CITIZENS OUTSIDE CITY LIMIT URGED TO PROTECT VOTE

All citizens outside the city limits of Medford were urged today to register for the July 21 election before next Tuesday night, when the registration books will be closed to all. The books are already closed to persons wishing to vote in the special Medford election, called for June 30, as the state law prohibits the receipt of any registrations within 30 days of an election.

People, who will not be voting in the Medford election, therefore, have until June 20 to register. Anyone, who has not voted for two years, will be required to re-register. Persons voting in this county for the first time must have been in Oregon six months to register and in the particular precinct, where planning to vote, for 30 days, and must be registered by next Tuesday.

Therefore anyone moving from one precinct into a new one will also be required to re-register.

In the July 21 election citizens will vote on the sales tax, the power bill, two amendments to repeal the dry amendments on the statute and repeal of the 18th amendment. Candidates to the state convention for ratification of repeal will also be chosen at the July election.
