

COACHING LINEUP AT OREGON STATE GIVEN BY LODELL

CORVALLIS, Ore., June 30.—(AP)—Carl Lodell, director of athletics at Oregon State college, today announced the coaching lineup for the college in four major sports—football, baseball, basketball and track—for the coming seasons.

The staff is composed of Lon Stiner, Amory W. (Bates) Gill, Jim Dixon, Grant Swan and Geo. Scott.

All with the exception of Swan and Scott were coaching here last year. Stiner, who has been assistant football coach here since 1928, will head the football coaching staff. He will be assisted by Jim Dixon, assistant here since 1927, and Geo. Scott, who played halfback here in 1926-27, and was assistant backfield coach in 1928. Scott was coach of all sports at Baker high school the past four years.

Stats Gill will be freshman football coach, replacing Vern Eilers, who has been elected coach at Baker high school. Gill will again be head varsity basketball and baseball coach. He brought the Orangemen their first Pacific coast conference basketball championship last winter.

Scott will coach the freshman basketball and basketball teams. His teams at Baker won the right to enter the state tournament at Salem three times in the past four years.

Swan, who was graduated from Oregon State in 1922 and considered one of the greatest track men ever to represent the college, will relieve Stiner of the duties of head track coach.

POLLS STAY OPEN UNTIL 8 TONIGHT

Hundreds Will Hit To Hills Over Week End

Due to the unfavorable weather prevailing the greater part of the early summer there have been few ventures into the picnic spots by local residents. But with the double holiday this week end it is expected that there will be a general exodus to popular outing places.

Naturally the picnic lunch and food will come in for a lot of attention and for this purpose Fluhner's Bakery is featuring a number of Home Recipe Angelfoods. One of them is especially attractive and is made from Fresh Home Grown Raspberries and iced with a fresh fruit icing. This cake will sell for 43c. Another Angelfood will be the Almond Crunch which will be sold uniced for 39c. Of course it will also be possible to secure the plain angelfoods which have been so popular.

Sandwich buns, bread, cookies and cakes of all kinds will also be on sale to help round out the food for the big outing of the year at this popular bakery. PAID ADV.

MRS. SAULSBURY NEW J'VILLE P. M.

The Jacksonville postoffice, of which Miss Alice Hoefa has been postmistress for the past four years, will open tomorrow as a fourth-class office, and with Mrs. Luella Saulsbury, Jacksonville Democrat, as newly appointed postmistress.

Miss Hoefa, retiring postmistress, recently received notice that the office would be changed from third to fourth class on July 1, under which arrangement the postmistress is paid on a percentage of cancellation through the office instead of an annual salary.

According to the Democratic county central committee, Mrs. Saulsbury was named to the position of postmistress in Jacksonville and has announced that she will assume duties tomorrow morning.

FRUIT, VEGETABLE LAW MADE RIGID

PORTLAND, Ore., June 30.—(AP)—All fruit and vegetable packages moving in Oregon trade or transportation channels after July 1 must carry on the container a legible record of who grew or packed the produce, where it originated, and what the quality is supposed to be. The state agricultural department announced today that inspectors have been notified to seize or condemn after July 6 all produce not legally marked. The bill was passed by the legislature.

Heretofore only Oregon producers and packers were obliged to conform with the regulation. The new law provides that produce from California, Washington, or any other state, must bear the proper marking.

SOUTH DAKOTA INCOME TAX IN EFFECT JULY 1

PIERRE, S. D., June 30.—(AP)—South Dakota's supreme court by a three to two decision today denied requests for a referendum on the state's new gross income tax, thus putting the far reaching law into effect tomorrow.

Action of the court means the income tax will become operative July 1, along with 182 other new laws adopted by the 1933 legislature.

BUD HOOVER FIRST ASPIRANT IN COW MILKING CONTEST

hog-calling contest which attracted 1500 persons some time ago.

City Superintendent Fred Scheffel is arranging for a part of the S. P. lot to be roped off so that the milkers will have plenty of room in which to operate in order to prevent the crowd from frightening the cows.

Through the cooperation of A. P. Johnson, of the Standard Oil company, the loud speaker car, in charge of George Austin, will come to Medford from Portland on Saturday and will announce the milking contest and the fire department demonstration throughout the valley.

Prizes for the contest have been announced as follows: 1st, $7.50; 2nd, $5.00; 3rd, $2.50; 4th, donated by Mann's; 5th, Mann's; 6th, Penney's; 7th, Penney's; 8th Brown's Billiards; 9th, Gates & Lydiard; 10th, Gates & Lydiard, 11th, Fogarty Bill, and 12th, Standard Oil Co., and the judges will be R. G. Fowler, chairman; D. O. Fredericks, John Anderson, W. J. Warner, and C. A. Wing.

Bud Hoover, the 9 year old entrant for the milking contest, called at the chamber of commerce this morning and was very enthusiastic over his prospects of winning the first prize of $7.50. Here's what he had to say: "I'll milk my cow in two minutes flat. The only thing that worries me is what to do with the money I win. I may add it to what I have in my savings account and buy another cow or else buy myself a bicycle from some Medford merchant. I want a lot of things but the money won't go far enough to let me buy from many stores. I'm not big enough to buy a pipe and anyhow I'm not going to smoke when I do grow up. Maybe I'll buy mother a new dress. But all my friends must know that I am going after that first prize and I expect to win it."

ROOSEVELT SAYS IT'S BANKERS' JOB

CAMPO BELLO ISLAND, N. B., June 30.—(P)—President Roosevelt regards the question of temporary stabilization of currency as a banking rather than a governmental problem and therefore outside the immediate realm of the troubled economic conference.

The chief executive made this view known here today after being advised of London dispatches quoting "high British quarters" as saying they understood that Mr. Roosevelt had replied favorably to a plea to prevent erratic dollar fluctuations.

The president was planning his

CHICAGO, June 30.—(AP)—Advised by a government official that the national recovery act involved wage increases, a special committee representing the various units of the national lumber industry today began drafting a fair competition and organization code.

"Deadly serious business," Dudley Gates, assistant administrator from Washington, termed the work before the lumbermen as he explained what the government expected industries to do in compliance with demands of the recovery act.

"The purpose of the act," he said, "is to distribute mass purchasing power, this through wage increases and more employment."
