

MILK AND SEWER HEARINGS SLATED BY CITY'S MAYOR

A public hearing to consider Medford's milk problems from all angles was called last night by Mayor E. M. Wilson following registration of complaints at the regular council meeting, regarding new elements of the milk ordinance. The chief complaint was voiced by Mrs. Roy Buckingham, who was accompanied by a group of consumers, who object to the provisions of the ordinance demanding that milk be sold in the original containers, on the grounds that it will force out of business the milk depots. The hearing, aimed to clarify the situation, will be held in the council chambers next Tuesday evening.

Committee to confer today with Samuel A. Greeley regarding Medford's proposed new sewage system, was also appointed last night at the council session. It is composed of S. A. Kroschel, W. M. Clemenson, Frederick Heath and George Porter of the health and finance committees, and C. O. Furness.

An ordinance providing for the refunding of improvement bonds of the city of Medford, issued in 1919, and amounting to $311,000, was passed by the council last night, and the electrical equipment ordinance, accepted at the first reading of the council some time ago, passed the second reading last night. It is aimed to control the sale of electrical equipment and supplies to the extent that no dangerous fixtures or wiring will be placed on the markets in Medford.

NANCY HENDRICKSON DIES FROM STROKE AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Nancy Jane Hendrickson passed away at a local hospital early Wednesday, after an illness covering the past four years. She was taken seriously ill Sunday evening from a stroke of paralysis. She was born in Yell county, Arkansas, January 14, 1855.

Nancy Jane Phifer was married to Vance K. Hendrickson in Knox county, Tennessee, January 7, 1873, and with relatives and friends emigrated from Tennessee to southern Oregon in the fall of 1874, where she has continuously resided for the past 59 years. Her husband passed away in September, 1918.

Funeral services will be held at the First Baptist church at Prospect, Ross county, Tennessee. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Talent, now deceased. She was a fine Christian woman and mother, and leaves besides her family a host of friends.

WHEAT BENEFIT MACHINERY SET UP FOR COUNTY

Organization machinery for making the benefits of the wheat adjustment program available to Jackson county farmers is well under way, according to County Agent R. G. Fowler. An organization committee consisting of Fred Hones, Ashland; Frank Wortman, Medford; Arnold Bohner, Central Point; Dick Straus, Sams Valley and Miles Cantrall, Applegate, has met and made tentative plans for getting the necessary information to wheat growers.
Meetings have been scheduled for the following places:
Sams Valley schoolhouse Friday, August 18, 8 p. m.
Ashland city hall, Monday, August 21, 8 p. m.
Medford courthouse auditorium, Tuesday, August 22, 8 p. m.
Meetings in other communities will be announced later.

All wheat growers should attend the meeting scheduled nearest them. The time is short in which contracts will be available and it is important that all wheat growers get their application blanks at once. These blanks can be obtained at the meetings and at the county agent's office.
The allotment of money to Jackson county wheat growers amounts to around $36,000 for this year, two thirds of which is to be paid this fall and the balance next spring.

RECEIVE CARLOAD FIRESTONE TIRES

An entire carload of Firestone truck and passenger tires was received in Medford yesterday by the Firestone Service Stores, according to C. L. Hopkins, manager of that concern. This is one of the largest tire shipments ever received in southern Oregon, a large-size automobile freight car being necessary. The valuation of the shipment is in excess of $10,000, according to Mr. Hopkins.

The Firestone Service Store has made an exceptionally fine sales record for truck and bus tires during the past few months and the big shipment will replenish the stock of the Medford store.

UPPER ROGUE CAMP TRIMS WINEGLASS

Don Ballard, star pitcher for the Upper Rogue CCC camp team held the Wineglass camp CCC led to one hit in Saturday's game at Prospect, and the Wineglasers were white-washed to the tune of 7-0.
The game was hotly contested throughout and no runs were chalked up until after the seventh inning.
The Upper Rogue outfit has yet to taste defeat this year and are pointing toward the district championship.

SQUAD OF 3-C BOYS MAKE TRIP TO SEA

A squad of CCC men from the Upper Rogue river camp journeyed to the sea Saturday and remained over Sunday, many of the forest soldiers getting their first view of the Pacific. Coats and blankets were taken along and camp pitched at the beach at Crescent City.
According to camp officers the jaunt was very much enjoyed by the boys as a welcome interlude in the forest camp life.

GRANT PROMOTED TO TEACH AGENTS OF METROPOLITAN

Carl Grant, district manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company here, returned yesterday from San Francisco, where he received appointment to Seattle as agency sales instructor for the Northwest. His territory will include Oregon, Washington and possibly Montana. He will make headquarters in Seattle. The transfer will be made within three weeks. Mr. Grant said today, stating that he did not know who his successor here would be.
In accepting the new promotion, he stated that he regretted to leave Medford, where he has been located for the past three years. During that time Mr. Grant has played a prominent part in the civic life of Medford. He is a member of the Rotary club and chairman of the vocational service committee of that organization. He is also a member of the Chamber of Commerce and an active worker in the Methodist Episcopal church, where he is chairman of the finance committee.
Mrs. Grant and daughter, Zella Mae, who will also be leaving Medford to make their home in the north, are now visiting in the east. They expect to return about September 10.
Mr. Grant's appointment to the northern territory was made by the head office of the insurance company in San Francisco.

CHEESE DROPS AS MARKETS FILL UP

PORTLAND, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Weakness in the cheese market which finally forced the 2c cut in selling prices by Tillamook yesterday, was the direct result of continued competition of offerings and increasing cold storage holdings through the country. While the latest cut in the eastern price was but 1c lb., there have been several slashes there since Tillamook made a change. The latter continued the highest priced cheese market for like type in the world.

Trading in the egg market continued generally unchanged as to character and price locally. Weakness dominated the undergrades with strength in the top sorts. Receipts were again decreasing.
A special session of the produce exchange simply to follow the further decline of prices at Seattle was held with the expected loss of 1c lb. here for butter, while butterfat was off 2c lb.

The Missouri state highway patrol began a "safe driving" campaign after 39 persons were killed and 577 were injured in motor accidents in Missouri in one month.

Fallsade glacier in Inyo county, Cal., the most southerly ice mountain on the continent, is seven miles long, a mile and a half wide and is estimated to be 150 feet deep.

Portable gold mills, capable of being transported by airplane into remote mining areas, are being used in northern Ontario and other sections of Canada.

BLASTING HEAT MODERATING IN OREGON SECTOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Hot tempered the heat wave at some Pacific coast points today, but inland various forest fires raged unchecked and the prospect was for more hot weather.
Nine deaths directly attributable to the high temperatures were reported.
In California eleven forest fires started by lightning in the Sierra national forest were fought by members of the C. C. C. Thousands of acres of forest land were burned over on the Coast range summit near Forest Grove, in northern Oregon and 350 men were fighting the fire today. The flames were made treacherous by shifting winds.
In British Columbia fires spread over a mile and a half front in slashings at Sooke on Vancouver Island. A high wind drove another fire through slashings in East Kootenay.
The Alaska territorial treasury had a cash balance of $60,000 more at the end of the fiscal year than it did June 30, 1932.
The crop-reporting service estimates California will have its smallest grape crop in five years in 1933.

TWO SUICIDE IN LA GRANDE AREA

LA GRANDE, Ore., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Mrs. Lee Slusher, middle aged La Grande woman, died at a hospital here early today from a bullet wound in her head, which Coroner George Walker said was self-inflicted.
Mrs. Slusher, officers said, previously had attempted to commit suicide, but unsuccessfully. No motive was known other than a temporary despondency. Her husband was on the front porch of her home last night when he heard a shot inside the house, he told the coroner.
LA GRANDE, Ore., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Mrs. Sarah Harvey of Fowwaka, a community in Wallowa county about 10 miles south of the Washington border, shot herself through the left temple with an automatic pistol Monday afternoon, according to reports received here today from Enterprise. No motive for the shooting could be advanced by her husband who saw her leave the family home, apparently to go to a neighbor's place, officers reported.

Union Men Speed Annual Conclave

PORTLAND, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Delegations to the annual Oregon State Federation of Labor convention here in session since Monday, planned today to speed up their program so as to conclude the meeting tomorrow.
The resolutions committee, which handles most of the work, was expected to report a multitude of resolutions which have been showered on the group since the opening day.
The delegates adjourned early yesterday afternoon in hope of finding some relief from the record heat, in which the city sweltered, and most of them were guests at a river resort here where the afternoon was spent in water sports and other play.
