

Three-Day Amateur Ring Tournament Opens at Armory Tonight

BELL FOR FIRST BATTLE TO RING 8:15 PROMPTLY

Boys Pour in for Great Sport Event—Three-Round Battles Will Be Staged in Rapid Order—No Draws

Boxing fans and fanettes will swarm into the Medford Armory tonight to witness this city's great amateur fighting men attempt to blase their way to victory over the "enemy" in the grand opening of the American Legion's great relief fund benefit championship amateur boxing tournament. The first furious fight is to start promptly at 8:15, and the last bitter tussle must end not later than 10:30. From 15 to 20 wild-eyed fighters will make up the card.

Medford's rugged fighting men took their weight and physical tests from Dr. A. F. W. Kresse yesterday morning, with the exception of a few who will be weighed in and examined at the Armory at 8:30 tonight. A number of the out-of-town ringmen were given their tests by Dr. Kresse, too, yesterday.

Invaders Powerful.

Accompanied by hundreds of followers, the invading ringsters began pouring into town early yesterday, and were continuing to pour in appearance at press time today. Although admitting they expect hard conflicts, the outsiders apparently are confident of battering their way to victory tonight.

The invading formen are powerful and it remains to be seen whether the colors of Medford and Oregon are to be found floating in the air of victory after the smoke of battle clears on the Armory field of honor tonight.

500 Seats Go on Sale Armory Tonight.

In order to care for the hundreds of fltic disciples who are lardy in securing tickets for the big fight, 500 choice seats in all ranges of prices are to go on sale at the box-office at the arena tonight. Les Showers, tourney chief, declared today. Despite bigness of the event, most popular prices prevail for the hostilities.

All fights will be for three two-minute rounds, with two judges and a referee making the decisions, and with no draw verdicts being allowed. The fighting will be gruelling and sensational as the Medford amateurs try manfully to smash their way to victory over the invaders. The fights will be offered in rapid-fire order. Before two fltic gladiators leave the ringside another pair will be seen tearing into each other.

Box Office Open Early.

Legion officials early today were completing plans to properly care for the mammoth crowd forecast for tonight's fights. The box office and doors at the Armory are to open at 7 p. m., and one hour and 15 minutes later the first pair of ringmen will climb into the hempen enclosure and usher in the mighty fltic classic by bombarding each other with terrific punches.

Electric Fans Will Keep Armory Cool.

Backing up their policy of doing things in a big way, Legion officials today were busily engaged in supervising the task of installing large electric fans throughout the Armory arena to provide comfort for the record crowd seen for tonight's wild and exciting fights.

All fights are to be arranged according to age, weight, and ability, as the spectators arrive for the hostilities tonight. Neither the spectators nor the fighters are to know "who" to fight until time for the huskies to enter the ring to begin throwing gloved fists. Knockdowns and knockouts will predominate the program.

Seats at Cleo's, Browns.

Tickets for tonight's fights will remain on sale until 6 o'clock at Cleo's and Browns, Lee Garlock and Carl Y. Tengwald, Legion chiefs, declared today. The sale will be switched to the Armory by 7 o'clock.

Les Showers, director-in-chief for the American Legion's big amateur ring classic, starting at the Armory tonight, is to accept an offer to manage a similar show in Boston, he declared today. He directed tourneys in the Bean Town in the past and would no doubt be working in the large eastern cities had not his health, impaired by vicissitudes of the World War, forced him to operate in the west.

Showers looks for a sell-out at the Armory tonight for the amateur bouts.

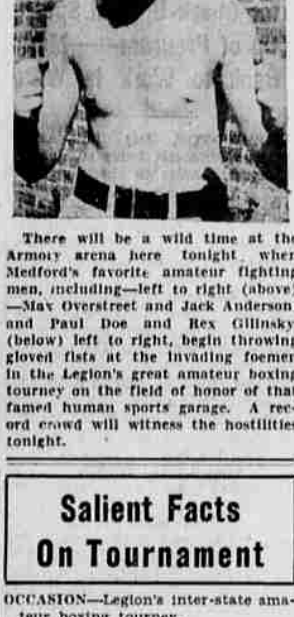

"I believe the folks of Medford and points nearby realize the magnitude of the ring event the Legion is promoting and will be on hand 100 per cent tonight to back up the Medford and other Oregon fighters as they go to war against the invaders."

Showers at one time served as press agent for Gene Tunney, Benny Leonard and Ed (Strangler) Lewis.

First shipments of peaches and apples from Georgia orchards in 1933 were reported the same day.

FORGOTTEN HORSE TAKES SPOTLIGHT

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 14.—(AP)—The long legged trotters of the grand circuit moved into Good Time Park today with the horse-wisest citizenry of placid Orange county peering eyes for a brown animal named Hollywood Spread.

He's the forgotten horse of the harness racing world. Raised in Kentucky, he was sent to the New York auctions in 1929 as a three-year-old and sold for a few hundred dollars to Louis S. Schneider, of Elizabeth, N. J. Then he sort of disappeared.

Last Thursday he popped up at Goshen, N. Y., where the trotters were celebrating their first legal meeting in New Hampshire. He started against the stars of the circuit in a $1000 race, set a record of 2:05 1/4, and came atill-legging home in front of all the money there was at the rate of $378 for $5 in the mutual pools.

FAR WEST POLO OUTFIT ONE UP

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Polo as they play it in the far west today was one up on the more famous eastern brand in their first inter-sectional series for United States supremacy.

The westerners, Cecil Smith, who refused to quit even after being thrown and rolled on by his mount; his fellow Texan, H. W. (Rube) Williams, and the Californians, Aiden Roark and Elmer Boeseke, Jr., went out yesterday in the opening match of the series at Onwentaia club and trimmed Hitchcock and his men, 13 to 11, contrary to all expectations, before 12,000 tingling spectators.

MEDFORD HANDS GOLD HILL FIRST DEFEAT, 14 TO 1

Hal Haight's Medford Rogues demonstrated their superiority over other valley teams by humbling the highly touted, previously undefeated Gold Hill team by the overwhelming score of 14 to 1 at the fairgrounds yesterday. Victory over the Cement Makers and previous victories over Coquille, Klamath Falls and Roseburg have stamped the Rogues as not only the outstanding team in Southern Oregon, but probably one of the strongest teams in the state.

Every member of the team, as in the game last week against Klamath Falls, secured at least one safe hit. A total of 18 singles were made off the delivery of Kell and Hammerly, Gold Hill's star chuckers, which included two-base hits by Harrington, Swanson and Haight, a three-bagger by McLean and home runs by Brown and McLean. George Harrington and Virgil Swanson continued their heavy hitting of last week, each connecting for three solid hits. McLean also hit safely three times.

McLean was again in rare form and allowed the Gold Hillers but three safeties, striking out a total of 13 batters and issuing four bases on balls. He held the opposition scoreless until the ninth inning when the bases were filled by two walks and an error by Swanson, and a passed ball by Joanis allowed a runner to cross the plate for the Hillers' lone tally. Two were out at the time and on the next pitch Shaver was struck out to end the game.

A near riot took place in the 7th inning when Joanis and Umpire Force came near blows, due to a difference in opinion of a called ball. Joanis, who had previously been hit twice by pitched balls, lost his temper and after allegedly being called a name by the umpire was all for attempting to give him a beating. Peace was finally restored, however, and the game continued.

Loosing to the Rogues should not dishearten the Gold Hill boys at all, as they have a snappy and well-balanced team and a fine aggregation of youngsters. Another year and these boys will be hard for any team to stop.

OREGON NET SINGLES HONOR IS REGAINED

PORTLAND, Aug. 14.—(AP)—The men's singles in the Oregon state tennis tournament went to an Oregon man here Saturday for the first time since 1920 when Wayne Sabin of Portland defeated Lloyd Budge of Berkeley, Calif., in straight sets, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1. The last Oregonian to hold the state title was Phil Neer.

Gracy Wheeler of Santa Monica won the women's championship for the second consecutive year by defeating Dorothy Bundy of Los Angeles 6-4, 1-6, 7-5.

VICTORY SMILE RETURNS TO GENE SARAZEN'S 'PAN'

By Paul Nickelson
Associated Press Sports Writer.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Perched on the national professional golf championship throne for the third time, Gene Sarazen grinned one of his wide victory smiles today and chuckled.

"A washed up golfer, eh?" he muttered as he scanned accounts of his par-breaking victory march which ended yesterday with a 5 and 4 conquest over the stout hearted Willie Goggin of San Francisco in the finale of the championship drive over the Blue Mound country club course.

"No sir, not by a long ways. I'm just getting hot."

Sarazen's remarks were directed at his old pal of golf, Tommy Armour, who called him a "washed up" golfer in a blast that preceded the 1933 championship tournament and ultimately helped to make it one of the most successful ever staged.

No man can win the professional golf game and a fighting heart, but Armour's remarks about Gene being a "washed up" golfer probably made Sarazen a champion once again.

Stung to the quick by Tommy's remark, Sarazen suddenly made up his mind to compete in the championship and then played his heart out to win against Goggin, one of the best shot making strangers ever to enter the final.

Cocksure again after winning his first championship of the year after he became one of the game's immortals by winning the British and American open championships in 1922, Sarazen today struck off for Toronto to compete in the Canadian open.

Goggin fought a great battle, but was just outclassed. Striking with a magic putter and spectacular iron, Sarazen drew away in the afternoon after Goggin had held him to a bare hole advantage in the morning and ended four under par for the day to gallop home with his conquest.

Goggin, cheered on by the gallery of 5000 who sent the tournament over the top financially, never headed Sarazen yesterday.

Fishing Lines Hints for Those Who Angle in Southern Oregon Waters

Professor Hubbard of Pacific University, Forest Grove, who is a ranger at Crater Lake national park this season, reported yesterday that while fishing in Crater lake is good at the present time, the exceptionally large fish are not such wonderful catches.

He said that the bigger fish have been in the lake for a long time, and generally are too old for food. He related a catch of Friday which included a German Brown approximately 14 inches long, which the fishermen said was not good eating. Professor Hubbard requests fishermen to bring their catches to him at the information building where he removes their stomachs. The large German Brown had two minnows in it, he said.

State police of the game division say that steelhead fishing is best now at Galice, below Grants Pass. With commercial fishermen striking at the mouth of the river, the nets are out, and the run of salmon and steelhead will not be disturbed.

Phil Lowd, deputy sheriff, caught the limit of trout Sunday on the South Fork of Rogue river.

Among the many fishermen on Rogue River Sunday were A. E. Kellogg, M. R. Hutton, Earl M. Chase and Miss M. Chase, E. L. Porter, R. B. Campbell, J. L. Dally, L. E. Clevenberg, J. H. McKinney, H. D. Haas, A. Walsh, R. M. Wyatt, N. D. Grisham, C. P. Thompson, George Handy, D. J. Vinson, R. H. Singler, Sig Ash, Scott Hamilton, A. K. Owens and John Ross.

Fine catches of perch, bass and silverides are being made at Lake of the Woods. E. E. Kelly reported today, having visited the resort Sunday.

John Holmer reports trout fishing good at Lake Prospect, with one catch last week including a trout 2 oz. less than 6 pounds.

LEGION JUNIORS IN REGIONAL TEST

POCATELLO, Idaho, Aug. 14.—(AP)—American Legion junior champions of four states will come to Pocatello this week to compete for the regional baseball title Friday and Saturday.

The teams, Woodburn, Ore., Miles City, Mont., Seattle and Pocatello, will be entertained at a public reception Thursday evening at which time drawings will be held for Friday games. Two games will be played in the afternoon starting at 2 o'clock. Losers of Friday games will play for consolation honors in the first game Saturday while Friday's winners will play for the championship at 4 o'clock.

EYE BREAD PRICE WHERE TOO HIGH

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—(AP)—Dr. Fred C. Howe, consumers' counsel for the farm administration, said today an investigation would be made in cities where the price of bread seemed out of line and where the price spread had increased sharply in the last few months.

Howe made his comment on the basis of a study by the farm administration which showed the price of bread in 16 representative cities had increased 1.4 cents from February 15 to August 2. The study was based on the average cost of a pound loaf of white bread, 16 ounces making a pound.

Dr. Howe said the increased cost of labor in the various cities had not been fully determined and this might have had an effect in making the price spread higher in some towns.

J'VILLE BASEBALL BOYS EAGER FOR GOLD HILL'S VISIT

Rivalry between small town baseball teams is traditional, but there has been a venomous competition between Gold Hill's nine and the horsehide exponents from Jacksonville that promises to amount to something.

Gold Hill, to date, has won all its games—including those played with the Jacksonville Miners, and now thinks it invented the game of baseball, say the defeated teams. But Jacksonville has always been a bit vain herself and her self-pride has extended to baseballers, who believe they can hand Gold Hill a large parcel of bad luck.

As a result of feeling between the two towns, Jacksonville has challenged Gold Hillites to come over for the Gold Rush Jubilee with their bats and best intentions to receive one of the worst defeats ever presented any team. Although the Miners were drubbed something terrible the last time they met the powerful Gold Hill nine, they explain the incident by telling how their four best players showed up missing on that day—which is no fib. "We're going to see that the full team is on deck, however, if Gold Hill dares to drop over August 19," said Manager Beach yesterday. "We doubt seriously if they will risk spoiling their perfect record so far."

"It will be the course of least resistance for Gold Hill to back comfortably in the warmth of past victories rather than to try to match the lineup Jacksonville now has," explained Coach Punk Dunnington when speaking of the proposed game. "We don't think they are over-confident enough yet to come here for the Jubilee game, but we'll be waiting with nine innings of trouble for 'em if they do."

Missing Couple Return Safely

SEASIDE, Ore., Aug. 14.—(AP)—Nacomi Sweet Summers, Portland artist, and Benjamin Mowbray of that city, who had been missing since Friday on Tillamook Head, returned to Seaside today. Parties had sought them since Friday evening when they did not return from a hiking trip on the head.
