

Army of Amateur Fighters Marches on Medford for Tournament

OPENING GONG TO SOUND MONDAY IN 3-NIGHT PROGRAM

Boys From Cities, Rural Sections and C. C. C. Camps Gathering to Swap Socks in Legion Benefit Show

The weigh-masters will be on the jump hotels will be filling up, and Medford will begin moving into the amateur boxing spotlight of the nation late tonight as the amateur boxing tournament on the Medford Armory battle front tomorrow night.

From many cities, towns, hamlets and C.C.C. camps in Oregon men are either enroute or ready to begin swooping into town to wage furious warfare in quest of the Jack Dempsey trophy and other awards that go to the winners along with a free trip to the Pacific coast championships pointing to the national meet in Boston or New York City later in the season.

First Gong at 8:15

The first fight is to start promptly at 8:15 tomorrow night and the last warrior will either leave the ring or be escorted from the hempen rostrum not later than 10:30. The fights will be put on in machine-gun like order.

Although powerful heavyweights will be seen rocking each other to sleep in "battles of giants" to feature the card, there also will be wild-eyed fights in all other weight classes, too, tomorrow night.

Les Showers, generally recognized as one of America's out-standing directors of amateur fight events, is in charge of the big ring revival. He is assisted by Dick Russell.

LARGE FANS WILL KEEP ARMORY COOL MONDAY

For the first time in the history of that famed human sports garage, the Armory arena will be kept comfortably cool by powerful electric fans tomorrow night as a record crowd looks on at the most fierce and gruelling ring conflicts in the annals of fascinating pugilism in Medford.

IOWA MAID DOWNS GOLFDOM'S QUEEN

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Lucille Robinson, a comely youngster from Des Moines, Iowa, dealt the national champion, Virginia Van Wie, Chicago, a 6 to 5 lacing today to win the women's western open golf title, a prize that has eluded the Chicago star for nine years.

Miss Robinson had played fine golf throughout the tournament, but was accorded no more than an outside chance of defeating Miss Van Wie, who until today played at the top of her game. Today, however, the champion went about her work with surprising indifference, and was on top only until the 11th hole of the morning round. The young Iowan, erratic and brilliant by turns, was one down at the morning turn, but steadied and defeated her famous opponent with amazing ease.

MIDFORD FIGHTERS WEIGH IN AT 10 A. M. TODAY

Bent upon repelling the attack of the "enemy" Medford's aspiring amateur fighters, all of those who have trained even one night, are to report to the clerk of the scales at the Boy Scout building, near the open-air arena, at 10 o'clock this morning to take their weight and physical tests. Amateurs residing close enough to do so also will report, while those from more distant points are to be weighed and examined in the order they put in appearance tonight.

Identity of the referees and judges continued to be a secret last night when inquiry was made regarding those who are to call fistic balls and strikes on the huskies as they strive manfully to turn back the enemy tomorrow night.

Feminine ring followers as well as the social set of this section will turn out en masse to witness the Medford huskies fight for the glory of their city and state against the outsiders tomorrow night.

Record Seat Sale

In number of tickets sold, the largest sale in the history of sports in Medford was reported last night at Cleo's and Brown's. Seats are to be had at the two places until the box office and doors open wide at the Armory tomorrow night at 7. A block of 1,000 choice seats are to go on sale at the Armory when the doors open tomorrow night to care for those late in buying their tickets or making reservations. Despite bigness of the event most popular prices will prevail.

Here are names of Medford's outstanding amateur boxers who have been directed by the A. A. U. to report for the weighing in session at the Boy Scout headquarters at 10 this morning: Cal Luak, Leonard Christman, Max Gillinsky, Art Peterson, Chancy Harper, Bernard Wilder, Rodney Van Brun, Fred Reed, Jimmy Doe, Bobby Pettick, Cal Cook, Buster Crawford, Keith Bates, Lloyd Morrison, Norman Staten, Eddie Scrivens, Young Tony Cassoneri, Red Saylor, Owen Bates, Jack Anderson, Bill Henderson, Carl Hooper, Ernie Morris, Freddie Shafer, LeRoy Williams, Max Overstreet, Stanley Kuzman, Billy Hawkins, Paul Sakrads, Garrett Dens, Don Lyon, Jimmy Palmer, Ted Lindley, Tex Overstreet, George Edwards, Victor Royster, Billy Regan, George Gheland, Benny Wood, Jimmy Campbell, Paul Doe, Clarence Cook, Joe Denman, Cleo Hicks, Rex Gillinsky, Bert Luman, Boyd Prince, Wilfred Hoffman, Don Darnelle, Rex Pegg, Frankie Neal, Tommy Gillinsky, and the Medford amateurs who will compete under the banner of the C. C. C. camps and Medford during the six and furious fighting.

Tourney Facts For Fight Fans

Lee Garlock: "We're all set to handle a record crowd at the amateur fights Monday night in the Armory. Tickets are moving fast."

Jens Jensen: "I'll take Jerry Jerome on in a special bout at the amateur show Monday night if Les Showers will let me wear track shoes instead of fighting shoes."

Dick Russell: "Tickets are disappearing like hot cakes in a lumber camp on a cool September morning. When will the outside boxers start arriving in town? Well, Sunday of course. There'll be an army of them, too."

Carl Y. Tengwald: "The Armory will be kept cool by large electric fans Monday night as the warring ringmen knock each other bow-legged. Did you ever see such an advance demand for tickets?"

FRISCO 'UNKNOWN' TO PLAY SARAZEN PRO GOLF FINALS

BLUE MOUND CLUB, MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 12.—(AP)—Gene Sarazen rode into the finals of the national professional golf championship with Willie Goggin, an unknown to golf rompers, from a San Francisco municipal golf course today.

Pole apart as fame goes in golf, they will meet for the prized title, dropped by Olin Dutra of Los Angeles, in a 36-hole final over the short Blue Mound course tomorrow.

Sarazen, open champion of the United States and Great Britain last year, sailed into the finals on the afternoon of an easy 5 and 4 triumph over another eminent star, Johnny Parrell, of New York. Goggin, on leave of absence as a golf professional at a municipal course 10 miles from San Francisco to complete in his first important golf championship, survived after a great duel in which he turned back another unknown of the ranks, Jimmy Hines of the Timber Point club, New York, one up. He salted away his victory with a birdie on the 35th green.

PORTLAND ROUTED BY SEALS' RALLY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—(AP)—Scoring two runs after two were out in the ninth inning the San Francisco Seals nosed out the Portland Ducks 2 to 1 here today.

Lee Stine, young Seal right-hander, furnished the hit that decided the contest. Jack Penton doubled to center field to start the fireworks off. Tony Freitas, Portland hurler, in the final frame. He scored a moment later on Bottarini's single to center. Here Stine sent out a long hit to left center and Bottarini romped across the plate bringing victory.

Both pitchers were in their best form. Earl Sheely's home run over the left field fence in the fourth was the only score off Stine.

ROGUES TO BATTLE GOLD HILL TODAY

Baseball fans from many points in the valley will congregate at the fairground this afternoon, where the undefeated Gold Hill nine will battle the Medford Rogues for valley supremacy. The Gold Hill squad have run over all opposition this season rough shod and the embarrassment of taking the short end of a score is still before them.

Medford backers have been requested to bring plenty of money with them, reports from Gold Hill being to the effect that their fans are willing to give odds that Gold Hill will defeat the Rogues. One wager of 2 to 1 is reported to have been made.

Manager Thompson has had his team working out every night this week and reports them in great shape. Hammerly or Kell will be his choice on the mound with Force behind the bat. The balance of the line-up will be the same as used in previous games. The starting lineup as announced by Manager Haight last night will be McLean, pitcher; Joanie, catcher; Swanson, 1st; Brown, 2nd; Haight, 3rd; Williams, 3rd; Lake, left field; Forette, center field and Smith or Harrington, right field.

Fans at last Sunday's game voiced their approval when it was announced that McLean services had been secured for today's game. With his brilliant pitching, fast fielding and terrific hitting, he has won his way into the hearts of every Medford fan and they are all for him. Today's game will probably be his last as a member of the Medford team, as he is scheduled to join the San Francisco Seals on the 21st.

The game will start promptly at 2:30. Pat Shea will officiate behind the bat.
