VAN HOEVENBERG NOT A CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY JUDGE

Although there was considerable support for H. Van Hoveenberg of Sama Valley, for the position of county judge, and this fact was correctly reported in the Sunday Mail Tribune, friends of the prominent orchardist, who contacted him today, were informed by Mr. Van Hoveenberg that he is not and has not been a candidate for the position.

To a representative of the Mail Tribune, Mr. Van Hoveenberg said: "I am not now and never have been a candidate for the position—either actively or passively. I am very appreciative of the action of some of my friends, suggesting my name for the appointment, but have always replied that it would be impossible to take the necessary time, from my own business."

"Several good men are in line for the place. Whichever one is appointed should receive the whole-hearted support of the community in restoring Jackson county to her old enviable position, as one of the finest and cleanest communities on the coast."

"The efforts of the citizenship of the county—centering in the committee of 100—to clean up the turmoil of the past year and support just and orderly methods of government have been ably supported by the state authorities. I feel very confident that Governor Meier understands the true inwardness of our situation, and that in appointing a new county judge, he will be influenced solely by the desire to best serve the interests of the county."

WAR DECLARED ON DRONES, CHISELERS IN NRA PROGRAM

Johnson made public the code for the cost and suit industry—a particularly noteworthy event," he called it—which wipes out the "sweat shop" eliminates the cut-throat competition that has dragged the industry down, abolished "home" work, eradicates unsanitary and unsafe working conditions, sets high wages and short hours, and provides for resumption of the industry's unemployment insurance plan as soon as conditions permit.

Johnson tempered his stern lecture to industry in an address today by predicting: "We will be out of the depths of this depression by winter if only each community will seize the chance that the president has given it."

"We shall either succeed or fail in three months' time."

With the sharp staccato of rifle fire he read his marching orders: "This is no time to hoard. It is not time to save money. It is time to get things. Buy the things you need. Spend for re-employment. If you don't spend now and get something, you will spend later for taxes and doles and get nothing. "You should spend under the blue eagle. If you spend elsewhere you are hurting the chance to end unemployment because you are helping to destroy the business of men who are paying more for help, you are aiding those who refused to do so."

May Redraft Code. Whiteside, in his sharp telegram to the Indiana Retail Grocers' association, said the recovery administration would re-draft provisions of the grocers' temporary code and possibly withdraw the blue eagle if there is any "community or concerted action" to shorten the operating hours of stores below 63 hours a week.

Retail Grocers. Whiteside said that in several local communities retailers are making joint agreements to shorten hours.

48 Hours Work Allowed. "They said they did not want their hours shortened because of possible loss of business. On this representation, grocers were given special consideration and allowed 48 hours work for the employee."

"If the store hours are reduced by agreement to any number below 48 hours the re-employment which is anticipated through the allowance of the 48-hour man work hours each week will not be obtained and the understanding upon which the food and grocery distributors and the retail codes were based will not have been carried out. The proposal is in violation of section eight of the president's re-employment agreement."

Whiteside said that in several local communities retailers are making joint agreements to shorten hours.

●ABOVE—IN RATING THE POPULAR CIGARETTES, Shute says, "Camels are milder, and what is even more important to any golfer, they do not jangle the nerves."

●ABOVE—TWO CONTINENTS CHEERED when slender Densmore Shute, brilliant young American golfer, with wrists of steel and nerves that never wavered, won the British Open—the tenth American champion in ten years!

●RIGHT—"I'M NOT A CHAMPION GOLFER—not even a fair one, according to Mr. Shute's standards! I'm a young married woman, interested in home and children. But I'm inclined to be the nervous type. So I switched to Camels, for the sake of my nerves, and because Camels are definitely a milder cigarette."

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

When it comes to healthy nerves, "DENNY" SHUTE speaks with authority. "I couldn't have won the British Open if my nerves hadn't been in perfect condition," says Shute. "Healthy nerves are essential to any golfer who wants to turn in a good score. The enjoyment of cigarettes has not interfered with my golf game because I have smoked Camels right along. I have tried all the brands and long ago found that Camels are milder, and what is even more important to any golfer, they do not jangle the nerves."

"Denny" Shute offers conclusive evidence that Camels are milder. That they don't interfere with healthy nerves. That smokers like Camels better, the more they smoke them. Consider the fact that Camels are made from costlier tobaccos—and switch to them yourself. You will also discover that Camels are better for steady smoking.

How are Your Nerves?

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. Leaf tobaccos for cigarettes can be bought from 5¢ a pound to $1.00...but Camel pays the millions more that insure your enjoyment.
