EIGHT MONTH JOB FOR 75 MEN ON SEWER PROJECT

Seventy-five men will be employed for a period of eight months on the construction and installation, if Medford's application for federal funds for sewage plant construction is approved, City Superintendent Fred Scheffel announced today.

A total of 90,000 working hours will be required for the project. The exact type of treatment plant to be installed has not been decided upon. It will be determined after word is received from Washington. Medford is anticipating approval of the local application as the need is great and the project in keeping with those advocated under the public works recovery program.

Senator James T. Chinnock of Grants Pass was here today to view copies of Medford's application to be used in preparation of a similar application for the climatic city, which is also asking funds for sewage plant construction.

If Medford's application is approved by the federal board, Mr. Scheffel stated, the city will be in a position to start work on the project two weeks after the application is granted.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—(AP)—The stock market today just about duplicated its performance of yesterday. After loafing along sleepily throughout most of an extremely dull session, mining and alcohol equities led a fairly brisk rally in the last hour and other groups joined in the upward flurry. Many grains ranged from 1 to 3 or more points. The close was firm. Transfers approximated 1,600,000 shares.

SILVER SCREEN REVIEW

By Mary Greiner Kelly.

If, every so often, you like to sit back quietly and look life in the face, just sink into a seat at the Rialto tonight or tomorrow and view it through the eyes of the old maestro, Lionel Barrymore, whose latest picture, "Sweepings" is a memorable portrait.

There isn't much plot to this play but you won't miss it—that is, unless you're just one of those people whose own life is necessarily hinged upon a succession of seething complications.

But there is so much of every successful merchant and business man in the characterization of Lionel Barrymore, that it would be hard for his counterparts in the audience to give this actor credit for his vivid creation.

Finely drawn also the the roles of his children in the piece, who typify the inevitable result of too much wealth and too little charcter building. William Gargon perhaps does the best job of being a good-for-nothing son. Helen Mack, as the wronged shop girl who hits suddenly on blackmail as suitable retaliation also does a vivid bit of acting.

And to supplement "Sweepings" which has several smiles but no laughs, is a come-back comedy of the late inimitable Fatty Arbuckle.

1933 Gold Diggers To Show Extra Nite

"Gold Diggers of 1933," dramatic musical screen special and the most lavishly produced motion picture of the decade, will be held over Thursday by popular demand.

Hailed as a fitting climax to a season of exceptional entertainment values started by the presentation of the enormously popular "42nd Street," a few months ago, "Gold Diggers of 1933" has been acclaimed by critics and by first audiences as the most spectacular and vital entertainment ever originated in Hollywood.

Eight players of stellar rank, headed by Warren William, Joan Blondell and Ruby Keeler, take important parts in this production. Others include Dick Powell, Aline MacMahon, Guy Kibbee, Ginger Rogers and Ned Sparks. A new Busby Berkeley chorus of 200 beautiful girls, achieves startling importance in the present picture in the most gorgeously staged ensembles ever conceived for stage or screen entertainment.

'IF I HAD A MILLION' OPENS AT ROXY TODAY

The fifteen-star drama, "If I Had a Million," opened at the Roxy this afternoon.

Comedy, tragedy, irony, romance are combined in the story, which centers around Bennett, an eccentric millionaire who distributes his fortune among nine unknown persons.

DOOMED TO DEATH FOR KIDNAPING

A smash at the kidnaping epidemic was delivered by a Kansas City jury which convicted Walter McGee, confessed leader in the $30,000 ransom kidnaping of Mary McElroy, and imposed the extreme penalty. Officials hailed the verdict as one that would put a check on abductions. McGee, apparently unmoved by the verdict, is shown as he was returned to his cell. (Associated Press Photo)

WURTS HOME WITH OPTIMISTIC VIEW

Enthusiastic over the improvement of business conditions noted in Washington and other Oregon cities, Jack Wurts, proprietor of Wurts Gift Shop returned to Medford last evening from a five day buying trip in the north.

Mr. Wurts spent two days in Seattle where the Gift and Art Show was being held, in the Olympic hotel and where he purchased a great deal of new merchandise for his store.

Prices are rapidly rising, he said, and stores, especially in Portland are enthusiastically taking up the NRA campaign.
