Former Medford Girl Married in Idaho

Of interest to many Medford people, who remember well Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Lawrence and family, formerly of this city, is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Mildred Lawrence to Robert Pasley of Caldwell, Idaho, June 19. In the social columns of the Caldwell newspaper the following report of the wedding is given:

"At dusk against a background of tall pink and blue delphinium, rose buds and ferns with myriads of white tapers in brass candelabra furnishingg the only light, Miss Mildred Lawrence, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Lawrence, and Robert Pasley, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Pasley, were married June 19 at the Presbyterian church. The marriage vows were read by the bride's father. Before the bridal party entered, Miss Marion Hare, accompanied by Miss Louise Sales, sang "At Dawning." To Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Hare, the wedding party took their places before the altar.

"The bride, a lovely blonde, wore a white organy gown made empire style. Her veil was caught on the back of her head with a band of orange blossoms which her mother had worn on her wedding day. She also carried the same handkerchief as that of her mother. Her bouquet was of rosebuds and baby's breath. Miss Ruth Lawrence, who attended her sister, wore yellow chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of rose buds and snap dragons. Harvey Caron of Twin Falls was best man and Francis McCormick of Emmett and Carlos Buchner of Caldwell were ushers.

"Following the ceremony a reception was held for the bridal party and immediate friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Pasley left for a wedding trip to Yellowstone park, after which they will be at home in Twin Falls.

"Mrs. Pasley attended the University of Oregon and was a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She graduated this spring from the College of Idaho, where she was a member of the S. E. sorority.

"Mr. Pasley attended the College of Idaho and graduated in 1930 from the University of Washington, where he was affilitaed with Pi Kappa Phi."

GRANGE HEAD URGES SALES TAX DEFEAT IN LOCAL ADDRESS

Speaking in opposition to the sales tax to be submitted to a vote of the people July 21, Ray Gill, master of the Oregon State Grange addressed a crowd of approximately 100 people last night at the Knights of Pythias hall in this city. His audience was composed, chiefly, of grangers from surrounding communities.

Mr. Gill described the sales tax as one of the "most dangerous and vicious pieces of legislation ever offered the people of Oregon," and declared that the Grange has always been and always will be opposed to a sales tax except on luxuries. Sponsors of the sales tax, for the most part, he listed as those opposed to an income tax, citing William Randolph Hearst as a typical "sales tax promoter." He read at length from editorials, written by Hearst, advising complete abolishment of the income tax, to illustrate his claim. Returning a tax to now tax-exempt securities was suggested by Mr. Gill as a solution to the problem in preference to passage of a sales tax.

Jenkins' Comment

lature is still in session, and nobody seems to know just when it will quit.

PROPOSITION No. 8 would give to county boards of supervisors, which correspond to our commissioners, power to fix the pay of all county officials, except supervisors themselves, district attorneys and auditors, as well as fixing the number, terms of service and pay of all deputies. The legislature does it now, as is the case here in Oregon.

That might not be such a bad idea.

TWO other measures would divert the proceeds of the gasoline tax from highway building and maintenance to payment of road bond principal and interest. The interesting point to us is that in California the gasoline tax raises some 17 million dollars. That's a lot of money.

AND, speaking of a lot of money, another proposal on the California ballot is to issue 20 million dollars in state bonds and lend the proceeds to cities and counties to carry on unemployment relief.

They have their troubles down there, too.
