Soaring ..... Schumann

II
Mazurka in F sharp minor ..... Chopin
Nocturne in F ..... Chopin
Polonaise in C sharp minor ..... Chopin

III
Concerto in F minor ..... Chopin
Larghetto ..... Chopin
Allegro Vivace ..... Chopin

IV
Rhapsody in F sharp minor, Dohnanyi
Cradle ..... Albeniz
Melodie ..... Rachmaninoff
Polonaise ..... McDowell

Miss Evanson will be assisted in the Chopin Concerto by her sister, Helen, who will play the orchestral accompaniment on a second piano.

Writers Adopt Name For Organization Here

At the meeting last night at the Holland hotel of the branch of national league of western writers, the name of the "Southern Oregon Branch of the League of Western Writers" was adopted for the local organization. It was announced that the next meeting will be on August 7, at 2:30 o'clock in the hotel.

All persons interested in the league have been invited to attend, and the charter is being held open until the next meeting in order that those who wish to be charter members, will have an opportunity to become such.

Officers in attendance at the meeting last night were Mrs. G. R. Satchwell, president; Mrs. A. V. Graves, secretary; Miss Dorothy Reynolds, treasurer and Miss Maud Poole, historian.

Mrs. Satchwell appointed V. A. Davis, Mrs. E. E. Gore and Mrs. A. T. Hedges as members of the board of directors.

Miss Tucker Returns Here

Miss Nan Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nion Tucker, of Hillsboro, Cal., returned to Medford on the Oregonian from Portland, where she was the guest for ten days of Miss Kathleen Kamm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kamm, of the northern city. Miss Tucker will join her mother at "Rogue's Roost," summer lodge on the Rogue.

Piches On Trip To San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. Al Piche left Saturday for San Francisco, where they plan to visit for a week.

MANY FROM MEDFORD AT DIAMOND LAKE TO ENJOY 4TH OF JULY

There was an unusually large crowd at Diamond lake on July 4th. Many fishermen had splendid success, while others enjoyed swimming, boating and hiking.

The largest attendance was from Medford, with a close second from Klamath Falls. Many other cities in Oregon, Washington and California were represented. From a distance were people from Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The road is now open via Union creek, also via the Dallas-California highway.

The cottages have been repainted, improvements made in the lodge and George Howard, manager, assures the public that they are better prepared than ever before to render the best service.

Among Medford people at the lake were Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Thayer, Marion Ness, C. W. Wakefield, Hester Whitman, Lee Bishop, E. C. Koppen, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Simpson, Georgia Edwards, H. J. McMahon, R. F. Lueck and party, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Strang, L. E. Clenelung, R. C. Holmes, P. C. Wilder, Wm. Von der Heiden, C. E. Gates, R. J. Simpson, Wm. Murray.

Fern Valley

FERN VALLEY, July 11.—(Spl.)—Those in the community enjoyed the Fourth in various places. Going to Ashland were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Wils, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Boyer, Mrs. Ed Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Lem Hughes, Mrs. Bussey and Allen Bussey, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Messenger and family. Mrs. Dean Booth spent the day with friends picnicking on Anderson creek.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt attended the show in Medford and then spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Clark north of Medford. Nicholas DeWitt went to Grants Pass.

Henry and Elmer Kantor, Warner and Elmer Barnes and Clarence Childers went to Jackson Hot Springs for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowden and family and Dallas Reeder spent the Fourth at Lake of the Woods.

Miss Valeria Whitney and Miss Anne Kantor were on the Skikyoys for the day.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Banto join in wishing them life-long happiness. They were married the evening of July 8. She was Marguerite Cunningham.

Mr. DeWitt sent a large shipment of cherries to San Francisco last week. Harry Luy of Medford assisted with the packing. They will be handled by the Bear Fruit company there.

Miss Ellen Burnett has written she is enjoying a visit with her sister at Orland, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Welbourne were Medford shoppers Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Hughes and T. R. Hughes drove to Sams Valley Sunday to visit E. P. Hughes and Mrs. M. F. Hughes.

Guards Production

Victor Christgau, former representative from Minnesota, has been named director of the production division of the agricultural adjustment administration. His job will be to see that farmers raise less so as to get more money for their produce. (Associated Press Photo)

Henry Kantor has started taking music lessons of Miss Valeria Whitney.

Mrs. Evelyn Messenger was the guest of her brother and his family, Ezra Messenger, Sunday.

When friends met to charivari Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kantor they made it double as Mr. and Mrs. George Connor, who were married recently, came as guests. The surprise to these young people came July 9. They were

Eagle Pt. Grange

Eagle Point Grange met July 6 with a small attendance.

Legislative committee reports plans to have a speaker present at the next meeting to explain the measures as printed in voters' pamphlet.

A committee was appointed to prepare more plans on the building of a new hall, consisting of five members. The H. E. C. reports that July 14 will be clean-up day at the grange hall. All women wishing to help are invited.

Lecture hour was in keeping with the holiday, consisting of patriotic songs and short history sketches of "Yankee Doodle," "America," and "America the Beautiful."

A reading "The Declaration of Independence of Women" by Gertrude Haak was followed by a short skit about the absent-minded professor in a department store—all of which was enjoyable.

Lecturer announced that it is expected that Phoenix Grange will have charge of the program at the next meeting, if it can be arranged.

H. E. club met at Mrs. Amy Brown's June 28 with 21 ladies present. An interesting business session was held, at which a committee was appointed to plan a candy social.

Special program consisted of a miscellaneous shower for a member. Hostess served a refreshing lunch.

PLAID IS POPULAR THIS SUMMER

Plaid is in style and you needn't be Scottish to wear it. Here, left, is Dorothea Wiecek, Hollywood player late from Germany, in a dinner gown of navy blue and white taffeta. Helen Twelvrees, right, goes to the beach in a plaid, puff-sleeve jacket. Her slacks are white linen and her sun hat's leathers with a chin band of plaid.
