Official paper of the City of Medford. Official paper of Jackson County.

Members of the Associated Press. Advertising Representatives: M. C. MOGENSEN & COMPANY.

Ye Smudge Pot. By Arthur Ferry. Kidnapers received $100,000 for the return of a 'rich brewer'.

Grass is growing in the middle of several business areas. In open defiance of the Democratic administration.

Atty. T. Miles, who Sat. told J. Wesley Bates, the chinwicker, he was going to buy a bicycle.

All the University Boys are home from the campus, and have took up their social whirl, right where they stopped whirling.

3000 turkeys have been imported into Klamath county, to devour the grasshopper crop.

Outside of being sensible legislation, tending to relieve the tax burden on property, the proposed Oregon sales tax has no drawbacks.

Tomorrow is the longest day of the year, says Thursday. The astronomer says it's tomorrow.

YE PIONEER PARANOID (Fendleton East Oregonian). In effigy: This short term means an imitation on which we take our spite when we are not allowed to inflict punishment on the original.

There has been a decrease in the number of innocent bystanders, who look like they were guilty.

The president's denunciation of gold hoarders, has not caused any of the hoarders to jump in the river.

It would be enlightening and interesting to know how much gossip cost Jackson county, once it got out of the backyard.

Hay fever is abroad in the valley, and vies with weather for promptness.

The barefooted boy is showing up. As times are picking up, and the nights are not chilly, the unshod kid must be that way because he wants to, and not because his transient folks have him out after sympathetic times.

So long as men grope for new ideas and so long as there are others with messages to deliver, political oratory never will die.

THE BOY. Consider the boy. Between the ages of 4 weeks and 15 years, he is told by persons having authority that he must not do certain things because those things are wrong.

And then he grows up. At 16 or a little earlier, he begins to feel his oats. He is conscious of being a regular male in a free country.

Banwell Manager of C. C., Is Edict. By official recommendation of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce the designation of executive secretary will in future be known as manager.

Save on Lights. (AP) Saving of $79 by having alternate rather than complete lighting of city streets here was reported for May.

The School Election

THE result of the school election, clearly shows that the people of this city have absolute confidence in Superintendent Hedrick, and wish a continuance of his policies.

We did not—and do not—approve of the methods and tactics of those who wished to throw a monkey-wrench into the schools at this critical time.

But while disapproving of these methods, we do not disapprove of an inquiring attitude into the details of school administration, which formed a basis—or at least was an important factor—in this opposition.

For it represents a live public interest in our schools—and all details of management concerning them, which is highly desirable, and which we know would be welcomed by no one more heartily than Mr. Hedrick himself.

Had such an interest been manifest throughout the past two or three years for example, there would not have been so much confusion in the public mind during the recent campaign.

WE know Mr. Hedrick and we know the members of the school board, and we know they have nothing to hide. The unprecedented depression has complicated the problems of school administration, as it has complicated the problems of all business administration.

That management will continue. But meanwhile when any individual has doubts about this or that in school administration, the place to go to remove or confirm those doubts is to HEADQUARTERS.

For we are certain the more the people know about the way our schools are conducted, and the problems that must be met from day to day, and month to month, the more strongly will they approve of the administration as a whole.

How to Stop Kidnaping

THOSE who believe kidnaping will stop by tacking on the death penalty, fail to understand either criminal psychology or the character of organized crime.

The death penalty has failed to stop murder. In fact the homicide rate in states which provide the death penalty, is higher than in states where the maximum is life imprisonment.

What the criminal fears is prompt and certain punishment. The average jury hesitates to inflict the death penalty, but as has been demonstrated in Michigan, where the maximum is life, murderers are sent to prison in record time.

There is another thing. Organized crime is not only a business, it is big business. It has its able organizers and financiers. It has its smart lawyers. Its aim is the same as the aim of big business,—making money.

That is why kidnaping has become so popular. It pays big. As long as it pays big, there will be plenty of criminals ready to take a chance regardless of the penalty.

HOW can this be done? In our opinion only as suggested by the San Francisco Chronicle—putting the national government into the war against organized crime.

Until that is done we fear, organized crime will continue to flourish and make this country a paradise for criminals.

MOVIE MAKER TO FURNITURE PRICES RETURN IN JULY TRENDING UPWARD

Bruce Merman, the camera man here a few weeks ago working on the Shasta-Cascade traveltogue, will return to Medford July 2, it was announced at the Chamber of Commerce today.

At the time of the first visit, Mr. Merman and his cameramen took pictures of the orchards in bloom and winter scenes at Crater Lake and it is his intention upon the next trip to photograph Crater Lake in its summer setting.

Other pictures of the valley will be taken at the same time. It is reported that all photographs so far taken have been of a very excellent character and have exceeded the fullest expectations.

By official recommendation of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce the designation of executive secretary will in future be known as manager.

Personal Health Service By William Brady, M.D.

Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

REAL AND SPURIOUS JITTERS. Maybe we have mentioned this before, but it will do no harm to remind the world that there are just two classes of people who have "nervous breakdowns"—crooks and fools.

For too many years the medical profession, as well as the layman, has been misled by the personality and the genius of S. Weir Mitchell, whose eminence as an author the docs out in the sticks confused with medical skill.
