The Rev. J. W. Haman, Ph.D., of Grants Pass was dean of the school. Rev. Haman is formerly of Pasadena and is a valuable asset to the presbytery of southwestern Oregon. The registrar and manager was Rev. H. T. Mitchellmore of Ashland. An interesting feature was the gift of 160 acres of land at Glendale, Ore., for a permanent camp site. It is to be improved with log buildings and athletic fields and will prove to be one of the finest camps for summer conferences in Oregon.

Mrs. Bebb Enjoying Summer Opera Season in New York
"The Chicago Opera company is having three weeks of opera in New York. Attended a matinee performance of 'Martha' Saturday and to my surprise, when I opened the program, I saw in the cast, the character of 'Martha' (Lady Harriet) was to be played by none other than Caroline Andrews—is an interesting note in a letter just received from Mrs. Royal E. Bebb, who with young son, Ward, is enjoying a summer in the east.
"Her acting was splendid and voice excellent," Mrs. Bebb continues her glimpse of the former Medford girl. "Her singing of 'The Last Rose of Summer' won her several curtain calls.
"As I was going out I ran into Mr. Ed Andrews and enjoyed a chat with him. Expressing the evening's performance Wednesday of 'Carmen,' in which Caroline Andrews will take the part of Micaela."
A round of entertaining and gaiety for her pleasure in New York and New Jersey, prior to entering into her music study July 10th is revealed in Mrs. Bebb's letter. But all events in her former home city are saddened, she also reveals in the letter, by the unexpected death of her old friend Mrs. Mathilde Cottrelly, who began her dramatic career in Germany 74 years ago; produced and managed scores of plays in this country and once was known as the most versatile woman on the American stage.
Before leaving Medford for New York, Mrs. Bebb received a letter from Mrs. Cottrelly, inviting her to spend a month at her home on Barnegat Bay, on the S. S. Dixie en route to New York from New Orleans, she received a radiogram, stating that her friend was seriously ill.
Mrs. Bebb will devote much time to the study of music before returning to Medford in the fall to reopen her classes in piano here.
She will probably meet more members of the Andrews family before leaving, for Mrs. George Andrews and son, George Edward, are on their way to New York, where George will study voice and where they will make their home for a number of years.
