

Rogues Will Invade Eagle Point Diamond Today

CHEESEMEN SIGN NEW TALENT FOR RENEWED EFFORT

Second Game Of League Season Slated—Ashland Plays Host Coquille Nine—Klamath In Roseburg.

Where Teams Play Today
Medford at Eagle Point.
Coquille at Ashland.
Klamath Falls at Roseburg.

Scores last Sunday: Medford 10, Roseburg 7; Coquille 8, Eagle Point 3; Klamath Rogues will journey to Eagle Point today to cross bats with the Cheese-makers. The game will mark the second start for each team since the opening of the Southern Oregon league last Sunday when the Rogues defeated Roseburg 10 to 7, while the Eagle Pointers were downed by Coquille 8 to 3.

In pre-season practice games Paul Hoffard's Eagle Point team was defeated on three different occasions by the local nine and without a doubt Hoffard's outfit will be out seeking revenge today. He has signed several additional star players during the past week and now has an aggregation which he says will be hard to beat.

Hoffard to Pitch
Manager Haight will start Charley Pritchett, local speed ball artist, on the mound while Bill Lake, who pitched a wonderful game last week, will be used in the field. Against Roseburg, Lake collected three beautiful hits, driving in six runs and scoring three himself. Quite an achievement for a youngster when it is considered that the entire team scored but ten runs.

Harrington to Catch
Harrington, who is catching, also featured last week, will again be behind the bat. The probable battery for Eagle Point will be Loomis and Ivan Harrington, another member of the catching Harrington family. Earl Davis will again do the umpiring. Fans who witnessed last week's game, marveled at the efficient officiating of Davis. Not one of his decisions was protested by the players, a fact which should be sent to Ripley for his "Believe It or Not" column.

GRID RECRUITING IN HIGH SCHOOLS IS DECLARED OUT

EPOKANE, June 10.—(AP)—The Pacific coast conference ruled drastically against the practice of recruiting promising high school athletes by any representative of a college or university at the closing session of the semi-annual meeting here today.

Not only was the practice of recruiting condemned in theory but faculty representatives in the conference ruled that any athlete solicited to enter a university or college shall be declared ineligible for competition in the conference.

The conference refused to ban scouting of football games and to limit the number of players participating in football games. It also refused to prohibit broadcasting of football games in the 1934 season, but in deference to a strong fight by several members of the organization, set up rules by which the members could control the sponsorship and distribution of such broadcasts.

ENTRY IN SPRING GOLF TOURNEY IS STILL POSSIBLE

Qualifying rounds in the spring tournament at the Rogue Valley golf club are still open to entry, according to P. W. Chausse, manager, but will close within the next few days, as many have already qualified or have started to, and first rounds will be played soon. Chausse has provided many valuable prizes for the winners, and he said yesterday he expected this year's spring handicap to be much better than that of last year, as the course is in better condition. Harold Riddle has the low qualifying score so far, having shot an 80, but has been off his game the past few days, he says, and is now afraid he got too low in the qualifying round. Harold Woods, Pete Wilder, Forrest Pickett, "Doc" Boomer and C. L. MacDonald are among those qualifying this year who did not enter last spring's tourney. Dr. W. W. P. Holt is also playing alone on the course several nights each week, and he is expected to qualify this week. Many others have also qualified with scores ranging from Riddle's 80 up to well above 100.

Seriously ill—J. E. Roberts of 49 Crater Lake avenue, is reported in a serious condition at the Community hospital.

GOODMAN WINNER BY SINGLE STROKE IN GOLF TOURNEY

NORTH SHORE GOLF CLUB, Glenview, Ill., June 10.—(AP)—By the slim margin of a single stroke and a missed four-foot putt on the home green by his one close pursuer, John Goodman, bronzed, dapper little insurance salesman and 23-year old amateur, "giant killer" of Omaha, Neb., today climbed on top of the golfing world as the new open champion of the United States.

Goodman survived a dangerous slump with just enough of his previously lopsided margin to stave off the closing rush of Ralph Guindal, sensational 21-year old professional of the St. Louis County club.

Goodman finished the 72-hole championship struggle with rounds of 76-86-70-76 for a total of 288 that fell only one stroke short of the all-time championship record. Guindal, six strokes behind at the outset of the last 36 holes, rallied superbly to take second place with 75-71-70-71—288.

It was a close call for the Nebraska "Game Cock" after he had all but shot the tournament to pieces by taking a six-stroke lead and then opened fire on the last round with a 4-3-2, including an eagle and a birdie. But he pulled himself together after a six-hole debacle to shoot the closing nine within a single stroke of par.

ZIMMERMAN WINS NORTHWEST OPEN GOLFING CROWN

By Frank G. Gorrie (Associated Press Sports Writer)
TACOMA, Wash., June 10.—(AP)—A lot of professional golfers around this part of the country probably were wishing today that some big-hearted golf club in the middle west, east, or better yet, Europe, would offer Al Zimmerman a nice job.

That's what happened last year to Neil Christian, then of Portland, right after he won the Pacific northwest open golf championship, but Zimmerman came along yesterday to take all the fun out of the 1933 tournament for the rest of the fellows when he captured the same crown for the second time in the last three years.

Zimmerman complained of being sick to his stomach as he started the last 18 holes of the two day 72-hole grind, but he wasn't half as sick as Walter Pursey, when the big Seattle pro took a five at the par-four 12th, to drop his one-stroke lead to the Portlander.

They stroked the remaining six holes in pars, Zimmerman finishing with a total of 291 and Pursey with 292.

Ted Longworth, Christian's successor at the Waverly golf club, Portland, was third with 294.

Bud Ward of Olympia by a dazzling 69 added to his morning card of 72 gave the Olympia youngster the Simon-pursey trophy by a wide margin, with a total of 297.

Other scores included: 304—Mel Smith, Portland. 305—Jack Hueston, Medford, Ore. 325—Joe McAuley, Silverton, Ore. (All those listed are pros).

CHAMBER IS AGAINST HOLIDAY ON JULY 3RD

The board of directors of the Medford chamber of commerce at its meeting yesterday turned down a request to join with other organizations in an appeal to Governor Julius L. Meier to declare July 3-4 a legal holiday.

It was the consensus among the directors that business conditions at the present time would not lend themselves to taking more holidays than are absolutely necessary.

DEMETRAL'S RING RECORD INCLUDES STARS OF GAME

Harry Demetral, 50-year-old Greek wrestler, who meets Al Karasick in the main event of the wrestling card at the Medford armory next Wednesday night, has wrestled in nearly every large city in the United States and has been wrestling champion and near-champion for many years. Demetral is one of the most colorful wrestlers of the past two decades, and, despite his age, is able to heave and snort with the best of them.

Karasick, known throughout the nation as the "Russian Lion," is equally as colorful, though not as old as Demetral. Karasick has recently had several matches with Abe Kaplan, the bad-tempered Jew of Portland, and packed the house there.

Both these men are rough, but combine more skill with their roughness than the younger generation of mat-wrestlers. By applying a combination of chiropractic treatments to his headlocks, Kaplan is able to make a little power go a long way, and he has plenty of power. Demetral is no mean headlock expert himself, using the Strangler Lewis type of headlock hanging onto it until he has flopped his opponent around by the head until his neck is loose.

Joe Reynolds is more of the younger type of wrestler, applying everything from a legitimate wrestling hold to head butting to put his men out of commission. Reynolds meets Swede Anderson in Swede's first big shot match. If the Swede is able to stand up against Reynolds' attack he will be well qualified to go out into the world to seek his wrestling fortune, because Reynolds is known as a comer among the heavies on the coast, having thrown some of the best.

Mack Lillard, promoter, was able to bring the three outstanding men here only after much negotiating, and now feels he is giving Medford a match any city on the coast would be glad to have. Lillard also announced there would be no increase in prices.

MAIL TRIBUNE'S TRAP TROPHY IS FEATURE TODAY

Today at 10:30 o'clock at the Gun club grounds north of the airport, shooters from all sections of the state will gather for the annual Mail Tribune tournament. The fourth annual event to be sponsored by the Medford Gun club is expected to draw many of the northwest shooters en route to the Oregon tournament to be held this week at Klamath Falls and plans are being made to feature a record crowd of amateurs and professionals.

In addition to the handsome Mail Tribune trophy, which brings with itself a year's subscription to the Mail Tribune, numerous other special trophies will be offered and cash prizes of $100.

There will be four 25-target events at the shoot with $50 in cash to high guns on the 100 targets. In the 50-target handicap there will be two 25-target events with $25 in cash to high guns.

In the 50-target handicap event a cumulative purse, perpetuated by Chester W. Wood, will be offered. A first time winner will receive $10 in cash and a second time winner, $15.

The grounds at the local club are in fine condition with trees well leaved out to offer adequate shade. Luncheon will be served on the grounds during the noon hour.

An invitation to enter events is extended by the club and its enthusiastic supporters, to all persons, who are interested in target shooting.

There never will be an opportunity to buy empty flour sacks cheaper. Flourers are overstocked on the large sacks and will sell them while they last for 49c the dozen.

ELKS PICNIC TO ENJOY BEER AND FIGHTS JUNE 22

"A regular old-fashioned lunch, with lots of eats and lots of beer, a good sports program, and twenty rounds of fights," is the description of the Elks picnic scheduled for Thursday evening, June 22, at the Elks picnic ground, as given by the general chairman, O. O. Alenderfer. The committee in charge of the big stag event will be on the grounds all day Thursday preparing for the picnic, which opens at five o'clock with sports, in charge of Larry Schade. Plenty of time is allowed for eating on the "time schedule," with hours 6:30 to 8 set aside for that purpose.

Mack Lillard, Medford promoter is arranging the fights for Thursday evening, which promise to be of a good caliber, according to Jerry Jerome, in charge of that part of the program.

Admission will be one dollar. Mr. Alenderfer announced, and preparations are being made for about four hundred Elks club members and their friends. Arrangements may be made, by members of the ticket sale committee for friends of Elks to attend. The tickets provide for eats, beer, and the fights, he pointed out.

F. Wilson Wait and his band will be at the grounds to add music to the evening's program.

Committees are as follows: General: O. O. Alenderfer, T. E. Daniels, L. B. Haskins, Joe Fliegel, E. C. Jerome and Bill Hammett; Eat, C. Jerome, Everett Braxton, R. C. Bigham, Everett Braxton, R. Slight, J. Waite, Nick Young, Jack Burnham, Dick Crowson, Everett Payette, W. E. Morris and Elmer Hull.

Publicity: T. E. Daniels, E. L. Scott and E. C. Ferguson; Fights: E. C. Jerome, E. Childers and B. Stephenson; Sports, Larry Schade; concessions, L. B. Haskins, E. Sherwood, C. Y. Tongwald, Wilson Wait, Bob Norris, Cole Holmes, George Jorum, E. C. Sollinsky, R. Pruitt and E. C. Jerome.

Ticket sale: O. O. Alenderfer, Joe Fliegel, John Moffatt, Bob Norris, Lee Watson, Jack Thompson, A. B. Cunningham, Stan Sherwood and Wilson Wait.

HONOR MEN OF NAVAL ACADEMY

It's THREE YEARS Since I Scoured a Pot or Pan

"Three years ago today I had an Electric Range installed in my kitchen. Since that time my cooking utensils have been so clean that I wouldn't hesitate to wipe them with a silk handkerchief!"

The complete absence of a flame eliminates all the smoke and soot so long associated with cooking. The Electric Range cooks with spotless cleanliness. Walls and woodwork escape the usual film of greasy vapor and smoky grime. Naturally they retain their glossy cleanliness far longer.

Furthermore, the oven is perfectly insulated to economize on heat and to retain food flavors. Automatic time and temperature controls do all the baking or roasting without any attention whatever. This means literally thousands of additional hours of leisure every year... at a cost of no more than a penny a meal per person! Come in! Ask for a demonstration.
