LOCAL AUTO FIRM ENTERS KLAMATH FALLS TERRITORY

Following increased activity in the automobile business during the past several months, Armstrong Motors Inc., have opened a branch headquarters in Klamath Falls at 401 South Sixth street for the distribution of Chrysler, Plymouth, Cadillac and La Salle cars. Expert service will be offered by the Klamath Falls garage as well as new and used car sales.

Ed Knight, well known car dealer who has been associated with the Acme Motor company in Klamath Falls for the past ten years, has been secured as manager of the Armstrong branch, which will afford an excellent new outlet for both new and used cars.

With the opening of the Klamath Falls garage, Armstrong Motors Inc., will be able to buy larger quantities of automobiles, giving their customers prompt delivery and additional service.

Armstrong Motors Inc., is one of the oldest automobile concerns in Medford, having been established ten years ago with U. S. Armstrong as president, and Hugo Lange, vice-president and treasurer. Mr. Armstrong has charge of new car sales and used cars and general automobile servicing is supervised by Mr. Lange. Business offices for both the Klamath Falls and Medford garages will be maintained in this city and purchasing will be made from here, according to Mr. Lange.

A complete line of Hudson and Terraplane cars is featured at the local garage along with Chrysler, Plymouth, Cadillac and La Salle.

"King of Jazz" on Rialto Screen

The dance numbers in "King of Jazz," which opens a three-day run at the Rialto theatre today, are only one reason for the entertainment of the picture. The entire film is done in Technicolor and still remains one of the most gorgeous extravaganzas ever produced.

'BIG BROADCAST' ON ROXY SCREEN TODAY
"The Big Broadcast," featuring many of radio's greatest personalities in company with a cast of screen favorites, opens today at the Roxy theatre.

The story revolves around Big Crosby, Lela Hyams and Stuart Erwin. Crosby, in the film as in real life a radio favorite, is so fascinated by another woman that he never shows up at the studio in time for his broadcasts, and consequently gets himself fired. Erwin, in love with Miss Hyams, finds she loves Crosby, and in a magnificent gesture, buys the station and network to restore the latter his job, for Lela's sake.

Ralph Metcalfe, Marquette university's brilliant sprint champion, is considering two invitations to make exhibition tours in Europe this summer.
