

Medford Rogues Invade Roseburg Sunday—Coquille at Eagle Point

THREE-TEAM TIE FOR SECOND SPOT ADDS TO INTEREST

Cheesemakers Present Improved Lineup for Clash With Loggers—Ashland Moves Game to Klamath

Team	W.	L.	PC
Coquille	4	1	.800
Medford	3	2	.600
K. Falls	3	2	.600
Roseburg	3	2	.600
Ashland	1	4	.200
Eagle Point	1	4	.200

Where They Play Sunday.
Medford at Roseburg.
Coquille at Eagle Point.
Ashland at Klamath Falls.

Southern Oregon Baseball league will swing into the second half of its 10-week schedule next Sunday with the surprising Medford Rogues hopping to Roseburg; the league-leading Coquille Loggers coming to Eagle Point and Ashland jumping to Klamath Falls.

Medford Back in Race.
Due to their sensational 13-12 upset victory over Klamath Falls last Sunday, Manager Haight's Medford Rogues are back in a tie for second place along with Roseburg and Klamath Falls. Just one game behind the league-leading Loggers.

Only one game will be played in the valley Sunday and that will be at Eagle Point where the Cheesemakers will attempt to knock over the league leaders. Hafford has a greatly strengthened lineup at Eagle Point and the Loggers will have to play their best ball to come out on top.

Ashland-Klamath Game Shifted.
The Ashland-Klamath Falls game, originally scheduled for Ashland, has been shifted to the Pelican city, due to the very poor crowds turning out at the Airport, Ashland's home field.

If Medford is able to win from Roseburg and Eagle Point from Coquille, the Rogues will be in a tie for first place.

SHUTE AND WOOD TIE FOR LEAD IN BRITISH TOURNEY

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, July 7.—(Sp.)—Denamore Shute of Philadelphia came through with a great finish today, shooting his fourth round in par 73 for a total of 292 for the 72 holes and a tie with Craig Wood, another young American from Deal, N. J. for the lead in the British open golf championship.

Shute had four successive rounds in 73, whereas Wood shot the double round today in 68 and 75 to make a great comeback.

A stroke behind them was the defending champion, Gene Sarazen, who finished with 293, taking a disastrous eight on the 14th hole of his final round. Leo Diegel missed a three-foot putt on the home green and thereby also posted 293.

Walter Hagen, pace setter for two days, went to pieces on his last two rounds. A seven on the 14th in the morning contributed to a third round 79 and the American veteran scored to an 82 on his fourth round, for a total of 301.

MICKEY WALKER BADLY BATTERED BY BROUILLARD

BOSTON, July 7.—(Sp.)—Either Mickey Walker's best fighting days are behind him, or he can't battle a foe man smaller than himself.

The Rumson bulldog engaged the rugged Lou Brouillard of Worcester last night in the Boston Garden's 10-round feature bout and took a terrific lacing.

Although he was nine pounds heavier at 170, and two inches taller than Brouillard, Mickey was on the defensive during all but two rounds. He was able to land only a few of his famous looping punches and none made impression on the middleweight.

Brouillard rushed Walker for the first four rounds, during which he landed many a solid right to the body and jarring left hook to the head. Then he eased up.

Walker, however, was unwilling to become the aggressor, although he managed to shade Brouillard during the long-range exchanges in the fourth and fifth seasons. Brouillard went into high gear again in the sixth and gave Mickey a battering until the final bell.

A left to the body staggered Walker in the sixth and a similar blow threatened to put him down in the ninth. The veteran's courage and experience saved him from complete humiliation.

The struggle drew a crowd of 16,000. Victory probably put Brouillard well along the road to a middleweight title bout and Walker's defeat may rob him of a crack at the light heavyweight diadem.

STRANGLER PINS KOLOFF FOR WIN

PORTLAND, Ore., July 7.—(Sp.)—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, 240, of Glendale, Calif., took two falls out of three to win the main event of last night's wrestling matches here from Dan Koloff, 220, of Chicago.

Lewis won the first fall with a headlock in 22 minutes. Koloff evened the count with a fall in 7 minutes, on a series of reverse wristlocks. Lewis took the third and deciding fall five minutes later with a body press.

Oki Shikina, 215, Japan, defeated Everett Kibbens, 210, Chicago, in the semi-windup, winning two straight falls.

Wong Buck Cheung, 214, Chicago, took one fall and the decision from Billy Severe, 220, Dubuque, Ia., in the preliminary.

KRUSE STRATEGY DUMPS KARASICK FOR THIRD FALL

It was wristlock against headlock in the main event wrestling bout between Bob Kruse, Oswego bad boy, and Al Karasick, Russian Lion, at the armory last night, with the tussle ending in one of the cleverest stunts ever seen in the Medford ring.

Except for a little slugging and an occasional rabbit punch by the "Lion" last night's main event was free from butting and slugging so prominent in past matches. Both men confined themselves to wrestling, and they did a beautiful job of it.

Kruse took the first fall with a new-fangled wristlock that he converted into a hammerlock after Karasick's forearm had become numb.

Kruse seemed helpless to get himself out of the Farmer's grip while Karasick twisted his wrist until it was useless. It was a simple matter for Kruse to change the hold into a hammerlock and Karasick petted the mat.

Kruse lost the second fall after a series of headlocks, interspersed with rabbit punches, which left the Farmer groggy. Many fans were of the opinion that Kruse didn't try so very hard in the second fall, as he had things entirely his own way in the first and third.

Something new and different ended the match. Karasick had put on two of his headlocks and was going for a third one, when Kruse lifted him bodily from the floor and threw him against the ropes. With lightning speed, Kruse crouched behind the Russian Lion, who rebounded from the ropes with his back to Kruse to prevent a head butt, but it was just what Kruse wanted. Karasick fell backwards over Kruse and lit on the back of his head with such a thump that the rest was easy.

Karasick wasn't so sure what it was all about even when he got to the dressing room. Kruse, looking much like a spoiled child, gathered up his robe without a smile and climbed out of the ring.

The first match between Scotty Dawkins and George Koverly kept the house in an uproar of laughter and "boos" as Scotty proved to be the best mat clown seen here in years. He threw Koverly, the sheik of Hollywood, with a body slam after gouging, slugging, crawling out of the ring, sn making faces at Les Weiss, the referee, but it was an unpopular fall as the crowd was with Koverly. Amid boos, hisses, well executed "birdies" and a shower of peanuts, the fat and roly-poly Scott stood his ground in the center of the ring and tossed kisses affectionately to the galleries. Weiss returned from the dressing room where Koverly was under the care of Dr. A. F. W. Krease, and told Dawkins to get out of the ring. Dawkins left, after following his amorous display by inviting the crowd into the ring to fight it out. Koverly couldn't come back.

Friskie, Medford's fireman wrestler, who has been out of the ring here since his prizefight with Eric Belcastro that ended in a riot. Next week's card should be a stemwinder.

ROSEBURG GOLFERS WILL PLAY G. PASS

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 7.—(Sp.)—A 20-man team from the Roseburg country club will play the Grants Pass golf club on the latter's course Sunday, C. A. Patchett, chairman of the local tournament committee announced this morning. An 18-man team recently defeated Grants Pass at Roseburg 35½ to 10½. Roseburg, has also won from Marshfield in the inter-city tournaments played so far this year. A number of ladies plan to accompany the Roseburg team.

GRANTS PASS, July 7.—(Sp.)—Water in Rogue River is falling slowly but is still very much discolored by melting snow on the upper tributaries. Fly fishing has been poor, although some are being taken with the fly on the shallow riffles and along the edge of the willows. The best flies have been March brown, blue upright, grey hackle and the old standby—the royal coachman. The water is still too murky for good spinner fishing and most of the trout taken have been caught on bait, either salmon eggs or soft crawfish.

Buddy Fredericks took a pound and a half summer steelhead on a black gnat trout fly near Tahoma Lodge this week, and an eight-pounder was taken on spinner near the Weasuku Inn. As soon as the water clears sufficiently there will be good fishing for summer steelheads on Rogue river above Grants Pass. Salmon fishing is practically over, although a few are taken every day near Savage Rapids dam.

The Applegate tributary is clearing up and will be in good fishing condition by the next week-end.
