

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Eva Nealon Hamilton

Reception to Fete Adams' of Canada At Johnsen Home

One of the largest and most interesting events on the week's calendar, socially speaking, will be the reception this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Johnsen, who have invited many of their friends to call and greet Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. O. Adams of Toronto, Canada, who arrived here Friday to spend two weeks of their honeymoon at the Johnsen ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams, the former Jean Robertson, daughter of Wm. Johnston Robertson of Toronto, were married June 10 in the Canadian city, coming south for their honeymoon, they left Toronto by train for Chicago and San Francisco, where they were entertained by the J. H. McGreggill. From the bay city they came to Medford Friday by United Air Lines plane, piloted by Grover Tyler of this city.

Following a two weeks' stay here they will leave by plane for Seattle to continue north by boat to Vancouver and home to Calgary, where Mr. Adams will resume his position with the Manufacturers' Life Insurance company.

Both are graduates of the University of Toronto and Mr. Adams is the son of Mrs. A. P. Johnsen of this city.

Guests on Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. O. Adams, graduates of the University of Toronto, who arrived here Friday for a two weeks' stay at the A. P. Johnsen ranch on the Old Stage Road.

Carpenters Hosts at Dinner Party Saturday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter who recently returned from a motor trip to the beach and through the Three Sisters country, entertained last evening at dinner at their home, "Top Sides."

Guests were: Mrs. Katherine Hefner, Mr. and Mrs. T. Slater Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Emmens, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Aldrich, and Messrs. Paul Scherer and Leonard Carpenter of this city and Jack Spaulding of New York.

Mr. Leonard Carpenter and Mr. Spaulding also recently returned from a trip to the coast.

Kay Kastle Pupils Plan Dance Revue

The Kay Kastle Dance Studio present their pupils June 23 at Craterian theatre in a song and dance revue.

Virginia Gentry and Roger Wolfe in specialty numbers. Those participating in the event will be Shirley Abbey, Robbie Padock, Kathleen Moran, Jerry Clark, Gail Coddling, Jackie Holmes, Barbara Jean Earl, Yerkle, Joe Grandall, Ruth Johnson, Donald Chamberlain, Barbara Stancliff, Molly Anderson, Aletha Emerick, Georgianna Holloway, Lewis Thurman, Harry Thurman, Natalie Shelby, Barbara Shelby, Marie Platt, Jack Moran, Winston Campbell, Kenneth Scripture, Annis Scripture, Ruth Natwick, Barbara Lewis, Bobbie Forsyth, Stanley Gustin, LeMerie Beck, Clair Thomas. These children's ages range from two years and the majority have been studying dancing from Feb. 1st this year under the direction of Katherine Stang.

Walden-Haight Wedding, Event Tuesday, Eugene

Miss Clita L. Walden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Walden, and Reginald Haight of Delight Valley out from Cottage Grove, were married Tuesday evening at a ceremony held at the residence of the bride's parents.

The service was read at eight o'clock by Rev. Ernest M. Whittemith of the Community Liberal church. Only members of the two families attended the wedding.

Miss Barbara Janzen of Ashland and Miss Doris Baler of Medford were bridesmaids, Betty Jean Walden, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Milan Haight attended his brother as best man.

For the music, Francis Horn, cousin of the bride, sang, and Mrs. Darwin K. Burgher of Medford played the wedding music.

Mr. and Mrs. Haight are to make their home in Camas, Wash. She graduated from the University of Oregon in 1928 and he from Oregon State college in 1930—Eugene Register-Guard.

Miss Blood, Bride of Mr. Van Doren at Church Service

One of the prettiest spring weddings was that of Miss Katherine Blood and Leslie Van Doren, at the Congregational church Saturday night at 8.

The church was decorated with tall baskets of delphinium, peonies and roses. White tapers in candelabra lighted the altar. Rev. Clay Palmer read the service.

The bride wore white lace, made with cape sleeves. With it she wore a cap made entirely of Cecil Brunner rosebuds. Her bouquet was of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Helen Frank of Salem, her bridesmaid, wore pink taffeta, with pale blue sash, hat and slippers. Her bouquet was of sweetpeas and delphinium. Harold Larson of Medford was best man.

The Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Mrs. Madge Hampton, who played the organ during the service. Mr. Donald Young sang "Because." Only relatives and a few friends attended.

A reception for about 85 was held later at the Alpha Xi Delta chapter house. Assisting there were Miss Virginia Keenan, Miss Clara Mearten, Miss Blue Greenwood, Miss Roma Gross, Miss Eleanor Wharton and Mrs. A. E. Hansen.

Mr. Van Doren was graduated from the university, where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta and of Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary music society. She is also a member of Chapter AM of the P. E. O. Sisterhood of Eugene. Mr. Van Doren was graduated from the University of Michigan where he was a member of Sigma Pi fraternity. Following a motor trip to California, the couple will be at home in Medford—Eugene News.

Miss Herman Gives Dessert Bridge for Guest from Salem

Honoring Miss Ruth Armprist, guest here from Salem, Miss Evelyn Herman entertained last week with a lovely party for seventeen. Dessert bridge was enjoyed with prizes at cards going to Jean Quisenberry and Kathryn Robinson.

Present were: Misses Ruth Armprist, Suzette Stennett, Tess Merrill, Maxine Robinson, Kathryn Robinson, Catherine Chaney, Bobby Pickard, Louise Eirod, Clarice Barker, Jean Quisenberry, Mary Van Dyke, Audrey Dobson, Catherine Brandt, Ethel and Bethel Slagle, Leabel Miller and the hostess, Evelyn Herman.

Engagement Told At Bridge Party

Announcing the betrothal of her sister, Miss Mary Adamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Adamson, to Marvin Albert, Mrs. Ted GeBauer entertained yesterday afternoon at bridge.

There were three tables of cards in play during the afternoon and the engagement was announced on little cards concealed in packages for the guests. No date was named for the wedding.

Prizes at cards were awarded Misses Alice Bowman of this city and Janet Bayliss of Ashland.

Miss Newman Gives Delphian Leader

The Post-Delphian club met at the home of Mrs. T. Malmgren at Phoenix on Thursday for a business and social meeting. Mrs. Aletha Vawter, the vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Glen Farbrick.

"The Store" by T. S. Stribbling, and the play, "Both Your Houses" by Maxwell Anderson, were the two Pulitzer prize winners of the past year were reviewed by Mesdames Aletha Vawter and T. Malmgren.

Missionaries Meet at Meeker Home

The Auxiliary of the W. H. M. S. of the First M. E. church, was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Meeker with a large attendance.

Business session was conducted by Mrs. W. A. Holloway at which time the annual election of officers was held.

The devotional period was led by Mrs. A. E. Lyman. Topic, "Companionship of Christ." Mrs. W. Walker presented the following study program interspersed with musical numbers:

"When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "Mother McCree," Miss Mary Roseberry, accompanied by Constance Moore.

The Basis of Indian Education, by Mrs. Gillings.

The Story of Missions, Mrs. Kunzman.

Vocal quartet, "Sunbeams," Harry Vandamard, Billy Corey, Mildred and Betty Jean McKenzie.

Piano number, "Bells in the Steeple," Billy Corey.

Recitation, "The Secret," Shirley Penkey.

Piano — Gentle Night, Summer Days, Dorothy McKenzie.

At the conclusion of the program the hostess and assistants served punch and cakes.

D. A. R. News

The year's activities of Crater Lake Chapter, daughters of the American Revolution were brought to a close on Saturday June 17th when the members met for their annual picnic and flag day observance.

The meeting was held in Mrs. E. B. Smith's lovely garden on West Eleventh street and the picnic luncheon was served at one o'clock with Miss Sara Van Meter, Mrs. F. G. Thayer and Mrs. Ralph Spencer assisting the hostess.

Mrs. M. M. Morris, the newly elected regent, presided at the meeting which was opened by singing "America" followed by the pledge to the flag, the recitation of the American creed and prayer by the chaplain. A gift of valuable clippings on Oregon history, from Mrs. Rose Adair was announced. These old clippings were collected by Miss Julia Fielder, who was chapter member, and will be added to the chapter's scrapbook.

An interesting report of the state board meeting held in Champoug on June 14th, by Mrs. Harding, was read. After a brief history of the making of our flag, by Mrs. Morris, Miss Van Meter read the beautiful and inspiring "Apostrophe to the Flag" among the guests were Mrs. Waterman, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Flynn and Mrs. Platt.

Ideal weather, a good attendance and attractive surroundings made the afternoon an unusually enjoyable one.

The next regular meeting will be in observance of Constitution day in September.

Ulrichs Entertain at Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich entertained members of their Bridge Dinner club Tuesday evening at a buffet supper in their garden. There were 12 guests present.

Fred Hopkins' of Portland Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopkins, formerly of the Rogue River valley, now of Portland, are welcome guests in Medford this week, spending several days at the Kenly house while the Kenlys are visiting in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell are entertaining tomorrow evening at dinner for their pleasure and have invited fourteen friends to dine with them.

Miss Ruhl Arrives Today From East

Miss Roxana Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. W. Ruhl, is expected home today from Vassar, where she has completed her junior year. After leaving New York, Miss Ruhl stopped in Chicago to be guest of a friend's for a time and to attend the World's fair. She also motored to Rockford to visit her grandfather and while in Chicago enjoyed a short visit with Mrs. Leonard Carpenter and Mrs. H. Chandler Egan of this city, who are attending the fair and visiting relatives and friends in the east.

Leonard Carpenter, host at dinner. Leonard Carpenter entertained at dinner at his country home Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Newhall and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter.

Mrs. Scherer and daughters at beach. Mrs. Paul Scherer and her daughters are spending a short holiday at Crescent City.

Mrs. Robinson entertains club. Mrs. Gail Robinson was hostess last week to the Bridge club at her new home on South Holly.

Kenlys expected home this week. Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly are expected home this week from Ojai, Cal., accompanied by their son, Oranger, student at Thatcher school. Their son, Corning, Jr., who is graduating from Thatcher, will remain in the south a while to complete his Harvard entrance examinations.

Church Auxiliary has fine meeting. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Strickland for their monthly business meeting. Dr. Eva Carlow led the devotional, reading from the 20th chapter of John, and considering the place of the "Doubting Thomas" in the work of God. Mrs. Effie Daily gave a partial report of the convention at Eugene, including talks by Miss Huntley of the Chinese Mission in Portland. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. L. J. Knox.

Daughters, Union Veterans Name Delegates. At the last meeting of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Mrs. Albright and Mrs. Kindred were elected delegates to the Department Encampment at Salem, June 20-23. Mrs. Kindred is department junior vice-president.

The patriotic instructor, Mrs. Watt, reported the ninety graves of union veterans of the Civil war were marked with flags previous to Memorial Day services.

A handkerchief shower was given Mrs. Albright, who is going to Portland to make her home.

The tent will meet Friday, June 23 at the armory.

Party Will Honor Mrs. Geo. Andrews

A lovely summer party will be given by the Greater Medford club Wednesday as a farewell reception, honoring Mrs. George Andrews, who leaves soon to reside in the east.

Guests will be received from 2:00 to 5:30 o'clock in the city club rooms and an invitation is extended all friends of Mrs. Andrews.

Mrs. G. R. Satchwell and other officers of the club will act as hostesses and a program is being prepared by Mrs. E. E. Gore.

Mrs. Newman Is Delphian Leader

The Post-Delphian club met at the home of Mrs. T. Malmgren at Phoenix on Thursday for a business and social meeting. Mrs. Aletha Vawter, the vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Glen Farbrick.

"The Store" by T. S. Stribbling, and the play, "Both Your Houses" by Maxwell Anderson, were the two Pulitzer prize winners of the past year were reviewed by Mesdames Aletha Vawter and T. Malmgren.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. F. J. Newman; first vice-president, Mrs. Laura West; second vice-president, Mrs. Leland Metzger; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. R. C. Mulholland.

At noon a pot luck luncheon was served on the lawn.

Ulrichs Entertain at Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich entertained members of their Bridge Dinner club Tuesday evening at a buffet supper in their garden. There were 12 guests present.

Miss Ruhl Arrives Today From East

Miss Roxana Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. W. Ruhl, is expected home today from Vassar, where she has completed her junior year. After leaving New York, Miss Ruhl stopped in Chicago to be guest of a friend's for a time and to attend the World's fair. She also motored to Rockford to visit her grandfather and while in Chicago enjoyed a short visit with Mrs. Leonard Carpenter and Mrs. H. Chandler Egan of this city, who are attending the fair and visiting relatives and friends in the east.

Leonard Carpenter, Host at Dinner

Leonard Carpenter entertained at dinner at his country home Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Newhall and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter.

Mrs. Scherer and Daughters at Beach

Mrs. Paul Scherer and her daughters are spending a short holiday at Crescent City.

Mrs. Robinson Entertains Club

Mrs. Gail Robinson was hostess last week to the Bridge club at her new home on South Holly.

Kenlys Expected Home This Week

Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly are expected home this week from Ojai, Cal., accompanied by their son, Oranger, student at Thatcher school. Their son, Corning, Jr., who is graduating from Thatcher, will remain in the south a while to complete his Harvard entrance examinations.

Church Auxiliary Has Fine Meeting

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Strickland for their monthly business meeting. Dr. Eva Carlow led the devotional, reading from the 20th chapter of John, and considering the place of the "Doubting Thomas" in the work of God. Mrs. Effie Daily gave a partial report of the convention at Eugene, including talks by Miss Huntley of the Chinese Mission in Portland. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. L. J. Knox.

Daughters, Union Veterans Name Delegates

At the last meeting of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Mrs. Albright and Mrs. Kindred were elected delegates to the Department Encampment at Salem, June 20-23. Mrs. Kindred is department junior vice-president.

The patriotic instructor, Mrs. Watt, reported the ninety graves of union veterans of the Civil war were marked with flags previous to Memorial Day services.

A handkerchief shower was given Mrs. Albright, who is going to Portland to make her home.

The tent will meet Friday, June 23 at the armory.

Henselmans Invite Friends to Greet Carrs at Supper

For the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carr, guests here from Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. George Henselmans are entertaining this evening at buffet supper.

Mr. Carr formerly lived in Medford, and is guest now with Mrs. Carr at the home of his mother, Mrs. Wm. Campbell of Pine street.

F. L. Club Members Meet at Hess Home

Members of the F. L. club met Monday evening at the home of Georgia Hess, 224 Vancouver avenue, for the regular business meeting.

Those present were: Georgia Hess, Ethel Jennings, Beattie Thompson, Ethel Humphrey, Viola Aldredge, Susan Haines and Marian Mellin.

CONSTIPATION Stomach and liver troubles in young and old corrected by the latest natural methods.

DR. H. P. COLEMAN, Phone 965, 428 Medford Bldg.

Penle Plan of Study Club

Wednesday Study club will hold its annual picnic in the Ashland park June 21, at six o'clock, announcement made yesterday states.

Mr. Brown Home From Trip South

Walter Frazer Brown has returned to Medford from a three weeks' stay in Pasadena, Cal., where he was guest of his son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Chapin Brown. Rev. Brown is pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church in Pasadena.

O'Malleys to Visit Daniels' Here

Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Malley will be here Monday en route to California and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daniels for a time before continuing south, where Mr. O'Malley is in charge of United States hatchery work.

Miss Edwards Inspires Entertaining Here

Miss Iol Edwards, daughter of George Edwards, who is a guest here from Seattle, has been the inspiration of considerable entertaining of the past two weeks. She will be in Medford for another week and several affairs are planned for her pleasure for the next few days.

Mistletoe Club Plans June Picnic

The Mistletoe club met at the home of Nora Glascock for a very enjoyable lawn party last week with thirty members and friends present. A very clever program was given by the committee in charge, after which all returned to the lawn for homemade ice cream and cake. The club will hold a picnic in Ashland June 28. Every Royal Neighbor is invited.

Nursery School Opens For Little Folk This Week

The very, very young members of local society are going to go to school — as the announcement this week from Mrs. Margaret Huntoon Williamson, who is opening a nursery school at her home, 109 South Orange. Children between the ages of two and four are invited to attend between the hours of 9:30 and 11:30.

Chas Nunans Visit Here from South

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nunan, former residents of the Rogue River valley, arrived a few days ago from Oxnard, Cal., to spend several days visiting old friends.

While here they will enjoy a trip to Crater Lake and other scenic spots of southern Oregon. It is their first visit here for seven years.

Mikesches Have Guests From South This Week

Mrs. Thos. Bickerstaff and daughter, accompanied by Mrs. Cavalli of Mill Valley, Calif., arrived last week to be guests of Mrs. Bickerstaff's mother, Mrs. Anna Mikesche. Miss Bertille Mikesche is also home this week from Santa Rosa, Calif.

Save by Spending...

Solid Silverware is so ridiculously low in cost today—and so very likely to soon go higher—that it is doubtful if you could invest in anything more wisely.

Lawrence's

Who specialize in high quality silverware, will be glad to advise you relative to the different makes and comparative prices. Agents for Gorham, Towle, Reed & Barton and Other Outstanding Companies

Engagement Told At Bridge Party

Announcing the betrothal of her sister, Miss Mary Adamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Adamson, to Marvin Albert, Mrs. Ted GeBauer entertained yesterday afternoon at bridge.

There were three tables of cards in play during the afternoon and the engagement was announced on little cards concealed in packages for the guests. No date was named for the wedding.

Prizes at cards were awarded Misses Alice Bowman of this city and Janet Bayliss of Ashland.

Miss Newman Gives Delphian Leader

The Post-Delphian club met at the home of Mrs. T. Malmgren at Phoenix on Thursday for a business and social meeting. Mrs. Aletha Vawter, the vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Glen Farbrick.

"The Store" by T. S. Stribbling, and the play, "Both Your Houses" by Maxwell Anderson, were the two Pulitzer prize winners of the past year were reviewed by Mesdames Aletha Vawter and T. Malmgren.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. F. J. Newman; first vice-president, Mrs. Laura West; second vice-president, Mrs. Leland Metzger; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. R. C. Mulholland.

At noon a pot luck luncheon was served on the lawn.

Ulrichs Entertain at Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich entertained members of their Bridge Dinner club Tuesday evening at a buffet supper in their garden. There were 12 guests present.

Miss Ruhl Arrives Today From East

Miss Roxana Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. W. Ruhl, is expected home today from Vassar, where she has completed her junior year. After leaving New York, Miss Ruhl stopped in Chicago to be guest of a friend's for a time and to attend the World's fair. She also motored to Rockford to visit her grandfather and while in Chicago enjoyed a short visit with Mrs. Leonard Carpenter and Mrs. H. Chandler Egan of this city, who are attending the fair and visiting relatives and friends in the east.

Leonard Carpenter, Host at Dinner

Leonard Carpenter entertained at dinner at his country home Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Newhall and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter.

Mrs. Scherer and Daughters at Beach

Mrs. Paul Scherer and her daughters are spending a short holiday at Crescent City.

Mrs. Robinson Entertains Club

Mrs. Gail Robinson was hostess last week to the Bridge club at her new home on South Holly.

Kenlys Expected Home This Week

Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly are expected home this week from Ojai, Cal., accompanied by their son, Oranger, student at Thatcher school. Their son, Corning, Jr., who is graduating from Thatcher, will remain in the south a while to complete his Harvard entrance examinations.

Church Auxiliary Has Fine Meeting

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Strickland for their monthly business meeting. Dr. Eva Carlow led the devotional, reading from the 20th chapter of John, and considering the place of the "Doubting Thomas" in the work of God. Mrs. Effie Daily gave a partial report of the convention at Eugene, including talks by Miss Huntley of the Chinese Mission in Portland. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. L. J. Knox.

Daughters, Union Veterans Name Delegates

At the last meeting of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Mrs. Albright and Mrs. Kindred were elected delegates to the Department Encampment at Salem, June 20-23. Mrs. Kindred is department junior vice-president.

The patriotic instructor, Mrs. Watt, reported the ninety graves of union veterans of the Civil war were marked with flags previous to Memorial Day services.

A handkerchief shower was given Mrs. Albright, who is going to Portland to make her home.

The tent will meet Friday, June 23 at the armory.

The Store of Happy Wedding Bings

White Rose Wedding Rings

Radiant as Diamonds

Larry Schade

If You're Planning To Travel To The World's Fair—Or Anywhere—See These

Triple Sheer Suits

Smart new suits in white, pastel shades, brown, navy, black.

$12<sup>95</sup> $16<sup>95</sup> $19<sup>95</sup>

Coats On Sale

Values to $29.50 in coats to wear all summer and fall. Special

$15.00

50 Summer Hats

White and light colors in straw and pique hats. Values to $7.95. Special

$1.00

Nelly Don Frocks

A Nelly Don for every occasion

$1.95 to $10.95

ADRIENNE'S

THINK! Medford, Oregon THINK!

SAVINGS BUYING SELLING

HAVE MONEY! HAVE MONEY!

Partners in Community Development

Farmers & Fruitgrowers Bank

THERE'S power to every dollar you earn! It can earn security for you in a SAVINGS account. It can buy necessities and luxuries for you. Invested in your business, it will help you to sell your commodity profitably. Banking Counsel of the highest order is part of our service to our clients.

Meet Me at the MANX, Where...

RATES ARE REDUCED

New rates now in effect at Hotel Manx are the lowest in years. Prices have been sweeping reduced, not only to conform to the new season, but also to meet present economic conditions. 300 finely appointed rooms to choose from and we have made rates elastic enough to fit every individual requirement. The same high quality of service is maintained as always. You can live at the Manx now in luxurious comfort with economy.

Day Rates at New Low Levels

Room with Bath, single, $2.00

Room with Bath, double, $3.00

HOTEL MANX

Powell St. at O'Farrell San Francisco

"Right in the Center of Everything"