Point Eaglets for many years in the Mail Tribune and which attracted so much attention at the time for the unconscious humor which permeated them.

Mrs. Howlett is one of the most level women in all southern Oregon, and justly so, for she lives but to minister to others. Having passed her eighty-fifth milestone, she remains as cheerful as interesting, would almost say, as youthful, as ever. For many years she has been mistress of the Sunnyside hotel, which, is renowned for its fine chicken of dinners, and which attracts guests.
