Forfeits Bail — E. Beckmann of Medford was taken into Judge Roberts' court Saturday night by a state policeman on a charge of reckless driving. Beckmann, according to the charge, had driven at a dangerously high rate of speed from Phoenix to Ashland. Beckmann was told to report in court Monday morning at 9 o'clock, and put up $25 bail. Upon failing to appear this morning, bail was forfeited. — Ashland Daily Tidings.

JONES AND LA DIEU ARE SENTENCED TO NOT OVER 4 YEARS

thwart the orders of the court and, by the connivance of a few, the will of the majority was defeated. This defendant laughed and joked about how the judge would feel when he discovered the ballots were stolen...

Among Arch Conspirators. — The court feels there should be no discrimination in the sentences given to the main defendants. LaDieu is no different than Judge Fehl. Both were in the affair. They were among the arch-conspirators in the commission of a heinous and outrageous crime that filled all decent people with a sense of horror.

Exams This Week—Announcement has been received from the office of the secretary of state, saying that Walter McReynolds, examiner for operators and chauffeurs, will be in his office in the city hall here Friday and Saturday of this week. On August 11, the office will be open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. and on August 12 from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Picket Goes to Portland—Forrest M. Pickett of the Standard Oil company offices here has been transferred to the Portland office, and left Medford Monday night for the northern city. His position in the local office is being filled by K. C. Owen, brought here from Portland, the exchange having been arranged to place each man in a position where the need for his particular type of work is more fully realized.

Inspect Hatcheries—Henry O'Malley of Baird, Cal., superintendent of federal fish hatcheries of California, which also includes the hatcheries in southern Oregon; Dennis Winn, superintendent of federal hatcheries on the Pacific coast, with headquarters in Seattle, and Matt Rickman, superintendent of Oregon state hatcheries, are spending two or three days in southern Oregon inspecting the hatcheries and egg-taking stations in company with T. E. Daniels and H. L. Nobilit. These officials are well known in Medford, having been connected with state and federal hatcheries for years and have many friends in this part of the state.

CRASH ENDS PLAN FOR OCEAN FLIGHT

HARBOR GRACE, N. F., Aug. 8.—(AP)—The Polish-American filers, Benjamin and Joseph Adamowicz and Emil Birgen, escaped serious injury when their huge monoplane "White Eagle" cracked up in a landing here this afternoon.

The undercarriage of the plane was wrecked. A heavy gust of wind was believed to have caused the plane to upset as it came to a landing at 2:10 p. m. (EST) in what the brothers had described when they left New York this morning as a test flight. Birgen accompanied the brothers as an extra pilot.

The Adamowicz brothers planned to fly eventually to Poland.

URSCHEL RANSOM MONEY TURNS UP

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Part of the ransom money paid kidnapers for the release of Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma City oil millionaire, has been discovered in a Minneapolis bank, federal investigators said today.

Reports as to the number of men held incommunicado in connection with the finding of the money varied from three to five.

Bank officials identified that part of the currency that passed through their hands as part of the Urschel ransom by serial numbers on the bills.

Urschel, 49, oil millionaire, was freed by his kidnapers July 31 upon payment of ransom that never has been specifically named.

ROXY PICTURE IS NEATLY PRODUCED

"Child of Manhattan," a delightful and intriguing screen story, made its appearance at the Roxy theater this afternoon.

Starring Nancy Carroll, it proves to be not only a parcel of fine entertainment but it also contains such attributes as a fine mounting and story twists that reach a new and welcome level in suspense.

Ruth Chatterton in Craterian Hit

There was any doubt it was resolved in favor of the defendants. Mr. Jones had a fair trial.

The court then denied the motion for a new trial, and ordered Jones to stand up for sentence.

Jones is a man of past 60 years, and has been a resident of Jackson county for about 10 years. He operates a small fruit ranch near Rogue River. He first came into public notice last winter, with the assumption of office by Fehl. He was a daily visitor to the courthouse, and sprang into the limelight in the Lamkin-Bursell farce contempt proceedings, by introducing a petition for the resignation of Commissioner R. E. Nealon. He was named road commissioner by Fehl, and afterwards ousted.

A Moving Spirit. — Evidence in the five ballot theft trials revealed that Jones was a moving spirit. The testimony showed that he made preparations for the breaking of the vault window by Burley Sexton, and gave the signal for the window smashing, and R. C. Cummings of Rogue River to race his auto engine, while "Congress" cheered to drown the sound of breaking glass; that he was a roving guard around the courthouse on the robbery night, and that he was in conference with Fehl before and after the robbery.

Evidence in the trial of LaDieu showed that he aided in hauling away six ballot pouches from the courthouse, with Virgil Edington and Wesley McKirtick, that he borrowed Phil Lewis's auto, to cover up his tracks, and that he had arranged for L. A. Banks and wife to provide an alibi for his absence; that the six ballot pouches were taken to the home of Mayor Jones in Rogue River, who provided pitch, and the trio followed Jones' suggestion to burn the ballots at the home of McKirtick's parents.

LaDieu has been a resident of this city for about four years. He formerly lived in Oakland, Cal., and Klamath Falls. He was identified with L. A. Banks in various newspaper capacities here.

KLAMATH READY FOR CONVENTION

Local citizens who have visited Klamath Falls during the past few days report great activity in the neighborhood city in anticipation of the American Legion state convention which opens Thursday, August 10. The streets and business houses are decorated with thousands of Legion emblems in the official colors of blue and gold and present a gay, festive appearance to visitors.

The Klamath convention commission has perfected a big 3-day program of entertainment and promises good time to all who attend their celebration.

Medford Legion and Auxiliary members will start leaving for the convention tomorrow and the local drum corps plans to leave Thursday morning. Many southern Oregon folks who are not affiliated with the Legion will also make the trip this week.

James Cagney in "Picture Snatcher"

James Cagney, the bad boy of the screen, comes to the Studio theater today in "Picture Snatcher," Jimmy, in the title role, is the go-getter picture man who gets photographs of people and news events by hook or crook, regardless of ethics or common decency.

PARASITIZED 'WIGS' ARE LIBERATED IN SISKIYOU HEIGHTS

Mrs. James H. Owen announced this morning that 3,000 parasitized earwigs have been placed in the foliage at her residence, and at homes in the Siskiyou Heights district, where the earwigs have been causing so much damage.

The parasitized bugs, which eradicate the other pests, have been turned loose for a week. Mrs. Owen said today that she did not know how long a period was required to rid the place of the pests.

The earwigs were purchased from the Portland city insectary, with funds donated by persons interested in ridding the city of the bugs.
