

Wheat Leads Grain Market in Wildest Advance of Recent Weeks

SMALLEST CROP IN FORTY YEARS CAUSES CONCERN

Traders Strain Nerves to Keep Pace With Deals—Provisions Up 17 to 40 Cents As Market Closes

CHICAGO, July 11.—(AP)—A furiously advancing market, the wildest of many in recent weeks, took all the leading grains to new high price records today.

What chiefly set the markets on fire was a government crop report showing a wheat yield under domestic requirements by more than 100,000,000 bushels and the smallest in 40 years, as well as a corn crop smaller than any harvested in 30 years.

Every wheat future went far over the dollar mark and for the first time rye also passed the dollar a bushel, scoring more than 10 cents a bushel on top of an 8-cent gain yesterday.

Rye prices were especially stimulated by the fact that the government forecast pointed to a rye yield substantially below domestic requirements. There also was increasing belief among traders that use of rye would be enlarged as a result of new taxes on wheat.

All the markets closed flurried, rye 8 1/2 cents above yesterday's finish, wheat 3 1/2-4 1/2 up, corn 2 1/2-3 1/2 advanced, oats at 1/2-1 1/2 gain, and provisions showing a rise of 17 to 40 cents.

x—New 1933 high.

NEW YORK, July 11.—(AP)—Stimulation from the alcoholic group steadied the stock market today, but pivotal issues, as a whole, were unable to work up any great amount of enthusiasm. Soaring grains and dollar gyrations also apparently exerted little influence. The close was irregular. Approximately 5,000,000 shares changed hands.

Oregon Celery Is Wanted In Chicago

PORTLAND, July 11.—(AP)—Reports that Chicago is taking carload offerings of Oregon celery and is asking for more, were confirmed in the trade here today. It was said to be the first time in history that the Illinois metropolis has entered the Oregon market at this period of the year.

OVERTIME PARKERS TO DRAW CITATIONS

City Traffic Officer Tom Robinson was today tagging cars in the business district which had been parked over one hour, and Chief of Police McCredie announced that a vigorous campaign to enforce the ordinance allowing only one hour parking in the business district has started. Due to the increased travel and the more congested business district, cars will be marked regularly.

CHEESE ADVANCES AS PRODUCTION IS FORCED TO SLOW

PORTLAND, July 11.—(AP)—The advance of 1/2c in the price on cheese during the late session of the produce exchange, reflected two conditions quite distinctly, the passing of the flush production period and the increasing demand for supplies. Oregon triplets were boosted to 12 1/2c lb. on the exchange during the session with the customary premium of 1c for loaf.

Late reports suggested not only a decreasing output of cheese through this territory but a similar condition at other points throughout the country.

Market for butter showed a firm tone in the open trade and late quotations on the produce exchange have been maintained generally. Make continued to decrease but was holding up better than seasonally normal.

PRISONER AT BAR LEAPS TO DEATH

CHICAGO, July 11.—(AP)—Drawing himself up to a courtroom window from his wheel chair, William Henry, 20, an ex-convict charged with larceny, jumped four stories to death from the criminal court room of Chief Justice John Frystalski today. He had been injured when the car he stole crashed during pursuit.

Judge Frystalski had sentenced him to Pontiac reformatory in 1932, and today he was to face the jurist for another automobile theft.

Several women in the rear of the crowded courtroom saw Henry pull himself up with great effort. They screamed and court attaches rushed to the window just as Henry slid across the sill and dropped to the concrete pavement below.

FIRST APPLES SEEN IN PORTLAND MART

PORTLAND, Ore., July 11.—(AP)—First home grown apples of the new crop were offered on the East Side Farmers' market today. Two growers brought in supplies.

To Remodel Residence—A building permit was issued by the city to M. E. Halper for remodeling his residence at 327 Cottage street, at an approximate cost of $40.

Reach for a Lucky

—for always Luckies Please!

With me... my cigarette is a personal, intimate thing

I suppose, men would call my reason for liking Luckies just a feminine whim. Maybe it is, but it's a whim that I love to indulge... for I am always conscious of the intimate relationship between my cigarette and my lips. And if there's anything I'm sensitive about, it's that feeling of feminine daintiness. Certainly, Luckies Please! I can well understand why men praise Luckies' fine tobacco character and mellow-mildness—but as for me—I value particularly the assurance of purity which "Toasting" brings—for, with me... my cigarette is a personal, intimate thing.
