

EGAN WILL AGAIN SEEK NORTHWEST GOLFING HONORS

Medford Stylist Entered in 35th Renewal of Amateur Tourney Opening On Victoria, B. C., Course Today

By JAMES S. SHEEHY

VICTORIA, B. C., June 26.—(UP)—Oak Bay—one of the oldest and finest seashore links in the far west—will see H. Chandler Egan, Medford, Ore., and Mrs. Vera Hutchings, Vancouver, B. C., in quest of their sixth title in respective divisions in the playing of the 35th annual Pacific Northwest Amateur Golf championship this week.

Egan's way may be the harder, for he advised he had little time for practice due to his attention to business. But the veteran stylist and former amateur national champion has a "grooved" swing that seldom fails him under pressure.

Some Stars Missing
Although several of the outstanding northwest golfers will be missing, A. S. G. Musgrave, treasurer of the P. N. G. A., expects about 100 men and 50 women entrants.

British Columbia golfers from Vancouver may be the real tournament threats on the wind-swept 5,700-yard par 9 Oak Bay course that calls for extreme care and accurate iron play.

In the men's division, the qualifying round of 36 holes will open today at Oak Bay with 32 qualifying. Successful 36-hole matches will follow daily with the finals on Saturday.

Women Qualify Today
The women will qualify 32 in an 18-hole medal round today at Colwood and play 18-hole first and second round matches Tuesday and Wednesday. They move over to Oak Bay Thursday for the quarter-finals, semi-finals and 36-hole final.

Ken Black and Stanley Leonard of Vancouver appear as formidable entrants and Dr. O. F. Willing and Dr. Cliff Baker of Portland will head the Rose city delegation. Frank Dolp, title holder in 1929 and 1931, will miss his first northwest tournament in eight years due to business. He would probably have been one of the best bet to win, as his woods are working well under a well-grooved swing. He hopes to compete in the Canadian Amateur at Vancouver later.

Seattle will send a quartet of shot-makers, including Johnnie Shields, Scotty Campbell, Lee Steil and Ralph Whaley.

Wilhelm May Not Play
Rudie Wilhelm, winner of many titles in his career; Eddie Hogan, Johnnie Robbins and Vine Dolp—all of Portland—probably will not be able to make the trip north this year.

Outstanding women golfers entered include Mrs. Sayward Wilson, Victoria; Mrs. Hew Patterson, Victoria; Miss Jean Plagemann and Miss Marjorie McDougall, Portland, and Mrs. W. A. Kirkman, Seattle.

The seventh hole at Oak Bay, a par 3, is 226 yards long and is considered by Harry Vardon, Chio Brane and others one of the best one-shotters in the northwest. From a high rocky tee there is a carry of 100 yards over unplayable broom and rocks and a hook will find a beach that hugs the fairway on the left. The tee shot on the fifth calls for a 110-yard carry across the Pacific ocean. Into a stiff headwind it presents a real mental hazard.

VINES TRIUMPHS IN FIRST MATCH

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 26.—(AP)—Ellsworth Vines, Jr., United States and Wimbledon tennis champion, today began defense of his title in the famous Wimbledon play with a 6-1, 6-2, 6-0 victory over G. R. D. Meredith, of England.

Curtis, third ranking United States star, continued the straight-set American advance as he polished off E. Itoh, Japanese Davis cup spare, 6-2, 8-6, 6-1 in another first round match.

David Jones, former Columbia university star and now the ranking player of Cambridge, was given a stiff contest by J. D. Patrick, Whistler, veteran English Davis cup player but finally prevailed 6-4, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, to join Vines in the second round.

SILVA HIGH GUN AT DEL MONTE

DEL MONTE, Cal., June 26.—(AP)—First honors in the Grand Del Monte Handicap of the Pacific International trapshoot were held today by William J. Silva, Modesto, Cal., who broke 94 out of a possible 100 targets.

A. D. Lamotte, San Diego, and O. N. Ford, Del Monte, tied for first with 99x1000 each in the O. N. Ford Hundred, the other shoot on the final day's program yesterday. Ford won the loss for the trophy.

The grand high average for the five-day tournament went to Frank Troeh, Portland, Ore., with 868 out of a possible 920.

A farming company near Stratford, Cal., obtains free power for pumping irrigation water by burning the gas which the pumps bring to the surface with the water.

Susquehanna University, Scitago, Pa., has elected the first woman member of its board of directors since the school was founded 75 years ago. She is Miss Mildred Winston, New York.

MEDFORD LOSES, 16 TO 11, IN WILD ORGY WITH BATS

Medford's Rogues lost a free hitting battle to Ashland 16 to 11 at the fairgrounds yesterday with both sides of the controversy knocking the ball to all corners of the park. Manager Haight of the locals blasted out a homer in the fifth with two men on base which put the locals on the long end of a 7 to 6 score.

The Lithians, however, came right back in the first half of the sixth to put the contest on ice with seven runs.

McLean, Ashland third sacker, garnered four hits, two of them for three bases, in six trips to the plate, to shine as the heavy sticker of the day.

Montgomery, Ashland slabater, struck out ten but was touched for eleven hits.

Lange, Haight and Coleman scored a double play, the Medford aggregation turning in at least one such feat in every game.

EAGLE PT. LOSES 7-1 IN ROSEBURG

Eagle Point Cheesemakers lost a 7-1 decision to Roseburg on the invasion of the prairie center. The teams battled on even terms through the fifth inning, neither pitcher granting a hit up to that frame. In the sixth, Colin, hurling for Eagle Point, granted two hits, and a walk and this together with three errors by his teammates, gave the "Vets" three markers. Colin tightened up thereafter and allowed but seven hits in the game, and struck out seven.

Powers, former Oregon university player, pitching for Roseburg, gave four hits and fanned eight.

PITCHER BERSERK WHEN GAME LOST

CHICAGO, June 26.—(AP)—The Chicago Cubs had better score a substantial number of runs the next time Lonnie Warneke pitches, or the club management may have to pay heavy property damage.

After losing a 2 to 1 decision to Boston Saturday Warneke stormed into the clubhouse, seized a bat and destroyed a heating apparatus. The Braves' management billed the Cubs for $25.

When the young Arkansan, who last year led the national league in pitching accomplishments, finished with the heater, he ruined all his mates' straw hats.

Warneke, who lost only six games, while winning 22 last year, already has lost seven this season, four of them in a row. His last five defeats have been by scores of 1 to 0, 2 to 1, 2 to 1, 2 to 0, and 2 to 1.

KIDD, TUMY TIED FOR FIRST PLACE IN BOGEY TOURNEY

C. M. Kidd and Earl Tummy tied for first place at the blind bogey golf tournament at the Rogue Valley course Sunday, each with a score of 81. First prize, the leather bag, was given to Kidd, as he was on the sheet first.

Second prize, the drive, went to Tummy. Charles Clay, Dr. Durno, Hank Pringle and Ward Beeny tied for second with 80, with Clay getting the bronze. Durno the midiron and Pringle and Beeny dividing the dozen golf balls. The course was crowded most of the day, with play starting at 8:00 o'clock.

The rainstorm of Saturday night kept many golfers away from the course, but to the misfortune of the golfers, as playing conditions were perfect. The rain had settled all the dust, and had wet down the rough considerably.

Interclub matches held yesterday by several southern Oregon cities also cut down attendance, as many golfers have come from other cities to attend matches in the past.

No time has been set for another such tournament, but it is generally believed another tourney will be held before fall, as they have proved so popular.

BULK NOT MAIN FACTOR IN SHARKEY-PRIMO GO

By HERBERT W. BARNER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, June 26.—(AP)—If boxing matches were decided on the basis of bulk, Jack Sharkey could concede his heavyweight championship to Primo Carnera now and go home to Boston and take care of the flowers he likes to take about.

But there's more to it than that and, unless Jack has turned overnight into one of those well-known "hollow shells," then he should be rated a strong favorite for his 15-round title defense against the big Italian in Madison Square Garden's outdoor bowl in Long Island city Thursday night.

One of the most puzzling aspects of pre-fight speculation has revolved around the betting odds. Where Sharkey was a 4 to 1 shot when he fought Carnera for the first time two years ago, the odds now have dropped to 7 to 5 with a possibility of a further shortening before champion and challenger climb through the ropes about 8:30 (E. S. T.) Thursday evening.

Sharkey, nearing 31, undoubtedly has lost some of his speed and by the same token Carnera has improved amazingly in the last two years, but the champion still looks like much the better fighting man. He'll have to concede 60 pounds in weight and seven inches in height, but he did it before and gave Carnera a beating over the same long 15-round route. William F. Carey, president of the Garden, has announced there will be no broadcast of the bout.

LET ME TELL YOU about my pet economy!

• "Fred said that we had to find ways to economize, but he made a wry face when I suggested doing our laundry at home. 'That means buying a washer,' Fred groaned, 'and I don't think we can afford one.' And then I sat down with a pencil and did some figuring. I discovered that the amount I could save every month by laundering at home would more than meet the easy monthly payments on an electric washer!

• "Fred gives me all the credit for this bit of budgeting, and I've discovered that it saves much more than I expected. This new washer handles each piece individually without tangling or braiding. The result is that everything looks cleaner and actually lasts longer. That's an additional economy well worth considering, especially when you have children in the family."
