

YOUNG PEOPLE OF CHURCH LAUDED IN MISSIONARY MEET

Church Has Reason To Be Thankful For New Blood—Resolutions Passed.

"As a church we have reason to rejoice and thank God for our young people," is the message brought to Medford by Reverend Cohagen, pastor of the Central Free Methodist church of Portland, and speaker at the opening of the Young People's Missionary society's ninth convention of the Oregon conference, when he addressed delegates here Friday. The theme of his message was a challenge to the young to respond to the faith he has in youth.

"We must realize that what we are and have—our pleasure, interest and place in the church, have been the results of prayer and labors of others. Thank God we have such a heritage," Reverend Cohagen also stated, asking all to stand true to the fundamentals of faith and to inform the world "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation."

Needs outlined
 "Young people have a large part in carrying on what is needed," Reverend Cohagen declared. He outlined as the characteristics of Christian experience the following: Increase of self respect, peace of mind, and strength for action.

The following resolution was recommended by the committee of the conference, which ends tonight: "The committee on resolutions wishes to express our appreciation and thanks to the following individuals and organizations which have made the Oregon Conference Convention of the Young People's Missionary society a success."

First, to the Medford Y. P. M. S. and the pastors, Rev. E. N. and Mrs. Long, for the wonderful welcome and their untiring activity in preparing everything to be desired for our enjoyment and comfort.

"Second, to Rev. A. G. Bennett and the board of the First Methodist church for the use of their church plant and co-operation in making our convention a success."

"Third, to the people of Medford who have so kindly opened their homes to us and made us feel so welcome to this city."

"Fourth, to the merchants of this city who have donated foodstuffs which have had a very real part in making the convention: Safeway Stores, Pay'n' Takit, Pick-Right, Groceries, Berrydale Grocery, Piggy-Wiggy, Peerless Market, Pay'n' Takit Market, Reliable Grocery, Wyant Milk Depot, Cloverleaf Dairy, Sneider's Creamery, Golden Seal Creamery, Piggy-Wiggy Market, Stern's Grocery, Model Bakery, Fluhrer Bakery, Beck's Bakery, and any others we have not mentioned."

James Johnston Returning to C. P. For Bible Meet

CENTRAL POINT, June 10.—James Johnston of Ceres, Calif., who is well known here, and who has been in Ireland, his native land, since last August, is expected in Medford the last of this week. Mr. Johnston has been in evangelistic meetings almost constantly since landing in Ireland. He writes: "I have had just four nights off since landing." Many people were led to confess Christ as Saviour, and many Christians were helped. Mr. Johnston is a member of the Federated church in Central Point, and his fellow Christians rejoice in the measure of service which Christ has been able to accomplish through their fellow member. He expects to be here for the Young People's Bible conference which begins June 21.

The young people's committees were successful in securing places for visitors from the rural schools during the Y. P. B. C. At least forty can be placed in local homes. Extra effort is being made to make this conference the best yet held.

Eugene Newman of the Table Rock district, who has been in the Sacred Heart hospital for some time has returned to his home, where he is being cared for by his family, and is doing as well as could be expected. The faith and courage of this young man has been a great inspiration to all who know the circumstances.
