring the graduates, as Parish hall, the Mothers' club of St. Mary's academy acting as hostesses.

In the class of graduates were: Ralph James Denman, Medford, Martha Frances DeSouza, Medford, Genevieve Lucy Devaney, Medford, Edna Pauline Burkhardt, Medford, Arlene Ann Jensen, Medford, Rita LaVonne Corum, Medford, Richard Norbert Lewis, Medford, John Francis Dallaire, Medford, Helen Louise McDonnell, Medford, Jeannette Olivette Ginet, Jacksonville, Louise May Pankey, Medford, Patricia Ann Hayes, Medford, William Charles Smith, Medford, Richard Reedy Wilson, Medford.

Complete Instructions for beginners. Latest Ideas in Hand Knit Accessories.

Lessons 25c, plus cost of yarns. Miss Venita Daley, Instructor.

Phone 518-Y

Knitting School

Opening Monday, 2:30 p. m., Ladies' reception room, K. P. Hall on North Grape street.

Complete Instructions for beginners. Latest Ideas in Hand Knit Accessories.

Lessons 25c, plus cost of yarns. Miss Venita Daley, Instructor.

Phone 518-Y