

'Umps' Lays Down Law For Team Captains in C-C Baseball Battle

By ROY SHREVE.

Henselman's Boas and Shangle's Rogues are practicing behind closed gates, as time nears for opening game in the Medford Chamber of Commerce drive for new members.

It would surely do your heart good to see the way these two teams are training for the big game next week. Both teams are keeping a dark secret as to their training camps, but it is generally understood that they meet during noon hours, have skull practice and lift heavy weights and toss the medicine ball.

The writer had a personal interview with Captain Henselman in his office Saturday morning. When entering his office I was surprised to see him and M. N. Hogan flipping inkwells and cuspidors back and forth at each other and when I inquired as to just what they were doing, they informed me it was just a little practice to keep the eyes and arms in trim.

Captain Shangle has a sworn affidavit to the effect that Shortstop Collins and Center Fielder Thorndyke are both ineligible on account of the fact that Collins played three years in the Texas league and Thorndyke in the Corn Belt league. Commissioners Dr. J. J. Emmens and Ralph Woodford are investigating the complaint carefully.

Captain Shangle says his team is rounding into shape nicely except Jennings TIRES easily. Poy has a slight INCOME-COMPLEX, Jack Porter, right fielder, has a slight touch of BOARDFEET, E. E. Wilson, first baseman, is losing weight under the HARD-WARE of daily training, Grant says his pitching arm is fit as a fiddle and ready for any POLICY the opposition may suggest. Heath, Leonard and Huson, who comprise the balance of the team are hot and raring to go.

Henselman hasn't much to say about his boys, except he is a little provoked about the affidavit, habeas corpus, and change of venue that Captain Shangle has asked the commissioners to investigate. He claims this is an old trick of the game of baseball and often results in demoralizing a team. He predicts, however, it is acting differently on his team, and they are more determined than ever.

J. C. Carle, right fielder, had a poutle spell yesterday when Captain Henselman called him for not getting into his right position for practice. Carle claimed he was in the right field and Henselman claimed he was in the wrong field. Sam Colton, bat boy, handed Carle a bat and Henselman ran into the dug-out.

Captain Shangle almost benched Fred Heath, Jr., when he caught him in secret conversation with Justin Smith of the Boas. It was just a little misunderstanding, it was found out later, as Heath was only trying to sell Smith a first aid kit.

All the boys look good, their uniforms are in excellent condition, except Hogan's of the Boas, who seem to have a little trouble keeping his socks up. They are all ready for the big game to start next Monday and all are as cool as a piece of restaurant toast.

Watch for the signal. PLA-A-Y BAL-L-L!

PACKING PLANT ON WING PLAGE READY

Construction of a new packing plant on the Charles A. Wing orchard, southwest of Medford, is nearing completion under the direction of Larkin Reynolds. It was announced yesterday.

The plant includes a storage room of 14 car capacity and is supplied with the most modern equipment available, including the new Cutler grader and sizer.

Harry Young, formerly with the Bardwell Fruit company, has been employed as packing superintendent and will be at the Wing agency on North Front street Monday afternoon to receive applications from experienced packers and sorters, who may want work. The fruit will be packed under the Wing brand and a crop of 50 carloads of pears and apples has been estimated.

Newtowns, raised on the Wing orchard, won first prize two years ago at the Pacific International and the sweepstakes at the Western States Exposition at Phoenix, Ariz., the same year.

Managers' Predictions

Dewey Hill, Prospect—"Our amateurs will make mince meat out of the others tomorrow night. Watch and see."

Lieut. George A. A. Jones, C. C. C. Camp—"Our camp fighters will be in there throwing the leather from gong to gong."

Mayor W. W. Stockwell, Grants Pass—"Who said our Grants Pass fighters won't win tomorrow night? That idea will be dissipated a plenty."

Dick Hall, Ashland—"If anyone doesn't believe our fighters will hammer their way to victory tomorrow night, just let him be at the Medford Armory to see for himself."

"Pa" Bayliss, Manager California Amateurs—"Who ever told those Oregon amateurs they could fight surely did them an injustice and the California amateurs will prove this tomorrow night."

Asil Walker, Gold Hill—"Our fighters may not win the titles, but they are game and not quitters and will demonstrate what I mean tomorrow night."

Roy Lindley, spokesman for the Medford amateurs—"All our Medford fighters want to know is that the referee knows how to count to ten."

Carl King, Klamath Falls—"Our whole town will just about move to Medford to root for our fighters tomorrow night."

Here's What YOU Can Do

To Help President Roosevelt's National Administration Recovery Plan

MAYBE you're wondering just what all this talk of NRA means, and if there's some place in the plan for you. There IS. Here's the dope.

Business is better. All over the country, men are going back to work.

"FINE," says the President, "AS FAR AS IT GOES."

But, the President thinks that unemployment and business can pick up much faster. The NRA (National Recovery Administration) has worked out a plan to speed things up. The President wants YOUR help to make it work 100 per cent.

You are asked to try the plan from now until the end of the year.

In a nut-shell, this is what he urges:

"Split up the existing work to put more men on the payroll and raise the wages for the shorter working-shift so that no worker is getting less than a living wage."

Everybody will give up something. Everybody will gain something in the end.

The worker is asked to accept a shorter working week to give some neighbor a chance to earn his living. He will work less; have more time for play; and fewer unemployed relatives will be dependent on his help.

Business is asked to split-up work and add to payrolls so that jobs and pay envelopes can take the place of charity and contributions this winter. Present profits may be temporarily sacrificed while next year's customers are being built.

Never before has there been such a simple and definite plan for wiping out unemployment and restoring the purchasing power of all the people. If we all join together, act at once, unemployment might easily be licked by Labor Day!

Sign the agreement. Display the NRA Members seal if you're a business man. Display the NRA Consumer's seal if a consumer. Everybody has a part to play.

THE EMPLOYERS PART

Sign the President's Reemployment Agreement. Join with every other employer in the land to make jobs through shorter hours and distributing work. Raise wages to the minimum suggested by the President, at least. Abolish child labor. Cooperate with employees in peaceful adjustment of opinions. Remember—an unemployed man is a poor customer for you in the long run. More and fatter pay envelopes is the best way to boost the public's buying power and your own business.

THE PUBLIC'S PART

Support those employers and employees who do their parts to put breadwinners back to work. Patronize the stores and services displaying the NRA sign; it means they fully comply with the President's plan.

THE EMPLOYEES PART

Do your best on the job. Share your hours with the neighbor who has no work now. Cooperate with the NRA to make this plan a success. Remember—more can be done now for workers through this cooperation of 125,000,000 people than can ever be done by discord and dispute.
