

Imperial Council Representatives

E. C. JEROME (On left) PAUL B. RYNNING —Photo by The Peasleys.

E. C. ("Jerry") Jerome and Paul B. Rynning, who with Potentate A. K. G... will represent Hillah Temple at the Imperial Session this year in Atlantic City.

Scene of Hillah Ceremonial

The Ashland Armory, which has been the scene of many Hillah Temple ceremonials in past years, will again be used for the Shrine gathering in Ashland tomorrow.

W. H. "Bill" Day veteran Hillah Shriner and former recorder of the southern Oregon temple. Day is active in preparing for the Ashland ceremonial tomorrow.

Rex Barnett, Grants Pass, captain of the Hillah Patrol and head of all Hillah marching bodies.

MEDFORD - ASHLAND WILL PLAY SUNDAY Golfers to Try 'Blind Bogey'

BITTER BATTLE WILL BE STAGED AT FAIRGROUND

Lithians Determined to End String of Losses—Rogues Need Win to Stay Near Top of So. Ore. League

Southern Oregon League Standings table with columns for team, W, L, Pct.

Where They Play Sunday table with columns for team and location.

Manager Haight's Medford Rogues will make their second home appearance next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Jackson county fairgrounds when they tangle with the Ashland Lithians in what promises to be one of the most bitterly contested games of the Southern Oregon League season.

Important Game The crucial aspect of the game for both teams is expected to draw the largest crowd of the year. Medford, at present, is within striking distance of the top; being only one game behind the pace setting Coquille Loggers.

Stronger Ashland Team So far as Ashland goes, the game will be "make or break" for them. They have not won a game as yet and, in order to stay in the pennant race, they must win. A loss will put them so far in the cellar that they will never get out.

Medford Lineup Same Manager Haight will start the same lineup that has battered the Rogues to the high position they now hold.

Four-Way Tie Possible A four-cornered tie for first place is possible after games next Sunday. If Klamath Falls is able to put a stop to the high-flying Coquille Loggers; if Roseburg wins from Paul Hoffer's Eagle Point Cheesemakers and if Medford defeats Ashland; then Coquille, Medford, K. Falls and Roseburg will be tied for the top with three victories and one defeat each.

One of the main features of the Hillah ceremonial in Ashland Saturday will be the golf tournament. Entries are being filed by many of the best Shriners dived takers in southern Oregon, which is expected to result in the strongest competition ever seen in this annual event.

Due to the interest being shown, the committee in charge has extended the time for entry until three o'clock Saturday afternoon. The large silver loving cup will be presented to the winner at the ceremonial session that night.

The committee handling the tournament consists of F. F. Whittle, Ashland, chairman; Arthur Schupp, Klamath Falls; Karl Hammerbacher, Grants Pass; A. P. Johnson and J. C. Thompson, Medford.

Jack Campaigne, 116, Chiloquin, and Tony Ortis, 117, mixed for four rounds to a draw. The boys were active with their feet and hands most of the time.

At local favorite, Rex Gallinsky, 115 pounds, pummeled Bill Hoffman, 114, Ashland, for four rounds. Gallinsky, still an immature youth, has been appearing on cards for the past four or five years, and last night gave promise of developing into a leather puncher of no mean ability.

As a preliminary to the fight, two brothers, Elka, Jack and Glenn Patrick, made their debut in the ring as wrestlers. They revealed a surprising knowledge of headlocks, half-Nelsons and writhlocks.

General arrangements for the picnic were under the direction of O. O. Alenderfer, assisted by a number of committee members. Picnic tables were spread under the shade of spreading oaks and pines, and despite the large attendance the entire crowd was served with efficiency. As usual, P. C. Bigham, was committee chairman in charge of this important part of the program.

Richmond county, Ga., is being "dried up" as 2,000 workmen drain lakes and pools that are breeding places for malaria mosquitoes.

Breaks Old Record

Ross Bush of Sunset high school, Dallas, Tex., broke Ted Meredith's 21-year-old world record for the half mile at the national interscholastic meet in Chicago. His time was 1:54.4 (Associated Press Photo)

HOW THEY STAND

Tables showing baseball standings for Coast, American, and National leagues.

INVITATIONS OUT FOR TOURNAMENT ON ROGUE COURSE

Chairman Johnsen Promises Another Mashie Welders' Melee With Prizes and Lunch—Open to All

Upon the urging of Medford's chairman, A. P. Johnson, tournament golfers from Roseburg, Grants Pass, Klamath Falls, Ashland and northern California points will be present, according to word already received from there, and play is to start at 8 o'clock, so the 18 holes can be completed before it gets too hot.

With the tournament open to both members and non-members, Johnson expects a maximum crowd, as non-members of the club have been using another "blind bogey" tournament for a long time.

Among prizes to be given will be a leather golf bag, a driver, brassie, mid-iron and six golf balls. Refreshments will be served throughout the morning, it is announced.

1096 PHEASANTS ARE HATCHED AT GAME FARM HERE

A brand new generation of Chinese pheasants, numbering 1096, is up and about, at the Jackson County branch of the State Game Farm, it was announced today. The new chicks are making themselves heard in field coops at the Medford branch.

A total of 3200 pheasant eggs has been set at the farm, members of the Jackson County Game Protective association announced today, and an important increase in the game life of Jackson county is anticipated for the season.

In the list of new chicks is a group whose lives were seriously endangered while they were yet in the eggs. The mother's nest was broken up by a morning squall, and the young were scattered in all directions. The rancher called the game farm and told the story. First, however, he transported the eggs from the field next to a warm oven in the ranch house. The game farm arranged to move the eggs from the oven to one of the pens, employed as a "setter" at the farm. The move was made and every egg hatched.

One hundred and sixty hens have been used to incubate the pheasant eggs at the game farm this season and no more hens are needed. The association today expressed appreciation of the splendid cooperation offered by the many people, who assisted in procuring hens for the pheasant hatching season.

PERFECT BRIDGE HAND LEAVES WOMAN CALM STEUBENVILLE, O., June 23.—(AP)—Deal a perfect bridge hand, 13 spades, Mrs. Frank Pease didn't faint or scream. She very calmly bid a grand slam, redoubled her opponents' challenge, and marked up 4,000 points on the hand.

Broken windows gazed by Trovbridge Cabinet Works.

Where Shriners Will Tee Off

View of Ashland's fine golf course. Shriners will wield mashie and mlibc in the battle for the Hillah Golf trophy on this lovely course Saturday afternoon, June 24.

Official Program

- 12:30 to 3:30 p.m.—Tee off—Shrine golf contest at Ashland Golf course. 19th hole at Ashland Hotel. 4:30 p.m.—Business meeting at the recorder's room at the Armory. 4:30 to 5:30 p.m.—Candidates report and register at the recorder's office. 5:30 p.m.—Opening of Hospitality Emporium, Mezzanine floor, Armory. 6:00 p.m.—Buffet supper (Dutch Lunch) basement dining room. 7:00 p.m.—Night parade, band, patrol, drum corps, divan, nobility. 8:00 p.m.—Band concert—Armory, Hillah Temple, divan. 8:15 p.m.—Bugle and drum corps revue. 8:30 p.m.—Patrol drill (colorful drills). 8:35 p.m.—Formal reception of the Potentate and Divan, Past Potentate and Illustrious Guests. 9:00 p.m.—Formal parade of the colors and presentation of the flag. 9:10 p.m.—In memoriam (Tribute to departed Nobles). 9:15 p.m.—First and third sections. 10:00 p.m.—Presentation of cups and awards in Hillah Golf contest. 10:15 p.m.—Crossing the hot sands of the desert. (Second Section)

AERIAL EXPRESS SHOWN FEASIBLE

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—(AP)—An aerial "express train" cruised above a Los Angeles airport yesterday as a practical demonstration of a theory in aviation that motorless craft can be towed by a motored plane to the profit of the industry in transportation of passengers and express.

Three gliders were hauled about in the sky by a conventional airplane by means of a metal towing ring rigid to the tail of the powered ship. To this were secured three 200-foot ropes which trailed to the prows of the gliders, which spread out fan-wise behind the plane as it maneuvered.

Some aviation engineers envision the day when air "expresses" will cruise across the country, dropping unpowered carrier craft at designated points along a transport route.

Arrives from South—H. J. Cardozo, sales manager of the Schmidt Lithograph company, with headquarters in San Francisco, arrived in Medford today on the Shasta. He was joined here by Carl G. Bruntsch, district manager for the same company, with offices in Portland, who arrived yesterday.

TRUCK AND BUS OWNERS CALLED FOR DISCUSSION

Truck owners, farmers and truck dealers are invited to a meeting at the court house auditorium tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, called by the legislative committee of the chamber of commerce upon request of the Truck Owners and Farmers Protective association, for discussion of the new truck and bus bill, No. 429, it was announced today.

A. C. Anderson, chairman of the state board of the association, arrived in Medford this morning to make arrangements for the meeting and reported that branches of the association, formed a few weeks ago in Salem, are being organized throughout the state. The object is to explain the meaning and effects of the new truck and bus bill.

The organization feels, he stated today, that the new law will be a big hindrance to the industrial standing of the state of Oregon. It will force thousands of trucks from the highways of the state, thousands of men out of employment and will bring a financial crash, through necessitating the return of many trucks to dealers. Mr. Anderson also stated that the bill would bring about a monopoly in the transportation system of the state.

Mr. Anderson organized a branch of the association last night at Grants Pass, and is going on to Klamath Falls, where a branch will be organized tonight. It is hoped to effect an organization here tomorrow afternoon, after which meeting Mr. Anderson will continue to Roseburg to form an association branch there Saturday night.

At tomorrow afternoon's meeting an open discussion of the situation will be encouraged, Mr. Anderson stated today, pointing out that the state organization is growing rapidly and that people are coming to realize more the dangers of the new bill as the time for purchasing licenses draws nearer.

Business men as well as truck owners, operators and dealers, were urged by Mr. Anderson today to attend the meeting here tomorrow to obtain further information regarding the law.

DUNLAP OUT OF BRITISH TOURNEY

HOLYOKE, Eng., June 23.—(AP)—George T. Dunlap, Jr., sole American survivor in the British amateur golf championship, was eliminated in the semi-final round today 4 and 3 by the veteran British internationalist, Hon. Michael Scott.

The slim young American, twice holder of the United States intercollegiate title, held his own with Scott through the first nine holes of the match, which they finished all square but failed to win a hole on the thirteenth, Scott taking the lead at the 11th to end the match four holes later.

On his way to the semi-final Dunlap defeated several leading golfers of the British Empire, including C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville, Canadian holder of the United States amateur title, and Lester Harley, British Walker cup star.

Cyril Tooley, British title holder in 1920 and 1922, also fell in the semi-final round before Thomas Arundel Bourn, losing out in a 20-hole match.

Edwina Booth Faces Death As Result of African Picture

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—An adventurous year in Africa, a better than average chance at movie fame and a few thousand dollars may cost Edwina Booth her life.

The blonde heroine of the jungle-made picture, "Trader Horn," has been virtually ill all of the time since she returned three years ago. She has been confined to her bed for the last 18 months. Recently her condition became critical and her mother says her recovery is extremely doubtful.

"Our doctors say the tropical sun burned up certain nerve cells in Edwina's body," her mother, Mrs. James L. Woodruff, who is nursing her, explains. "They say these cells never can be regained."

Condition Varies "Frequently Edwina seems to be improving, and our hopes are raised, but then she falls rapidly again and we become almost despondent. We try so hard not to realize that there is little hope of her ever getting well."

Although her body is wasting away, the young actress' mind is alert and active much of the time. When she is able to be propped up in bed, she reads, writes and models in clay. Some of her modeling has a professional touch, although she never has taken lessons.

She has written several scores of clever verses for a child's book, which her younger sister has illustrated—Edwina, who is 23, is the oldest of five children.

Future Looked Bright "The opportunity to be in 'Trader Horn' seemed to Edwina and the grandest thing in the world," her mother says. "The studio promised her that if she made good in it she would be kept under contract and put in other pictures."

After she came back, Edwina played in two serials for other studios, and she had just started a good part in another picture when she collapsed on the set. That was 16 months ago and she hasn't been near a studio since.

Promised a continuance of her Hollywood contract if she made good in "Trader Horn," Edwina Booth had visions of a glorious success in the films. But the year spent in Africa making the picture wrecked her health. She says her mother, and she is in a critical condition. Here are two photographs of Miss Booth, the one at the right showing her as she arrived in this country from the expedition.

came back, Mrs. Duncan Renaldo, wife of the actor who played the hero in the film, sued Miss Booth for alienation of affections. The case failed to reach trial when Mrs. Renaldo's attorney said his client had insufficient evidence to proceed.

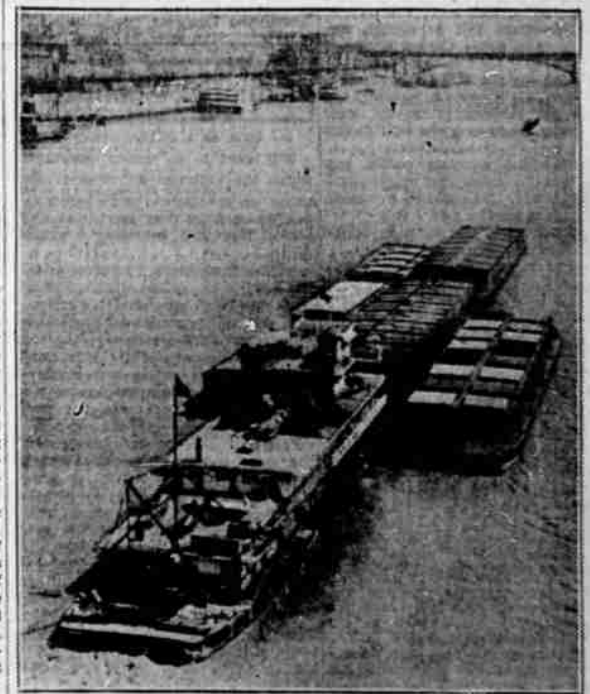

An extra girl whom she was picked to portray the character of Nina T. Miss Booth is regarded in many parts of the world as a registering star. Her mother showed a pile of many hundred letters that had come from fans in every country. The most recent was from Palestine where "Trader Horn" played not long ago, more than two years after its release.

HOOVER AUTOMOBILE NEAR CORNER CRASH

GLENDALE, Cal., June 23.—(AP)—En route home after a visit of several days in southern California, former President and Mrs. Herbert Hoover had several exciting moments passing through Glendale today.

As their chauffeur made a boulevard stop, two automobiles collided with considerable force directly in front of the Hoover machine and the former chief executive and his wife were held up 10 minutes while police unmasked a traffic jam that resulted.

LAKES-TO-GULF BARGE LINE OPENS

The first through shipment of merchandise from New Orleans to Chicago over the newly-completed federal barge line is shown upon its arrival in St. Louis. The towboat Hoover is shown pushing the barges upstream. (Associated Press Photo)