

FIGHTING FARMER ENTERS TOURNEY WITH HIGH HOPES

Giant From Salem Area Hopes to Follow in Dempsey's Footsteps — News Reels May 'Shoot' Bout

Jack Dempsey is to fight in Medford.

No, folks, he is not the former great Manassa Mauler, who deposed Jess Willard to gain possession of the world's heavyweight crown in Toledo years ago, but instead he is a young farm giant from near Salem, who, for family reasons, wants to do his fighting in the American Legion's great relief fund benefit championship amateur boxing tournament here nights of August 14, 15 and 16 under the name of the ex-world's titleholder.

"I haven't been married long and if my wife found out I have ambitions to be a fighter, I would have a harder battle at home than in the Medford Armory arena. Dempsey is my favorite fighter, so just call me Young Jack and let it go at that," read a part of the letter of enrollment from the man-giant. He stands six feet and three inches in height and tips the Fairbanks at 210 pounds.

Young Dempsey, who aspires to restore the world's championship to the American shores some day, claims all of his fighting has been around dance halls and street brawls. "About the best fighting I have done was when I cleaned out a dance hall single-handed," commented Dempsey.

Big Jack Anderson, one of Medford's hard-hitting behemoths, is anxious to tackle Dempsey on the first night of the big fight.

"Let me see Dempsey on the opening night of the tourney and I'll knock him as cold as an Eskimo Pie," Anderson growled today. And he meant every word of it, too.

May Make Movies. A newswall company has asked permission to make movies of the sensational parts of the different fights and of the crowd on the first night of the big fight.

Displaying determination, ability, and ruggedness, the Medford amateurs are training hard each night from 7:30 to 9 at the open-air training camp near the Main street bridge.

Another big turnout of fight followers is forecast for tonight when the local huskies resume training at the open-air camp at 7 o'clock. The workouts are free to the public. Les Showers and Dick Russell, trainers, are high in their praise for the fighting ability of the Medford ringmen. "They'll win their share of the titles," they declared today. The first fight is to start at promptly 8:15 and the last struggle will not later than 10:30 on each night of the mighty ring classic, Aug. 14, 15 and 16. Despite bigness of the event, most popular prices will prevail for the wild and exciting fights.

Ashland Enters. With Dick Hall and Phil Stanbury in charge, a strong team of amateur fighters will swoop into town from Ashland to compete for the handsome trophies in the Legion's big ring event. Here are a few of the outstanding Ashland huskies eager for action: Keller Mabbott, Paul Aikens, Hodsey Van Brunt and Fred Reed.

BARBERS AGREE ON PRICE, HOURS

Haircuts in Medford go up to 50c August 5. Wages of barbers' employees will also go up and barber shops will be open from 10:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. each day, including Saturday.

These were the announcements following last night's meeting of the Master Barbers, called to effect compliance with the president's emergency re-employment agreement. The hours open went into effect today.

In announcing the raise in price to be adopted August 7, the barbers stated that Medford is the only town in the state, which does not have a 50c haircut today.

Eight cities have been added to California's police automatic typewriter system, bringing the total to 26.

BABE'S BIG BAT HELPS YANKEES CUT SOLON LEAD

By HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The Washington Senators and New York Yankees have wound up their crucial four-game series with honors even and the Senators clinging desperately to a shrinking lead.

Beaten back in their first two attempts to storm the Senators' ramparts, the Yankees made it two in a row over the leaders yesterday as babe Ruth led an 18-hit assault that gave Joe McCarthy's world champions a 19-9 victory and cut the Senators' lead to one game, just what it had been before the series opened last Thursday.

Walter Stewart, Senator southpaw, who had stopped the Yankees cold in the first game of the series, was hit hard from the start and finally retired in considerable disorder in the midst of a seven-run rally in the fourth inning.

Bob Burke came in with the bases fully populated and Ruth immediately bounced a smashing triple off the center field wall. The Babe, who also collected two doubles and a single during the afternoon, later scored the seventh run of the inning on a fielder's choice.

In the only other major league game of the day, the St. Louis Browns made Manager Rogers Hornsby's home debut a success as they beat the Cleveland Indians, 12-8 in a wild game that developed into a marathon contest in the seventh inning.

ASHLAND PHENOM WILL GET TRYOUT ON SEALS' MOUND

Cliff (Chief) McLean, Indian Hurler, Impresses Court Hall in Sunday's Game — Is All-Around Ball Player

Cliff "Chief" McLean, dark-skinned Indian hurler of the Ashland club of the Southern Oregon league, will get a tryout with the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast league when the Seals make their next northern trip on August 21 for a series with Portland.

In a conversation with Court Hall, president of the Southern Oregon circuit, following the Ashland-Medford game at the fairgrounds last Sunday, Hall stated that he would make the necessary arrangements with the owners of the bay team. The Seals will pick McLean up on their way north and take him with them.

Hall Got Davis Started. It will be remembered that Court Hall was the man that arranged for Curt Davis of the Ashland Sox team in 1928, to get a tryout with the Seals. Davis made good almost from the start and now is one of the most effective pitchers in the Coast league. He is almost certain to be sold to a major league at the end of this year.

McLean Great Player. Consensus of expert opinion is that McLean is one of the best-looking prospects ever to play ball in the southern part of the state. He is a terrific natural hitter and can play any position on the team, although his regular position has been behind the bat. Ashland used him on the mound because they were weak at that spot. At present, McLean is hitting at a .588 clip in six games. He has blasted two homers, four triples and six doubles for a portion of his 17 hits in 29 trips to the plate. He has scored 13 runs.

McLean Fullblooded Indian. McLean is a fullblooded Puget Indian and is only 21 years of age. He stands about five feet 11 and weighs in the neighborhood of 175 pounds. He is a former student of Benson high in Portland, where he was an all-around athlete, making the all-state basketball team two years running. Last fall he attended Kormal and played on Howard Hobson's football team. He also was the main cog on the basketball team of that school.

First to Have Trout from League. McLean is the first Southern Oregon league player to get a tryout with a Coast league team this year. Before joining the Ashland team, McLean played with the Shappa team of Portland in the State league. His home is in Portland.

McLean's regular position has been behind the bat. Ashland used him on the mound because they were weak at that spot. At present, McLean is hitting at a .588 clip in six games. He has blasted two homers, four triples and six doubles for a portion of his 17 hits in 29 trips to the plate. He has scored 13 runs.

ROSENBLUM LOSES TO NEGRO PUNCHERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—(AP)—John Henry Lewis, up-and-coming negro fighter from Phoenix, Ariz., knocked two victories over Maxie Rosenbloom, world's light heavyweight champion, but the title remained with the New Yorker.

Lewis gained his second ten-round non-title decision in three weeks over Rosenbloom last night as he rocked the titleholder with blows that tumbled him over a couple of times. The win made it two out of three for the negro who lost on points to Rosenbloom in their first encounter here some months ago.

LINDBERGH'S RETURN TO WEST GREENLAND

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, who are engaged in an aerial survey of northern areas, have returned to Holstenborg, on the west coast of Greenland, after a flight northwest to Ritsenbek, Greenland, a dispatch from Holstenborg said today.

BODY OF 3-C YOUTH LOCATED IN STREAM

SALEM, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The body of Howard M. Herron, 23-year-old CCC camp worker from Gates, was discovered Sunday in the Santiam river three miles below the place where he and John Hess, 20, drowned when their boat capsized June 5. Coroner L. E. Barrick reported today that relatives of the youth had identified the body.

Fishing Lines

Hints for Those Who Angle in Southern Oregon Waters

Fisherman's paradise — for those who enjoy a large catch without much effort—has been discovered at Hyatt lake in the three mountain country, about 25 miles from Medford. The lake is full of black bass, crappies and sunfish, and a small spinner or a fishworm will bring one in almost every time, it was reported by those who fish there.

The limit for bass is 30 a day, or 60 in a week. A cool, sloping bank, with trees nearby, makes an ideal place to picnic and spend the day fishing.

Many local anglers spent Sunday and Monday there, and numerous limit catches were brought back. Val J. Fischer and Roy Laws were at the lake yesterday, and both got the limit of bass and crappies.

Charles Fruit and the Wall children were at Hyatt lake Monday, with Fruit and John Wall, 14, getting the limit. The little girls in the party also caught a number of fish. Alice, 12, got 20; Janet, who is 10, brought home 10 fish, and Mary, aged 9, caught two.

D. W. Carter fished the lake yesterday, getting his limit.

Another party there for Sunday and Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Holbrook of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Herndon and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Herndon of Ashland. Mr. Holbrook reported that they got the limit both days, and caught bass, crappies and sunfish. He said there were about 25 or 30 fishermen at the lake Sunday, and a few groups yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest N. Biden, among the city's most ardent wielders of the pole, spent Thursday and Friday fishing the Rogue, near McLeod, and caught a large number of trout.

In their leisure hours, a number of the CCC boys stationed in the Crater Lake national park and at Camp Agnes have been doing some fishing, according to reports at the headquarters.

Coming as a complete surprise both to herself and the fish, Mrs. Eva Nealon Hamilton was successful in landing her first trout of the season last evening while fishing Rogue river near the Elks picnic ground, it was reported today.

Dr. S. Ralph Dippel brought home a large steelhead and a jack salmon this week-end, having fished the Rogue near McLeod.

Fishing in the Trail vicinity, Clarence Eads and Sid Newton got two steelheads Sunday.

Trying to avoid publicity, "because no one would believe me, even if I do have proof," Harry Hansen, prominent local fisherman, yesterday related hooking one of the biggest jack salmon of the season, while fishing in the McLeod area on Sunday. Harry said the fish reached from his hips to the ground, the tail flapping around his feet when he'd walk.

Intelligent program, will be emphasized. While stores in Medford today were operating under the 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. open hours, adopted at Saturday's meeting, the Chamber of Commerce was awaiting additional information from Washington, which will probably change the agreement for food stores, at least. Announcement of Administrator Hugh S. Johnson, reported through the press today, allows the food stores to work employees 48 instead of 40 hours a week.

The 52 hours a week minimum time to remain open will be enforced for all stores, except those remaining open for a shorter period of time before announcement of the NRA program. Under the present set-up in Medford, agreed upon last week, stores will remain open 54 hours a week and neighborhood stores 60 hours.

Attend Meeting. Yesterday's organization meeting at the chamber of commerce was attended by I. D. Canfield, representing Veterans of Foreign Wars; Mrs. Canfield, the Veterans' auxiliary and various women's club groups; Fred Scheffel, city attorney; Darrel Huson, Active club; Robt. W. Ruhl, Mail Tribune; Lee Tuttle, Daily News; H.

T. Hubbard, Lions club; Roland Hubbard, retail merchant; George Kesselman, Rotary; Mrs. Edwina Weishaar women's clubs; E. M. White, Realty Board; J. R. Tomlin, lumbermen; Rev. Geo. P. Kabele, ministerial association; Cole Holmes, American Legion; Mrs. Arthur Short, women's clubs; Mrs. H. Ramin, women's organizations; Ted GeBauer, Kiwanis; Capt. Shelby Tuttle, Traffic association; Mrs. T. W. Miles, women's clubs; Dr. G. B. Dean, Fruitgrowers' league; Mrs. J. J. Semon, Rotary; Mrs. A. E. Reames, women's clubs, and B. E. Harder, clearing house association.
