Medford Society Observes Holiday In Wide Outdoors

Medford society started observance of the "Glorious Fourth" yesterday afternoon, when many people left the city for lakes, mountain cabins and beaches, where they will remain through Tuesday.

Among the popular gathering places will be Diamond lake, Lake of the Woods and the Crescent City country. Prospect will also be visited by a number of people over the holiday week-end and house parties are planned at numerous mountain cabins along the Rogue.

Those who were not able to leave last evening will spend Tuesday at least at one of the neighboring resorts.

Tuckers Entertain San Franciscans At River Lodge

Mr. and Mrs. Nion Tucker are entertaining this week at their lodge "Rogue's Roost" on the river, and have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Tobin, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Tobin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Piler and Mrs. Ferdinand Thieriot.

The party arrived from San Francisco on the Shasta Saturday noon, accompanied by Mr. Tucker. Mrs. Tucker has been here for several days, having flown from San Francisco to the Medford airport Tuesday.

On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tibbett will arrive to be the guests of the Tuckers. Mrs. Tibbett will make the trip north from San Mateo by train, while the famous opera singer plans to journey here by motor.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Arrive From East

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Norris of New York City arrived yesterday afternoon by plane to be guests for a week of Mr. Norris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Norris, at Brookbank orchard, and of Miss Helen Norris and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norris.

They made the trip from the eastern city in 36 hours, leaving New York Friday morning.

Phoenix—Friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burelhon Wednesday in honor of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Burelhon, June 29th, and that of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stillwell on June 28th. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark and children Mae and Jack Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yost, Ray Best and children Roger, Clayton and Lois, Mrs. Susie Lawson, Mrs. L. O. Carter and daughters Elva and Sybil, and grandson Otto, Ray Edwards, Lyle Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stillwell, and daughter Lila, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burelhon and daughter Shirley. A picnic supper was enjoyed and the evening spent visiting and playing cards.

Medford Woman Named New Supreme Princess

Mrs. O. C. Boggs —Shangle Photo

In a lavish oriental setting in keeping with the symbolism of the order, new supreme officers of the Daughters of the Nile, headed by Mrs. William Robinson Boone of Portland, the new supreme queen, were installed in the Rose city last week; and in the list of appointive officers installed was one from Medford—Mrs. O. C. Boggs, queen of Zuleima temple of southern Oregon, who was named Supreme Princess Zuleima for the new year.

The ceremony and the inaugural ball, which followed, marked the formal close of the 19th annual session of the supreme temple, attended by delegates from fifty-four temples of the United States, Honolulu and Canada.

Nine little flower girls from three to six years old, added much to the delightful ceremony, carrying large bouquets to each officer in turn as she was installed.

The supreme session in the northern city was attended by many other Daughters of the Nile from Medford and Ashland. The patrol of Zuleima temple, with Mrs. O. D. Frazee as captain, made the trip north in a special car.

Among the leading social events of the week was the "Rose" banquet Monday evening in the Shrine auditorium, where lotus blossoms, decorating the chandeliers, blended with the profusion of pink roses to form a gorgeous setting. Drills were put on the same evening by all the patrols and each captain was presented with a lovely basket of flowers.

Tuesday evening the ceremonial was held at the Neighbors of Woodcraft hall with festivities under direction of Nydia temple of Portland, the new queen conducting a school of instruction for all temple queens. Wednesday Mrs. Boggs was again feted at the "Queen's Luncheon" at the University club, followed by memorial service and tea at the Shrine.

Oak Grove Friends Fete Mrs. Andrews Before Departure

"Just the neighbor folks" typified the spirit of the farewell party tendered Mrs. George Andrews Monday afternoon by the Oak Grove community where the Andrews family lived for so many years.

The setting for this last intimate good-bye was the beautiful garden of Mrs. M. C. Wright in Perrydale.

In the shade of fine old laurel and oak trees, easy chairs, canopied swings and many colorful cushions made a gay background for the summer costumes worn by the guests.

An original poem read by Mrs. A. E. Brockway touched, sometimes humorously, sometimes with pathos, upon the many activities in which Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and the community joined, and which centered in the Oak Grove school. Many things from the ministerial stops to Christmas carols have been tried out on that stage.

A vocal trio, consisting of Luella Corn, Florence Neuman and Joyce Banish sang three numbers "Pickaninny Lullaby," "Tell Me Why," and "Love's Dream," with ukulele accompaniment by Miss Corn, their voices blending beautifully in the open air.

Miss Dorothy Gore played the appealing "Legende as a violin solo with much feeling. She was accompanied by Mrs. Andrews.

Refreshments of punch and small cakes were served at card tables on the lawn.

Mrs. Andrews was presented with a bouquet of roses and a shower of dainty handkerchiefs, each with a loving message and a good wish for the trip to New York, she and her son, George Edward, started on last Tuesday.

No tribute to the Andrews family would be complete without special reference to two members, now gone, Mrs. George Andrews, Sr., and Mrs. Andrews' gracious mother, Mrs. Stewart.

Those enjoying Mrs. Wright's hospitality were, besides the guest of honor, Madames Tyrrell, Carpenter, Luke, Knipe, Gusterson, Stephenson, Baker, Brockway, Hood, Gore, Thornton, Shores, Inch, Corn, Hillis, McCulloch, Huson, Nandle and Hiles and Misses Burr, Coffeen, Inch, Gore, Corn, Newman and Banish.

The poem written to Mrs. Andrews by Louise Brockway and read at the party, follows:

The neighbors of Oak Grove district
Here this afternoon have gathered
To wish God-speed to Mrs. Andrews
And George,
Who on Tuesday are eastward bound.

Mrs. Andrews thinks she must leave us
George needs voice training in a bigger way.
We all feel so very confident
That the top he'll reach some day.

Of course, we are going to miss them
And their talents they so freely give
We know others will enjoy their music
In any sphere of life they may live.

So just as friends and neighbors
Who have worked in Oak Grove school,
We know that as P.-T. A. member or director
Helpfulness and co-operation was her rule.

We put on some real entertainments
When she was at our head;
In nigger minstrel or high-brow stuff
We took the prize, so everyone said.

When as groups we worked together
To make a picnic or dinner a success,
To buy a curtain, stove, or dishes,
We knew each other then I guess.

So we take this time to thank her
And may she truly know
That it is with real deep feeling
Our gratitude to her we show.

So it's just as friends and neighbors
Good-bye we've come to say
And ask her not to forget us,
When they are famous some fine day.

Miss Simpkins
Honors Guest.

Miss Leverette Is Home for Summer

Miss Doreen Leverette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leverette, who recently graduated from the Junior college of Principia at St. Louis, arrived Thursday from the east to spend the summer with her parents. She completed the liberal arts course and plans to enter senior college in the fall.

On her return west, Miss Leverette stopped for a short time at the World's fair and to visit friends in Clinton, Iowa.

Tour of Suigart Garden Pleasing To Club Women

Lilies "Regal" and "Madonna" had opened their waxy petals to fill the evening air with their fragrance, when 32 members of the Medford Garden club met for regular session and a tour of Mrs. Carl Suigart's garden at 211 Genesee street Thursday evening.

Shadows, reaching out from locust tree, catalpas and an almond, loaded with green nuts, cast inviting paths about the lawn, bordered with blue delphiniums, blue scabiosa, balloon flowers and a profusion of roses.

An especially choice blossom admired by many was the Mrs. Erskine Pembroke Thom rose of deep yellow. Another lovely yellow was found in the evening primrose, which unfolded new petals for the guests.

Red poppies against the gray cement of the sun dial added a brilliant flash of color under evening sun as guests continued through the grape-grown arbor to the north side of the garden, where clarkies and delphiniums punctuate the rich green of the border with splashes of pink and blue.

Evergreens of the forest, the ocean spray of the lower woodlands, and the most delicate domestic blossoms, encouraged by the busy hands of Mrs. Suigart, one of Medford's best-known gardeners, are growing in gay abandonment, tendrils intermingling in a pattern of nature's own.

Following the delightful tour of the garden Thursday the club members held a business session at the Suigart house and committees for the new year were announced by Mrs. T. W. Miles, president. They are:

Program—Mrs. Fred Cummings, Mrs. C. C. Furnas and Mrs. Arthur Short.

Miss Orth Bride Of H. Robertson Saturday Service

At a quiet service yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the Sacred Heart church, Catholic, at 2:30 o'clock, Miss Eleanor Orth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Orth, and Harry Robertson of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Robertson of Homer, Minn., were married. Father Francis W. Black officiating.

The bride was charming in a gray suit with harmonizing accessories and was unattended. A few immediate relatives attended the service, after which Mr. and Mrs. Robertson departed for a motor trip north. They will make their home in this city, where they are popular members of the younger set and Mr. Robertson is associated with the Commercial Finance company.

Meadows-Miller Wedding Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Meadows of this city have announced the marriage of Miss Mabel Miller to their son Lethew Meadows, which was an event of Saturday, July 1, in Juneau, Alaska. The bride is a teacher in the public schools at Sitka, Alaska. They will make their home at Auk Bay, where Mr. Meadows is employed by the government.

Mistletoe Club Has Fine Picnic

The Mistletoe club of Royal Neighbors met in Ashland park last week for a picnic. A wonderful time was had by the children in the playgrounds. The ladies devoted the afternoon to cards, fancy work and a spelling contest between the Medford and Ashland clubs. Champion spellers were Mrs. Rankin and Edith Beck. Due to unsettled weather, supper was served in the I. O. O. F. hall. Over 65 members and friends were present.

Pollyanna farewell party will be held at the home of Edith Beck on July 12.

Baptist Auxiliary Has Fine Meeting

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Edna Raymond on Rose Lane, for their missionary meeting Tuesday.

After a short business session the missionary chairman took charge, reading from the 19th chapter of Matthew.

A solo by Betty Jean Myers was much enjoyed.

Stories were told of migrant camps in Oregon and California and the welfare work done there, as well as the effect on the children's schooling.

Miss Helen Judy sang an appropriate solo, which was much enjoyed.

All joined in a chain of prayer, led by Dr. Eva Mains Carlow.

Mrs. Raymond and Bobby Raymond pleased all with a duet.

Prentice Family Will Visit Fair

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Prentice and son, Robert, William and John, are going to the fair. They expect to leave early this week by motor for the east, traveling through Salt Lake City and Denver. From Chicago they will continue to New York and Washington, D. C., according to present plans and journey on north to St. Thomas, Ontario, before starting homeward over the northern route. They will also spend some time in Kansas City and plan to be away from Medford for six weeks.

Miss Bernert Honored At Surprise Dinner

Miss Clarita Bernert, who left Sunday for San Francisco to spend some time visiting relatives and friends, was the inspiration of a dinner party at Nandle's Grill preceding her departure. Attending the party were Misses Bernert, Mary Swayne, Eleanor Hayes and Messrs. Wilbur Crumb, Walter Hartie and Ross Grove.

Mrs. Brown and Daughter Guests of Mrs. Hoffman

Mrs. W. I. Brown and daughter Mary C. Brown, teacher in the Birmingham, Ala., schools, are guests here this week of Mrs. Ethelwyn B. Hoffman at her home, 1211 West Main street. Mrs. Brown is Mrs. Hoffman's mother and plans to make her home in Medford. Miss Brown will return south in the fall to resume her position in Alabama. She is a graduate of the University of Washington and a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Safely through the critical years
OUR ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR
KEEPS HIS FOOD FRESH AND WHOLESOME

The Doctor said: "The food and drink of your children are the materials of which their growing bodies are made. Keep an eye on their milk... be certain it is pure, safe... always fresh. Watch every single item of their food. Baby digestions are easily upset."

That's why I purchased an electric refrigerator and I have found it the best investment I ever made. First, as an investment in the health of my children; and the dividends have been 100%. Second, from the standpoint of money, it has actually cost less to own an electric refrigerator than to get along without one. Why not see your dealer today?
