

BALLOT BOXES SENT OUT FOR FRIDAY'S VOTE

Distribution of ballots and ballot boxes, to the 88 precincts of the county for the special election Friday, were underway today by the sheriff and clerk's offices, and all will be delivered by midnight Thursday.

New and repaired election equipment has been provided for the 32 precincts of the city, which had their ballot containers stolen on the night of February 20 last, and the contents destroyed, ostensibly to prevent a recount for the office of sheriff scheduled for the following day. Forty-six precincts had ballots missing in the check-up after the vote stealing and burning. Tops of 18 pouches were found hidden beneath the court house, and four recovered from Rogie river. They are exhibits in the ballot-theft cases and will be introduced in the Klamath county trial, starting next week.

What local interest is manifested in the special election centers in the Sales Tax and Prohibition Repeal measures. Rural areas are reported interested in the sales tax; the cities and towns in the repeal act.

Last minute changes in polling places have been made—three in Ashland, and one in this city. All other polling places are the same as in the November election.

ASSOCIATED PUTS NEW FLYING A IN COAST CARS TODAY

P. E. Allen.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—Associated Oil company today inaugurates in approximately 150 western newspapers one of the most important advertising campaigns in its history, heralding the introduction throughout the Pacific coast region of a new Flying A gasoline. Newspapers have again been chosen by Associated to carry the backbone of the new and extensive campaign, according to P. E. Allen, domestic sales manager for the company.

"Associated Oil company, with experience gained from the use of many advertising media, continues to consider the daily newspaper the major factor in efficiently carrying its sales message to the public," he stated.

"Faith in western business conditions, together with confidence in the outstanding merit of the new Flying A gasoline are the factors which have brought about the major advertising investment we are making," he continued.

"We are convinced that in the new Flying A gasoline which makes its public appearance at all Associated service stations and garages today we are offering a motor fuel embodying one of the greatest forward steps ever to be made in producing a non-premium gasoline."

"The marked improvement in Pacific coast business conditions during the past few months leads us to believe that the manufacturer with a quality product is now in a position to reap maximum results from his dollar invested in advertising."

HANSCOM SLATED FOR PRISON TRIP IN CURRENT WEEK

Earl Hanscom, Eagle Point farmer, sentenced to life imprisonment yesterday, upon his plea of guilty, for the murder of Albert J. Tingleaf, friend and neighbor, as the climax to a trivial quarrel outside an Eagle Point dance hall, about midnight on Saturday, July 8, will be taken to the state penitentiary, within the week, by Sheriff Olmscheid. Tingleaf died the following day from the effects of a terrific beating at the hands of Hanscom.

Hanscom, who wept bitterly in court yesterday when he entered a plea of guilty, was more reconciled today, in his cell, but still deeply remorseful. He expressed regret, and sympathy for the family of his victim in open court, before the mandatory sentence of life imprisonment was imposed by Judge Skipworth.

Hanscom was allowed to plead guilty to second degree murder, because of the lack of premeditation in the killing, it occurring following a violent outburst of temper. The two men were friends.

The case of Fred Wolf, charged with murder, as the climax of a rural love triangle, last May, in which William Sheldon was slain, is still pending in the local courts. He is represented by Attorney Frank DeSouza. Wolf awaits grand jury action and Attorney DeSouza said no guilty plea would be entered.

Hanscom, when he reaches the penitentiary, will join a large colony of Jackson county inmates serving for felonies ranging from theft to capital offenses. Among the "lifers" from this county are the DeAutremont brothers, confessed Siskiyou tunnel bandits and slayers, now on their seventh year of imprisonment; Pat Donohue, sentenced as a habitual criminal, for attempting to force a local junk dealer by torture to reveal the hiding place of his mythical wealth; Albert W. Reed, Denver, Colo., youth, found guilty of slaying Victor Knott, Ashland special policeman, in November, 1931; Paul McCuade and Lee Jackson, pals of Reed, in crime, have never been captured.

ARREST SUSPECT IN LUER KIDNAP

ST. LOUIS, July 19.—(AP)—Department of justice agents today arrested Frank Douglas, 41, a second suspect, as they pressed investigation of the kidnaping and later release of August Luer, 77 year-old Alton, Ill., banker.

Douglas is said by police to have a record as a pickpocket and to be a pal of Percy Michael Fitzgerald, also held and charged with using the mails to extort money. Douglas' arrest followed the identification by Luer's wife of Fitzgerald as one of the two men and a woman who seized her husband.

SWEDE ANDERSON FACES TOUGH FOE IN SCRAPPY PETE

When Swede Anderson, Medford's heavyweight hope, and Pete Belcastro, scrappy heavy of Sacramento, tangle arms and legs at the armory tomorrow night in their grudge match, action will be the key-word and range the motive. These two giants have no love for each other, that anyone has ever been able to discover, and Belcastro figures he has a lot of getting even to do.

Anderson nearly won their last bout by butting Belcastro into a jelly for the second fall, but Belcastro came back to take the last one and the match. Anderson's rise to wrestling fame has been swift and rough, and he promises to be good when he gets more experience. Strength is Anderson's long suit now, with his ability to set himself and break holds being almost uncanny.

Bob Kruse, the bad boy from Oswego, will meet a new wrestler, George Nelson, heavyweight wrestling coach of the Utah Aggies. Nelson is an old friend and acquaintance of Victor Tengwald of this city, who is a graduate of Utah Agricultural college, and although Tengwald was never much of a wrestler still he is expected to be at the ringside to see his old friend perform.

Wrestling fans here know Kruse, who is steadily improving and is fast becoming an outstanding heavy. The bout will start at nine o'clock, as in the past.

JOE'S HITTING SPREE CONTINUES UNBROKEN

By The Associated Press

Sacramento was a game closer to the 1933 coast league crown today after beating the Seals last night and dropping the first round of its seven-game duel with Joe De Maggio, the clouting San Franciscan.

Beryle Horne, making his first start in a Sacramento uniform, stopped San Francisco easily, 8-4, but not Joe De Maggio. The Seal outfielder sent three singles sizzling through and over the Sacramento shortstop to run his consecutive game hitting record to 54.

LA GRANDE PASTOR CHOSEN MODERATOR

ALBANY Ore., July 19.—(AP)—The Rev. J. George Wain of La Grande was elected moderator of the Presbyterian synod of Oregon at the business session here Tuesday, succeeding Dr. Wallace Howe Lee of Albany. The synod will conclude tonight.

The new moderator appointed the Rev. J. Stanley Jewell of Merrill, Klamath county, as vice-moderator. The Rev. J. Y. Stewart of Albany was named permanent clerk.

STRIKING NEWSBOYS STAGE WILD SCENES

PITTSBURGH, July 19.—(AP)—Streets were littered today with papers torn up by striking newsboys as police guarded the plants of all three Pittsburg newspapers and held 10 persons.

Newsboys selling on the streets were protesting an increase in the price charged them for papers from 22 to 23 2/3 a hundred.

LONGWORTH WINS WASHINGTON OPEN, BRIDE GETS HAT

WASHINGTON state open golf tournament Monday and yesterday.

The tall Texan, who was married to Miss Buente Routree of Joplin, Mo. in Spokane Saturday night, won the state open title and a cash prize of $175 with a sterling game that beat off the efforts of Scotty Campbell and Walter Pursey, Seattle, and Gordon Richards, Tacoma.

Longworth put together four sparkling cards for a 72-hole total of 283, five under par. He scored 66 and 71 Monday and 74 and 72 yesterday and led the field by four strokes at the close.

Bunched together in second place were Campbell, winner of the Canadian and Pacific northwest amateur titles recently, and Pursey and Richards, with 287 each.

Bill Miller, Spokane, followed with 289, and Bert Wilde, Bellingham, was

KILLIFER RESIGNS AS MANAGER OF BROWNS

ST. LOUIS, July 19.—(AP)—Bill Killifer, manager of the St. Louis Browns today telegraphed his resignation from Washington. President Phil Ball announced Al Sothoron, who has been coach, would act as manager temporarily.

President Ball, who is in a hospital, said he would take steps to obtain a new manager when he is released in a few days.

KETCHELL EASY FOR NEGRO BOY

LOS ANGELES, July 19.—(AP)—Something less than two thousand persons were inclined to believe today that the monicker of "assassin" hitched to the name of Wesley Ketchell, Portland southpaw, is misplaced.

Gorilla Jones, the N. B. A. world's middleweight champion, whose title has been put in escrow by that body, convinced the small crowd at the Olympic last night that Ketchell, after all, is a rather passive young man. The Toledo negro won a 10-round decision from Ketchell after flooring
