turn home on the Matson liner, Malolo, which is also one of the finest boats on the Pacific. Each day of her stay in Hawaii will be crowded with thrilling events and tours to the many places of interest, reached from Honolulu, where Miss Meiling will be guest of the Mail Tribune at the Royal Hawaiian hotel. She will, in Seattle, be guest of the newspaper at the Olympic hotel and in San Francisco at the St. Francis Drake, all features of the trip being much finer than originally planned, each detail of her journey having been mapped out and arranged for her.

Merchants in Medford have also aided her greatly in the selection of her wardrobe, Miss Meiling stated today, expressing her appreciation of their interest and cooperation. While in the islands, between the luncheons, teas, and dances, planned in the world's flower garden, Miss Meiling expects to see several friends from Medford, who are now living in Hawaii, she said, adding that she is so very thrilled and excited anticipating the trip that she can hardly wait for Wednesday to arrive.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO BE A CHAMPION FENCER!

● ABOVE—THERE IS NOTHING LIKE FENCING for bringing out the condition of a man's nerves. The quick reflexes and perfect coordination of healthy nerves helped George Santelli, former Olympic fencer, win the Open Saber Championship of the United States.

● LEFT—GEORGE SANTELLI, who says: "I can enjoy as many Camels as I want and still know that my nerves are fit."

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

"A man can't fence his best unless his nerves are healthy," says George Santelli. "Fencing is one of the fastest sports there is—you've got to keep your reflexes and nerves in perfect condition. As a coach, I have fencing appointments from seven-thirty in the morning until ten or eleven at night. I can enjoy as many Camels as I want and still know that my nerves are ready and fit when fast action is needed." Camels, with their costlier tobaccos, give a pleasure that never fades. Steady smokers find them always mild...cool...pleasing. They do not fray the nerves or leave a "cigaretty" aftertaste. Start smoking Camels today—for the new enjoyment you will find in a milder cigarette—for the sake of your nerves.

● WHEN THE THRILL of a brilliant saber bout brings the crowd to its feet, and you know that you are excited, tense—light up a Camel and learn for yourself how true it is that Camels are the cigarette for steady smoking.

Camel's Costlier Tobaccos NEVER GET ON YOUR NERVES NEVER TIRE YOUR TASTE
