

SOUTHERN OREGON HIGHWAY TRAFFIC IS COUNTED TODAY

A traffic count on all highways of southern Oregon is being held between the hours of 6 a. m. and 10 p. m. today under the supervision of the state highway department.

Working in two shifts of eight hours each, a count will be taken at three separate points on the Pacific Murphy-Redwood junction south of Grants Pass. In addition, one man will be placed at the Oregon Caves junction on the Redwood highway, another at the Klamath Falls-Pacific highway junction, one four miles out on the Crater Lake highway, and one at the Diamond Lake-Crater Lake junction.

Altogether, nine men will be placed on highways of southern Oregon.

This traffic count, which is taken annually by the highway department, is under the direct supervision of John Beakey, state traffic engineer, and represents the automobile census of the Pacific highway and its arteries.

Cars will be classified according to Oregon or foreign license plates, light truck, heavy trucks, and buses. The results of the tallying will be known Saturday, according to highway officials in Grants Pass.

GASOLINE HAULER IS WISER REGARDING LAW

SALEM, June 16.—(AP)—Officials have learned a few of Oregon's 340 new acts imposed by the last legislature, whether the citizens have or not.

Harold Perkins was arrested here yesterday for hauling gasoline without making proper invoice to the state for tax collection. He pleaded guilty and was committed to the county jail when unable to pay $100 fine and costs.

Applegate

APPLAGATE, June 16.—(Sp)—Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Applegate and Mrs. Weaver of Medford spent Wednesday at Mrs. R. S. Burchard's on Yale creek.

CULINARY CRAFT....

By Estelle Dorgan, Director of Home Service, California Oregon Power Co.

Please Pass the Tonic!

Haven't you felt that there is a "low" spot in your physical well-being at just this time of the year? Poor ventilation, sedentary habits, general lassitude, etc., are among the reasons.

Whatever it may be, there is one delightful way to help overcome the results or tide one over, if you wish. That is the FRUIT way. The old custom was to take a "Spring Tonic," usually one far from pleasant to swallow. Now, we do our "toning" so tastefully that we actually look forward to taking our "medicine!" However, variety is still interesting, so the following combinations may give you a new idea or two to work into your menus—including-fruit. We suggest fruit for cocktails, salads, desserts, with and in cereals and as the natural companion of meat.

Cherry Cocktail.
White cherries
Maraschino cherries
Pineapple, crushed
Grapefruit
Lemon juice
Salt.

Mix white cherries, pineapple and grapefruit. Make a syrup of the maraschino, pineapple and cherry juice with a little lemon juice and a few grains of salt to taste. Chill and pour over the cold fruit mixture just before serving. Garnish with a maraschino cherry.

Fruity Cocktail.
1 cup banana balls
1 cup grapefruit segments
1 cup orange segments
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Syrup.

Make syrup of the fruit juices with sugar to taste. Pour over fruit and chill. Sprinkle with a dash of nutmeg when ready to serve.

Grapefruit Cocktail.
1/2 glass white grape juice
3 tablespoons white grapes
1/2 glass ginger ale.

Use chilled materials, adding ginger ale just before serving. Pour over ice cubes or crushed ice if desired.

Shasta Salad.
Peach halves
Grapefruit segments
Cottage cheese
Caraway seed
Jelly.

Place peach half on lettuce leaf and fill center with cottage cheese ball, which is flavored with sweetened fruit juices and caraway seed. Surround peach with grapefruit segments. Pour a little of the sweetened juice over all and garnish with colorful jelly.

Sunshine Salad
Pears, sliced
Orange segments
Stuffed grapes
Honey dressing.

Alternate orange segments and slices of pear on bed of shredded lettuce. Garnish with grapes stuffed with cheese or nut meats. Serve with honey thinned with lemon juice.

Cherry Jello
White cherries
Cream mayonnaise
Parley.

Pour Jello into shallow pan and let stiffen. Cut in cubes and place in dish with the cherries on nest of shredded lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise thinned with whipped cream and garnish with sprigs of parsley.

Pineapple Sandwiches.
Pineapple slices
Raisins and nuts.

Split the slices of pineapple in two pieces. Spread one with a mixture of chopped raisins and nuts, moistened if necessary with a little juice, and cover with the other piece of the slice. Serve on lettuce and fill center with cheese on dressing if desired.

DESSERTS
Rhubarb Tapioca
3 c rhubarb
1/2 c instant tapioca
1 1/2 c hot water
1/4 c sugar
1/2 t salt

Whipped cream
Cook the first three ingredients about 15 minutes, until the tapioca is clear, then add the sugar and salt and continue cooking five minutes. Stir during the first cooking. Serve with sweetened whipped cream.

Honolulu Pudding
1 c crushed pineapple
1 c soft bread crumbs
3 T brown sugar
1/2 t cinnamon
1 T butter

Combine bread crumbs and pineapple with the brown sugar. Place in buttered baking dish and sprinkle with the cinnamon then break the tablespoon of butter into bits over the top. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees 20 minutes. Serve with sauce made of fruit juice or with cream.

PAROLED CONVICT ADMITS MURDER REEDSPORT MAN

PORTLAND, June 16.—(P)—James Hamilton, 34, wanted on a charge of murdering Frank Timberlake, 70, alleged bootlegger, at Reedsport, was taken in custody here today by Deputy Sheriffs McCabe and Thornton of Douglas county.

City and state police here said Hamilton admitted in a signed statement that he attacked Timberlake who was ill and nearly blind. Hamilton was arrested here late Thursday while walking on Terwilliger boulevard.

Officers said Hamilton told them he was drinking at Timberlake's place on the night of June 9 and that the other man quarreled over a trivial matter. Hamilton attacked Timberlake with a club and bottle, striking him on the head. He said when the elderly man fell unconscious, he robbed him of his watch and diamond ring, both of which were found in the prisoner's knapsack.

Deputies McCabe and Thornton said Timberlake died Monday without having made a statement. Hamilton left Reedsport immediately after the brawl, not realizing how seriously Timberlake was hurt, he said. The Douglas county officers said he is on parole from San Quentin prison.
