

JACKIE RECOVERS FROM OPERATION

Jackie Cooper's room in a Hollywood hospital was filled with toys of all descriptions while the youthful film player recovered from an appendicitis operation. Here Jackie is inspecting a toy boat. (Associated Press Photo)

LEADING AVIATORS PARADE SPEED BEFORE CROWDS

Some of the 45,000 persons (lower left) who filled the stands at Los Angeles municipal airport during the 1933 national air races. Upper left: Col. Roscoe Turner, Hollywood, Cal., flier and winner of the transcontinental race in which he made a new east-west speed record of 11 and a half hours, with Jimmie Wedell, New Orleans, runner-up and victor in early speed races. At the right, Maj. Ernest Udet (left), Germany's greatest living war ace, is receiving a memento from Col. Roscoe Turner. The token came from Col. Charles Kerwood of New York, who flew for the British during the world war. (Associated Press Photos)

WON'T DISCUSS PENDING DIVORCE

Elliott Roosevelt, 22-year-old son of the President, changed the subject when asked about his pending divorce from Mrs. Elizabeth Roosevelt, on a visit to San Francisco from Elk Point, Nev., where he has established residence at the home of his attorney, Samuel Platt (right). (Associated Press Photo)

New Kiwanis Chief

Joshua L. Johns, lawyer of Alameda, Wis., was elected president of Kiwanis International at the Los Angeles convention of the organization. (Associated Press Photo)

'PRESIDENTIAL SALUTE' ON CRUISER

Capt. J. M. Smeath of the new U. S. S. Indianapolis gave President Roosevelt a smiling salute as the executive boarded the speedy cruiser off Eastport, Me., for a fast return to Annapolis from his vacation jaunt. (Associated Press Photo)

MOTHER OF CALIFORNIA'S LARGEST FAMILY DIES

Born in the mining town of Nevada City, Cal., 44 years ago and leaving it only twice, Mrs. Jennie Kistler, mother of 20, died suddenly in Fairfax, Cal. Mrs. Kistler is shown here with her husband and 18 of her children. All of the children are living and are from two and a half months to 27 years old. (Associated Press Photo)

TURNER SETS NEW RECORD IN EAST-WEST PLANE DASH

Col. Roscoe Turner is shown happily greeting congratulators upon his arrival in Los Angeles after setting a new east-to-west air record of 11 hours, 30 minutes in winning the transcontinental dash of the national air races. Left to right: Jean Harlow, film star; Tom Hynson of Pasadena, Calif., the flier's backer; Mrs. Turner and Vincent Bendix, trophy donor. (Associated Press Photo)

SHIP LOADED FOR LINDBERGH EXPEDITION

An airplane was included in the cargo of the steamship Jelling, which will be the base for Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh on their expedition to Greenland. It is shown being taken aboard at Philadelphia just before the ship cleared for Greenland. The Lindberghs will use their own plane on the expedition which is for the purpose of surveying a possible northern air route to Europe. (Associated Press Photo)

DEMPSEY SEES CARNERA TRIUMPH

Jack Dempsey, who was something of a heavyweight champion in his own hey-day, was a ringside spectator when Primo Carnera won the title from Jack Sharkey. Shown with Dempsey is Hannah Williams, who has accompanied the ex-champ to several affairs recently. (Associated Press Photo)

Arrives At Races

Amelia Earhart, trans-Atlantic woman flier, as she arrived in Los Angeles to attend the national air races after a cross-country flight. She failed to place in the transcontinental dash. (Associated Press Photo)

GEHRIG ADMITS HIS ENGAGEMENT

Lou Gehrig, home run-hitting first baseman of the New York Yankees, finally ended a long non-committal silence by admitting his engagement to Miss Eleanor Twitchell of Chicago. (Associated Press Photo)

'A COTTAGE FOR SALE' BY MARY

A contemplated separation, possibly divorce, of Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks, famous film couple, was disclosed when "America's sweetheart" herself announced that Pickfair, their palatial Hollywood home, is for sale. (Associated Press Photo)

Ickes Hard At Work

When other government employees went home on one of the hottest Saturday afternoons of the year Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior, shed coat and tie to dive into work on industrial recovery, public works projects and routine problems. (Associated Press Photo)

Faces Murder Charge

Howard Allgood (above), chief of police in Okaloosa, la., pleads not guilty when arraigned on second degree murder charges growing out of the fatal wounding of a youth in a liquor raid. Allgood's hearing was set for July 7. (Associated Press Photo)

Collegiate Champ

Walter Emery of the University of Oklahoma won the national collegiate golf title at Williamsville, N. Y., defeating Rodney Bliss, Nebraska state champion from Cornell university, 2 and 1. (Associated Press Photo)

June Graduates

June Visek, a "veteran" of two years in the films despite her youth, displays her diploma received upon graduation from high school in Beverly Hills, Cal. (Associated Press Photo)

BRITISH STATESMEN IN A HUDDLE

It was no laughing matter when these statesmen of the British empire discussed world problems at the London conference. Left to right: Premier Bennett of Canada, Neville Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer, and Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald. (Associated Press Photo)