Phoenix

PHOENIX, Aug. 8.—(Sp.)—The picnic held Sunday at Lake Creek by the Lake Creek and Phoenix granges proved a great success. Twenty-five members of the Phoenix grange attended with their families, making in all a total of 42 from Phoenix.

Two horseshoe tournaments were held, one for the women and one for the men. The tournament for the women was won by Mrs. Mable Quackenbush of Phoenix, and second place by Mrs. Reed Charley of Lake Creek. Prizes were donated by Holloway's store in Medford. The men's horseshoe tournament for which prizes were given by the Groceries of Medford, was won by Vaughn Quackenbush of Phoenix, L. G. Denner of Phoenix won second.

In a baseball throw, Sybil Carter of Phoenix won, in a cigarette rolling contest, Floyd Daymon of Lake Creek won. In a potato race Herbert Luak of Phoenix won while the fifty yard dash for boys was won by a member of the Lake Creek grange. Prizes were given by the Colonial Bakery.

The City Meat Market of Medford also donated prizes for the races.

The baseball game played in the afternoon by the men of the two granges, was won by a large score by the Lake Creek grange, who won the ball and bat, which was purchased, and a collection was taken to pay for the same.

The picnic was such a success that many voiced the opinion that it should be made a yearly affair.
