

CONGRESSMEN IN SHIRTSLEEVES WRESTLE WITH TAXES

It became so hot in Washington that these members of a house ways and means sub-committee shed their coats as they studied tax legislation. Left to right: Representatives Jere Cooper, Tennessee; Robert Doughton, North Carolina; Sam B. Hill, Washington; Vinson of Kentucky, and Crowther of New York (Associated Press Photo)

FIGURES IN HISTORIC PARLEY AT WHITE HOUSE

Conferences which may have a broad effect on the world's economic future were the order of the day when these men met in the White House. Left to right, seated: Cordell Hull, secretary of state; Ambassador Sir Ronald Lindsay of Great Britain; Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald; President Roosevelt. Grouped behind them are economic advisers of both governments. (Associated Press Photo)

AL SMITH VOTES FOR REPEAL

Former Governor Alfred E. Smith grinned broadly as he signed the register in a New York polling place just before casting his ballot in the election of delegates to the New York state repeal convention. Mrs. Smith is shown behind him. (Associated Press Photo)

For Evening

A feminine version of the masculine white mess jacket, which originated in South America, is shown in this youthful evening jacket worn by Jean Parker, film actress. The dress is of black silk. (Associated Press Photo)

WOODIN RECEIVES DEGREE

William H. Woodin (right), secretary of the treasury, with Chancellor Charles W. Flint of Syracuse university, after the former was awarded an honorary degree of doctor of music at the university's commencement exercises. (Associated Press Photo)

TEAR GAS FAILS TO HALT WISCONSIN MILK STRIKE

In one of the outbreaks between farmers and deputy sheriffs in Wisconsin's milk strike trouble zone, tear gas was employed near Mukwonago, Wis., in an unsuccessful effort to disperse strike advocates who were halting milk truck drivers. This picture gives a view of the melee, in which six truckfuls of milk were dumped despite deputies' protests. (Associated Press Photo)

SHARKEY FINDS CHILDREN SAFE

After receiving "crank" letters that threatened his harm to him or someone close to him, Jack Sharkey dropped his training activities at Orangeburg, N. Y., and rushed home to Boston. He told his training staff that he had been notified of the serious illness of one of his three children. When he arrived home he found them playing on the lawn, safe and sound. Left to right are Jack, Jr., 3; Marilyn, 5, and Dorothy, 7. (Associated Press Photo)

WOMEN HOSTAGES RELEASED BY ESCAPING CONVICTS

These three women, abducted as hostages by five of the 11 men who made their escape from the Kansas state penitentiary, were released near Pleasanton, Kas., after a wild 12-hour cross-country ride. Left to right: Miss Louise Wood, her mother, Mrs. M. J. Wood, and Miss Gloris Wears, 17, of Kansas City, Kas. (Associated Press Photo)

PRESIDENT GREETS FRENCH ENVOY

President Roosevelt is shown on the front porch of the White House as he extended official greetings to former Premier Edouard Herriot of France, shortly after the French spokesman's arrival for economic conferences. (Associated Press Photo)

MEET IN MOVIES--NOW THEY'LL WED

Mozelle Brittonne and Alan Dinehart, film actor, writer and director, met for the first time when cast in the same picture. Here they are shown as they applied for a marriage license. (Associated Press Photo)

Quits Hollywood

Fay Wray, Hollywood film actress, expects to sail Aug. 1 for London where she is contracted to appear in motion pictures. (Associated Press Photo)

Visits Roosevelt

Norman H. Davis, America's ambassador-at-large, is shown boarding a destroyer at Boston for a trip up the New England coast to confer with President Roosevelt aboard the latter's vacation schooner. (Associated Press Photo)

CONGRESSMAN IN POLICE COURT

Representative F. H. Shoemaker (left) of Minnesota is shown as he left police court in Washington, D. C., after he agreed to waive immunity and stand trial on a charge of assault brought by a neighbor who said Shoemaker hit him. With Shoemaker is his attorney, Thomas Bradley. (Associated Press Photo)

ROSS WINS OVER CANZONERI

Tony Canzoneri (left), who was dethroned from the world lightweight championship in his Chicago fight with Barney Ross, is shown missing an uppercut in the fifth round of the scrap. Ross, only four years out of amateur ranks, won on a decision. (Associated Press Photo)

TEACHERS HEAR 'HELL 'N MARIA'

When Chicago school teachers invaded the city's downtown banks with the demand that banks buy more tax warrants to facilitate salary payments to teachers, they encountered Gen. Charles G. Dawes outside his office. As hecklers interrupted him, he shouted: "To hell with troublemakers." Here he is shown surrounded by teachers. (Associated Press Photo)

Dakota Queen

Margaret Thompson of Cando, N. D., was selected from a field of five campus beauties for the title of "golden anniversary queen" at the University of North Dakota. (Associated Press Photo)